Excerpt: SjsPHERE was a king's son nobody had so many or such beautiful books as he had. Everything which had been done in this world he could read about and see represented in splendid pictures. He could give a description of every people and every country but where was the Garden of Paradise of that he could not learn one word and that it was of which he thought most. His grandmother had told him when he was quite a little boy and first began to go to school that every flower in the Garden of Paradise was the most delicious cake one was history another geography a third tables and it was only needful to eat one of these cakes and so the lesson was learned and the more was eaten of them the better acquainted they were with history geography and tables. At that time he believed all this but when he grew a bigger boy and had learned more and was wiser he was quite sure that there must be some other very different delight in this Garden of Paradise. Oh why did Eve gather of the tree of knowledge why did Adam eat the forbidden fruit? If it had been me I never would have done so. If it had been me sin should never have entered into the world. So said he many a time when he was young so said he when he was much older. The Garden of Paradise filled his whole thoughts. One day he went into the wood he went alone for that was his greatest delight. The evening came. The clouds drew together it began to rain as if the whole heavens were one single sluice of which the gate was open it was quite dark or like night in the deepest well. Now he slipped in the wet grass now he stumbled over the bare stones which were scattered over the rocky ground. Everything streamed with water not a dry thread remained upon the prince.
