Propp, 2011-12-13 Its the Christmas season the most wonderful time of the year for most people in River City California But for Jehovahs Witnesses Lawrence and Brad its a time for them to try to explain the truth about this holiday season to the people of the community Their earnest efforts may earn them ridicule disagreement or a door slammed rudely in their faces but they persist and are sometimes able to find a mind and heart receptive to their urgent message about Jehovahs coming Kingdom Whereas for Elders Skousen and Marshall two Latter day Saint Mormon missionaries the season is another opportunity to share their Churchs distinctive interpretation of the Christian gospel but their efforts are often rebuffed as well In the course of their work these two pairs of men engage in dialogue with traditional Christians as well as members of the Church of Christ the Community of Christ RLDS Seventh day Adventists and Oneness

Pentecostals not to mention skeptics, atheists and the increasing numbers of people who lack any particular religious beliefs. But when a local church brings in a researcher to give a series of lectures on Cults and specifically targeting the Jehovah's Witnesses and Mormons, a confrontation is ensured where theological and biblical concepts collide in a public forum. Who if anyone really has the Truth? Can one still discover the true meaning of Christmas in the midst of passionate disagreements over the validity of the holiday season? Are objections raised about the secularization and rampant commercialism of the modern celebration valid? Spend a holiday season or any other season with some interesting and intellectually stimulating characters as they explore these and other challenging questions. Readers of the author's earlier novel A Multicultural Christmas will be pleased to see a brief reappearance of two characters from that book. Sing and Change the World! David Edward Dayton, 2002. Sing and Change The World combines chicken soup inspiration with Mozart effect musical power to demonstrate the impact of singing on ordinary life. Thematic chapters present historic characters, celebrities and everyday people who changed themselves and their world with a well timed tune. Included are personal testimonies from Robert Goulet, Yoko Ono and others. Workout for the Soul Chrissie Blaze, 2001. Blaze shows readers how to nourish their souls in just 15 minutes a day with a powerful yet simple eight step action plan that can make them feel more alive, creative and dynamic.

Through the Eyes of Santa Robert C. Goodman, 2004. Sixteen hilarious and sometimes heartbreaking stories told by one of Santa's most experienced helpers. Robert Goodman's career as one of Santa's most devoted helpers began oddly enough in Vietnam where he was ordered to put on the velvet suit for the first time. The experience was so gratifying for him and those he came in contact with that the experience began a lifelong commitment. People of all ages will enjoy this tribute to the hundreds of thousands of Santa's helpers that put on the suit every year. The Inner Lover Valerie Harms, 1999.

Understanding why we are passionately attracted to certain people can lead us to the Inner Lover, a creative aspect of our own nature. Valerie Harms observes that the images, feelings and fantasies that are aroused when we fall in love in brief encounters and lasting bonds in unrequited and impossible relationships are the key to hidden potentials within ourselves. In this book she presents techniques of journaling, dreamwork and imaginal dialogues to guide the reader on an adventure of self discovery in which the powerful energies of love may be transformed into creativity and fulfillment.
