Wonderfully Made A Memoir Of Unexpected Joy:

Wonderfully Made Sabrina Moyer,Angelika Bobst,2013-10-01 The last thing I thought about when I was expecting was special needs The last thing I accepted after my youngest was born was that he had Down syndrome In the months that followed the last thing I wanted to do was accept the bleak outlook that he had been so innocently born into I rejected the medical literature that prepared me for a lifetime of endless suffering and heartache and I searched high and low for the testimonials the happy endings and the inspiring true stories of other parents who had been down this same road This is a story about my journey
