Women on the Margins. Three Seventeenth-Century Lives, 1997 Women on the Margins Natalie Zemon Davis, 1995 Spiritual Sonnets Gabrielle de Coignard, 2007-11-01 Born into a wealthy family in Toulouse Gabrielle de Coignard ca 1550-86 married a prominent statesman in 1570 Widowed three years later with two young daughters to raise Coignard turned to writing devotional verse to help her cope with her practical and spiritual struggles Spiritual Sonnets presents the first English translation of 129 of Coignard's highly autobiographical poems giving us a startlingly intimate view into the life and mind of this Renaissance woman The sonnets are all written in the shadow of the Cross and include elegies penitential lyrics Biblical meditations and more Rich with emotion Coignard's poems reveal anguished moments of loneliness and grief as well as ecstatic experiences of mystical union They also reveal her mastery of sixteenth century literary conventions and spiritual traditions This edition printed in bilingual format with Melanie E Gregg's translations facing the French originals will be welcomed by teachers and students of poetry French literature women's studies and religious and Renaissance studies Emotions and the Letter Katie Barclay, Diana G. Barnes, 2025-10-30 From hate mail to suicide notes to begging letters this book explores the relationship between letter writing and emotion through case studies from antiquity to the 21st century It shows how the epistolary form has offered a wide range of ways to communicate private feelings make public statements and offers a rich historical source to explore how people have performed emotions for a range of audiences Emotions and the Letter shows how this long standing historical source can provide insights into a diversity of emotion traditions Uses of the letter in different periods and its emotional potential reflect important interactions between individuals and society private and public aesthetics and authenticity Applying approaches and methods from the history of emotions literary studies and affect studies this collection significantly advances our understanding of why letters remain a critical mode of communication and explores how to analyse letters for historical emotions research Memoirs of the Life of Henriette-Sylvie de Moliere Madame de Villedieu, 2007-11-01 Known as Madame de Villedieu Marie Catherine Desjardins ca 1640-83 was a prolific writer who played an important role in the evolution of the early modern French novel One of the earliest women to write for a living she defied cultural convention by becoming an innovator and appealing to popular tastes through fiction drama and poetry Memoirs of the Life of Henriette Sylvie de Moliere a semi autobiographical novel portrays an enterprising woman who writes the story of her life a complex tale that runs counter to social expectations and novelistic conventions A striking work the story skillfully mixes real events from the author's life with fictional adventures At a time when few women published Villedieu's Memoirs is a significant achievement in creating a voice for the early modern woman writer Produced while the French novel form was still in its infancy it should be welcomed by any scholar of women's writing or the early development of the novel Jewish High Society in Old Regime Berlin Deborah Hertz, 2005-06-28 During the quarter century between 1780 and 1806 Berlin's courtly and intellectual elites gathered in the homes of a few wealthy cultivated Jewish women to discuss the events of the day Princes nobles upwardly mobile writers actors and beautiful Jewish women flocked to the salons of Rahel Varnhagen Henriette Herz and Dorothea von Courland creating both a new cultural institution and an example of social mixing unprecedented in the German past Complete Writings Isotta Nogarola, 2007-11-01 Renowned in her day for her scholarship and eloquence Isotta Nogarola 1418-66 remained one of the most famous women of the Italian Renaissance for centuries after her death And because she was one of the first women to carve out a place for herself in the male dominated republic of letters Nogarola served as a crucial role model for generations of aspiring female artists and writers This volume presents English translations of all of Nogarola's extant works and highlights just how daring and original her convictions were In her letters and orations Nogarola elegantly synthesized Greco-Roman thought with biblical teachings And striding across the stage in public she lectured the Veronese citizenry on everything from history and religion to politics and morality But the most influential of Nogarola's works was a performance piece Dialogue on Adam and Eve in which she discussed the relative sinfulness of Adam and Eve thereby opening up a centuries-long debate in Europe on gender and the nature of woman and establishing herself as an important figure in Western intellectual history This book will be a must-read for teachers and students of Women's Studies as well as of Renaissance literature and history From Mother to Son mère Marie de l'Incarnation, 2014 From Mother to Son is an annotated translation of forty-one of the eighty-one extant full-length letters written Marie de l'Incarnation founder of the Ursulines in Canada to her son Claude Martin between 1640 and 1671 These collected letters reveal much about the early history of New France and the spiritual itinerary of one of the most celebrated mystics of the seventeenth century Uniting these letters into a coherent whole is the distinctive and complicated relationship between an absent mother and her abandoned son From Mother to Son, 2014-07-01 Marie de l'Incarnation 1599-1672 renowned French mystic and founder of the Ursulines in Canada abandoned her son Claude Martin when he was a mere eleven years old to dedicate herself completely to a consecrated religious life In 1639 Marie migrated to the struggling French colony at Quebec to found the first Ursuline convent in the New World Over the course of the next thirty-one years the relationship between Marie and Claude would take shape by means of a trans-Atlantic correspondence in which mother and son shared advice and counsel concerns and anxieties and joys and frustrations From Mother to Son presents annotated translations of forty-one of the eighty-one extant full-length letters exchanged by Marie and her son between 1640 and 1671 These letters reveal much about the early history of New France and the spiritual itinerary of one of the most celebrated mystics of the seventeenth century Uniting the letters into a coherent whole is the distinctive relationship between an absent mother and her abandoned son a relationship reconfigured from flesh and blood to the written word exchanged between professed religious united in Jesus Christ as members of the same spiritual family In providing a contemporary translation of Marie s letters to Claude Mary Dunn renders accessible to an English speaking readership a rich source for the history of colonial North America providing a counterpoint to a narrative weighted in favor of Plymouth Rock and the Puritans and a history of New France dominated by the perspectives of men both religious and secular Dunn expertly contextualizes the correspondence within the broader cultural historical intellectual and theological currents of the seventeenth century as well as within modern scholarship on Marie de l Incarnation From Mother to Son offers a fascinating portrait of the nature and evolution of Marie s relationship with her son By highlighting the great range of their conversation Dunn provides a window onto one of the more intriguing and complicated stories of maternal and filial affection in the modern Christian West
