Urbanization and Social Change in West Africa Josef Gugler,1978 Issues and Alternatives in Comparative Social Research Ragin,2021-11-01 The Migration Experience in Africa Jonathan Baker,Tade Akin Aina,1995 South Africa by Christian M Rogerson DIY Urbanism in Africa Stephen Marr,Patience Mususa,2023-11-02 Protracted economic crises accelerating inequalities and increased resource scarcity present significant challenges for the majority of Africa s urban population Limited state capacity and widespread infrastructure deficiencies common in cities across the continent often require residents to draw on their own resources knowledge and expertise to resolve these life and livelihood dilemmas DIY Urbanism in Africa investigates these practices It develops a theoretical framework through which to analyze them and it presents a series of case studies to demonstrate how residents invent new DIY tactics and strategies in response to security place making or economic problems This book offers a timely critical intervention into literatures on urban development and politics in Africa It is valuable to students policymakers and urban practitioners keen to understand the mechanisms and political implications of widespread dynamics now shaping Africa s expanding urban environments

Urbanization, Migration, and Development Bryan R. Roberts,1989 Transport and Development B. S. Hoyle,1973-07-01 Handbook of Global Technology Policy Stuart Nagel,2000-09-28 The Handbook of Global Technology Policy presents and compares nonideological resolutions to environmental pollution and toxic waste urbanization and transportation homelessness health care policies around the world It provides an evaluation of industrial interventions and energy sources explores flow control and corporate growth privatization and liberalization health data networks and electronic innovation and governance Other topics include pharmaceutical policies the state of science and technology in Africa the reemergence of tuberculosis wind energy technology development and diffusion in Inner Mongolia and major problems of policy implementation in India Urban Dynamics in Black Africa William J. Hanna,2017-09-29 Urban Dynamics in Black Africa presents a succession of worlds where we can study the development and the crystallization of major social change The authors trace the development of former villages towns and colonial outposts into major cities within the international community Open air markets continue their trading beside modern department stores as individual Africans create contemporary lives from old and new William J and Judith L Hanna in this unique work introduce new data and the methods of dependency theory class and gender analysis they offer connections between Africa s internal dynamics its legacy of imperialism and the international political and economic arena At the same time the book provides a model for studying the evolution of political institutions Urban Dynamics in Black Africa illustrates how social classes modify and are modified by existing cultural forms The book examines Africa in its independence by contrasting development and dependency role adaptability and conflict in a powerful conceptual matrix Detailing the urban conditions that exist throughout Africa as well as their costs and benefits this work shows how contemporary political conflict in urban Africa is based upon both ethnic and non ethnic ties and how these ethnic and non ethnic ties serve as the bases of a system of political integration unique to poly ethnic communities As a synthesis of the relevant available knowledge on African towns and town dwellers this book is concerned primarily with the effects of external intervention and socioeconomic modernization upon the birth and development of Africa s new towns and the rapid expansion of its old ones It considers the impact of migration and town life upon Africans African Studies Review ,1978 The West African Journal of Sociology and Political Science ,1976 The Urban Challenge in Africa Carole Rakodi,1997 In this work scholars examine the growth of the largest cities in Africa It is revealed that the new phase of globalization has reinforced the continent s marginalization impoverishment indebtedness and lack of policy autonomy rather than leading to economic growth and diversification Third World Planning Review ,1994 Books in Series ,1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Africa's Urban Past David Anderson,Richard Rathbone,2000 A selection of papers first delivered at the conference on Africa s Urban Past held at the School of Oriental and African Studies University of London 1996 The Sociology of Development Bryan R. Roberts,Robert G. Cushing,Charles H. Wood,1995 This new authoritative two volume set contains a selection of the most important articles and papers spanning over 30 years on the sociology of development It is divided under 14 succinct headings covering the main areas of the field including Antecedents Modernization Theory Dependency the Global Economy the Urban and the Rural Gender and Ethnicity Environment and Sustainable Development The first volume features a comprehensive collection by authors whose work has shaped academic thought and public policy on the economic development of third world nations Contemporary scholarship on economic development is explored in the second volume which addresses today s major research issues class gender ethnic and race inequality the informal economy population growth migration worker remittances politics and the state planning and development and the state and sustainable development The editors do not limit their selection of articles on the sociology of development to just one country papers are included on Africa Latin America China Mexico as well as more general articles on the developing world The editors have also written an introduction to accompany the piece explaining their selection of articles chosen Harare Carole Rakodi,1995-11-09 Traces the history of Harare Zimbabwe s capital and largest city from its colonial origins through periods of settler rule and its independence to the present Documents marked inequalities in income and emerging pressures on housing facilities and services as well as the manner in which local authorities are attempting to deal with them Relates the city s physical and socio economic development to the political economy of Zimbabwe American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Title index R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography,1978 Urban Planning and the Post-colonial State in Africa Akin L. Mabogunje,1989 Urban Poverty in Africa Sue Jones,Nici Nelson,1999 This book looks at the urban poverty debate bringing together contributions from academics practitioners and urban poverty specialists to represent a multi disciplinary approach to the debate highlighting the need to link policy institutional and grassroots efforts

The first part of the book considers the structural contexts how poverty has arisen how poverty theory has sought to increase our understanding and how the policies of municipal and national authorities have impacted on the poor The second part deals with institutional responses to urban poverty and is concerned with the possibilities for constructive action Here contributors look at poverty assessments that have been instigated by the World Bank and how these should be used as well as multi layered approaches to poverty alleviation which could be supported by donor agencies Real case studies on the work of a South African NGO with the homeless and the work of NGO promoted micro finance programmes in the Horn of Africa The third part explores the grassroots survival strategies of the poor themselves It looks at the strategies of poor families with particular reference to women s health seeking behaviour the plight of street children and old women living alone in Ghana and considers livelihood strategies and the significance of rural urban linkages for the urban poor in Africa Cities, Poverty, and Development Alan Gilbert,Josef Gugler,1992 It is expected that by the end of the decade only the poorest cities in Asia and Africa will still be predominantly rural This book seeks to explain this urban revolution and to show how people survive in the cities why they move from the country side and what involvement they have in politics
