cultural geography sociology philosophy and the field of tourism studies itself Sacred Objects in Secular Spaces Bruce M. Sullivan, 2015-10-22 We have long recognized that many objects in museums were originally on display in temples shrines or monasteries and were religiously significant to the communities that created and used them How though are such objects to be understood described exhibited and handled now that they are in museums Are they still sacred objects or formerly sacred objects that are now art objects or are they simultaneously objects of religious and artistic significance depending on who is viewing the object These objects not only raise questions about their own identities but also about the ways we understand the religious traditions in which these objects were created and which they represent in museums today Bringing together religious studies scholars and museum curators Sacred Objects in Secular Spaces is the first volume to focus on Asian religions in relation to these questions The contributors analyze an array of issues related to the exhibition in museums of objects of religious significance from Hindu Buddhist and Sikh traditions The lives of objects are considered along with the categories of sacred and profane religious and secular As interest in material manifestations of religious ideas and practices continues to grow Sacred Objects in Secular Spaces is a much needed contribution to religious and Asian studies
