Women Policy And Politics The Construction Of Policy Problems:

Women, Policy and Politics Carol Lee Bacchi,2001 Women, Policy and Politics Carol Lee Bacchi,1999-09-13

Drawing on recent perspectives from social constructionism discourse analysis feminism and the sociology of social problems this volume reviews a range of policy problems relating to women s inequality Critical Approaches to Women and

Gender in Higher Education Pamela L. Eddy,Kelly Ward,Tehmina Khwaja,2017-01-12 This volume provides a critical examination of the status of women and gender in higher education today Despite the increasing numbers of women in higher education gendered structures continue to hinder women s advancement in academia This book goes beyond the numbers to examine the issues facing those members of academia with non dominant gender identities The authors analyze higher education structures from a range of perspectives and offer recommendations at individual and institutional levels to encourage activism and advance equality in academia Four Lenses of Population Aging Patrik Marier,2021-05-05 This book analyses the actions and plans enacted by the ten Canadian provinces to prepare for the new reality of an aging society Violence: Probing the Boundaries around the World ,2020-08-10 In Violence Probing the Boundaries around the World the contributors analyse implicitly and explicitly the conceptualisation of violent processes across the world as well as the circumstances that enable them to exist and open ways to imagine valuable interventions This collection of articles presented on the 11th Global Conference in Prague makes clear how fascinating violence is and how difficult to cope with and to initiate changes Through explicit thinking the book opens ways to develop and to plan relevant initiatives and valuable interventions that are culture sensitive The Politics of Feminist Knowledge Transfer María Bustelo,Lucy Ferguson,Maxime

Forest,2019-04-13 The Politics of Feminist Knowledge Transfer draws together analytical work on gender training and gender expertise Its chapters critically reflect on the politics of feminist knowledge transfer understood as an inherently political dynamic and contested process the overall aim of which is to transform gendered power relations in pursuit of more equal societies workplaces and policies At its core the work explores the relationship between gender expertise gender training and broader processes of feminist transformation arising from knowledge transfer activities Examining these in a reflective way the book brings a primarily practice based debate into the academic arena With contributions from authors of diverse backgrounds including academics practitioners and representatives of gender training institutions the editors combine a focus on gender expertise and gender training with more theory focused chapters Mainstreaming Politics

Carol Lee Bacchi,Joan Eveline,2010 This book offers an innovative rethinking of policy approaches to gender equality and of the process of social change It brings several new chapters together with a series of previously published articles to reflect on these topics A particular focus is gender mainstreaming a relatively recent development in equality policy in many industrialised and some industrialising countries as well as in large international organisations such as the World Bank the International Monetary Fund and the International Labour Organization The book draws upon poststructuralist organisation and policy theory to argue that it is impossible to script reform initiatives such as gender mainstreaming. As an alternative it recommends thinking about such policy developments as fields of contestation shaped by on the ground political deliberations and practices including the discursive practices that produce specific ways of understanding the problem of gender inequality. In addition to the new chapters the editors Bacchi and Eveline produce brief introductions for each chapter tracing the development of their ideas over four years. Through these commentaries the book provides exciting insights into the complex processes of collaboration and theory generation. Mainstreaming Politics is a rich resource for both practitioners in the field and for theorists. In particular it will appeal to those interested in public policy, public administration, organisation studies, sociology, comparative politics and international studies.

Homelessness and Social Work Carole

Zufferey, 2016-11-25. Drawing on intersectional theorising, Homelessness and Social Work highlights the diversities and complexities of homelessness and social work research, policy and practice. It invites social work students, practitioners, policy makers and academics to re-examine the subject by exploring how homelessness and social work are constituted through intersecting and unequal power relations. The causes of homelessness are frequently associated with individualist explanations without examining the broader political and intersecting social inequalities that shape how social problems such as homelessness are constructed and responded to by social workers. In reflecting on factors such as Indigeneity, race, ethnicity, gender, class, age, sexuality, ability and other markers of identity, the author seeks to construct a new intersectional framework for understanding social work and homelessness, provide a critical analysis of social work responses to homelessness, challenge how homelessness is represented in social work research, social policy and social work practice and incorporate the stories of people experiencing homelessness. The book will be of interest to undergraduate and higher research degree students in the fields of intersectionality, homelessness, sociology, public policy and social work.

What's the Problem Represented to Be? Carol Bacchi, 2025-10-22. Originally developed as a mode of critical policy analysis, What's the Problem Represented to Be: A New Thinking Paradigm extends the thinking behind the innovative 'What's the problem represented to be' (WPR) approach to new areas of investigation. It poses a challenge to problem solving as the dominant way of thinking about human existence and human endeavours and offers a fresh alternative that turns attention to the contours of designated problems. By focusing on proposed solutions to conditions labelled problems, the WPR approach produces a dynamic form of analysis and critique targeting how problems are represented. This critical analytic posture is extended from problems to a wide range of putative conditions including indeterminate situations, issues, controversies and matters of concern. In this new thinking paradigm, items such as buildings and maps are analysed as proposals for change and hence as problematisations with important political implications. The book brings together the theoretical resources underpinning the WPR approach and considers important methodological ramifications. A table of WPR questions incorporates changes to the approach signalled in the book. This book will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students, early career researchers and academics in a wide range of fields including public policy education law international relations and disability Indigenous and feminists studies Making Gender Equality Happen Rosalind Cavaghan, 2017-05-25 In theory the EU's Gender Mainstreaming policy should mark it out as a trail blazer in gender equality but gender equality activists in Europe confront a knotty problem most civil servants and policy makers can't understand how to mainstream gender Making Gender Equality Happen argues that we should take this problem seriously In this book Cavaghan uncovers the social processes that make gender appear irrelevant to so many policy makers using a new method gender knowledge contestation analysis Building on this new perspective Cavaghan identifies barriers to effective gender mainstreaming mechanisms of resistance to gender mainstreaming and the steps towards positive change which gender mainstreaming can yield even when results stop short of transformation These findings present fresh perspectives for policy makers and activists aiming to make gender equality happen Cavaghan's new method also opens fresh avenues in feminist EU studies which are particularly relevant in the wake of the financial crisis as the EU seems to be stepping away from its commitments to gender equality

The Top Books of the Year Women Policy And Politics The Construction Of Policy Problems The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Women Policy And Politics The Construction Of Policy Problems : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Women Policy And Politics The Construction Of Policy Problems : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Women Policy And Politics The Construction Of Policy Problems : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
