PREFACE

In this lecture I have endeavored to draw attention to some of the Biblical evidence, gathered in both the Old and New Testaments, which reveals God as a God of wrath as well as a God of love. It is an axiom of the Bible that there is no incompatibility between these two attributes of the divine nature, and for the most part the great Christian theologians and preachers of the past have manifested as they lived to both sides of the divine self-disclosure. In more recent years, however, there has been widespread neglect and indeed denial of the doctrine of the divine wrath, and emphasis has been placed almost exclusively upon the love of God revealed in Jesus Christ. As consequence the severity of Biblical Christianity has largely been lost sight of, with lamentable and disastrous results in many spheres of life, as Dr. Ch. H. Lloyd Jones has so fully illustrated in After the Power of God has clearly shown. It is surely clear that the holiness was indispensable, and that a punishment which has been an act of God should be faced with the reality of His wrath as well as with His loving-kindness.
