Words, Images and Performances in Translation Rita Wilson, Brigid Maher, 2012-02-02 Self-Translation Anthony Cordingley, 2013-01-17 Self Translation Brokering originality in hybrid culture provides critical historical and interdisciplinary analyses of self translators and their works It investigates the challenges which the bilingual oeuvre and the experience of the self translator pose to conventional definitions of translation and the problematic dichotomies of original and translation author and translator Canonical self translators such as Samuel Beckett Vladimir Nabokov and Rabindranath Tagore are here discussed in the context of previously overlooked self translators from Japan to South Africa from the Basque Country to Scotland This book seeks therefore to offer a portrait of the diverse artistic and political objectives and priorities of self translators by investigating different cosmopolitan post colonial and indigenous practices Numerous contributions to this volume extend the scope of self translation to include the composition of a work out of a multilingual consciousness or society They demonstrate how production within hybrid contexts requires the negotiation of different languages within the self generating powerful experiences from crisis to liberation and texts that offer key insights into our increasingly globalized culture

Translation and Contemporary Art MaCarmen África Vidal Claramonte, 2022-03-01 This book looks to expand the definition of translation in line with Susan Bassnett and David Johnston's notion of the outward turn applying this perspective to contemporary art to broaden the scope of how we understand translation in today's global multisemiotic world The book takes as its point of departure the idea that texts are comprised of not only words but other semiotic systems and therefore expanding our notions of both language and translation can better equip us to translate stories told via non traditional means in novel ways While the outward turn has been analyzed in literature Vidal directs this spotlight to contemporary art a field which has already engaged in disciplinary connections with Translation Studies The volume highlights how the unpacking of such connections between disciplines encourages engagement with contemporary social issues around identity power migration and globalization and in turn new ways of thinking and bringing about wider cultural change This innovative book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies and contemporary art
