Yes Minister Patterns Of Christian Service:

Yes ... Minister? Jim Cotter, 1992 A Priesthood of Both Sexes Ali Green, 2011-11-30 Here is a wealth of advice and encouragement for women and men who are called to work together at all levels of Christian leadership Packed with perceptive anecdotes and theological insight this pioneering book shows how a Church that is truly committed to the interests of all people lives out that commitment through the inclusivity of its leadership The Call for Women Bishops Harriet A. Harris, Jane Shaw, 2004 A collection of views on this debated issue A stimulating collection of purpose written contributions on the issue of women bishops The Church of England is debating whether to admit women to the episcopate Many churches in the Anglican Communion have already done so or have said that they will but have not yet elected or appointed any women as bishops This book argues the case for women bishops by addressing the significance of scripture and tradition issues of authority the need for change as well as the place of bishops in the church and the world Contributors include the first female bishop in the Anglican Communion as well as a range of bishops other clergy and laypeople male and female from Africa the USA Australia England Scotland and New Zealand from the Anglican Methodist Baptist Orthodox and Roman Catholic churches Just Good Friends Elizabeth Stuart, 1995 A great deal has been written about homosexuality and Christianity Although generally there is a conscious move towards understanding and incorporating the experiences of gay men and women the Church's response has been to treat homosexuality as a problem within sexual ethics However a growing number of gay and lesbian Christians influenced by liberation movements within and outside the Church are claiming a place in the Church and finding a voice in theological and ecclesiastical discourse Elizabeth Stuart suggests that gay people may have some important insights to contribute to theological reflection about sexuality marriage and celibacy most notably in the understanding of friendship to include our most intimate and committed relationships This is not a book about whether Christians should accept or affirm gay people and their relationships That debate goes on Dr Stuart's concern here is to ask supposing lesbian and gay people were equal in the sight of God what then might heterosexual people learn from them What new and creative ways of relating might emerge to the benefit of the whole community Patterns, 1985

Dennison, 1986 Christian Register and Boston Observer, 1929 Nurturing Hope Lynne M. Baab, 2018-08-01 Trends and skills for those who offer pastoral care

Christian pastoral care has changed a great deal in the past few decades in response to many factors in our rapidly changing world In part 1 of Nurturing Hope Lynne Baab discusses seven trends in pastoral care shifts in who delivers pastoral care the attitudes and commitments that undergird pastoral care and societal trends that are shaping pastoral care today She illustrates them with stories from diverse congregations where Christian caregivers are meeting those challenges in creative and exciting ways In the second half of the book Baab presents four practical doable energizing skills needed by pastoral carers in our time Focusing on skills that help carers nurture connections between everyday life and Christian faith she explores the need for carers to understand common stressors listen pray with others and nurture their personal resilience Grounded in an understanding of God as the true caregiver and healer the author offers tips for readers who are training other pastoral carers or developing their own understanding and skills Each chapter ends with discussion and reflection questions making the book helpful for groups Lynne Baab brings readers hope for their caring role and for their own spiritual journey

Homiletic Review ,1904 Shaped for Service Paul Goodliff,2017-02-17 In the English speaking Western world alone thousands of men and women begin formal training for Christian ministry each year or informally seek to equip themselves for pastoral ministry Over the past fifty years the ancient world of virtue ethics has been reimagined as a means of forming people of character and morality today and in this book it is used as the framework to understand what we are doing as we form Christian ministers now and how we might strengthen that formation by more consciously linking the practices of ministry with the person spirituality and wisdom of the practitioner Writing out of the context of a lifetime of pastoral ministry and the oversight of ministers in the Baptist Union of Great Britain Paul Goodliff explores what pastors do and who they are called to be using a mixture of theological and pastoral inquiry reflections upon art and personal story This book will be of interest to those who are charged with forming the next generation of ministers but anyone starting out on that journey of formation for ministry will also find this vision of ministry challenging and inspiring
