The Suit Can Themba Analysis:

Can Themba Siphiwo Mahala, 2022-03-30 Mahala's biography gives insight into the life and writing of Can Themba 1924-1967, an iconic figure of the South African literary world and Drum journalist who died in exile. Can Themba: The Intellectual Tsotsi a Biography brings to life the iconic South African writer and journalist Can Themba (21 June 1924 – 8 September 1967) who died while exiled in Swaziland in 1967. Best known for his classic short story 'The Suit', Themba has been somewhat of an enigma with very little known about his personal life. This biography brings forth the voices of those who had personal interactions with him, shining the light on different aspects of his life including education, literature, journalism, and political fraternities. It features interviews with prominent individuals including his former students Abdul Bham Pitika Ntuli and Mbulelo Mzamane, journalistic mentees Juby Mayet and Joe Thloloe, as well as friends, colleagues, and contemporaries Parks Mangena, Peter Magubane, Jurgen Schadeberg, Don Mattera, and Nadine Gordimer, in addition to artists and academics Mothobi Mutloatse, Muxe Nkondo, and Njabulo S. Ndebele. Also featured in this biographical text are veteran political figures such as Mangosuthu Buthe, Lezi Lindiwe Mabuza, and Ahmed Kathrada. Themba's intellectual acumen, scholarly aptitude, and wit are some of his most revered characteristics amongst those who had interactions with him, either in person or through comprehensive reading of his works. Mahala is a master storyteller and deftly weaves together the threads of Themba's dynamic life. In this edifying biography, Mahala recreates the sparkle and pathos of Sophiatown of the 1950s and the Drum era. Can Themba's successes and failures, as well as his triumphs and tribulations, reverberate on the pages of this long-awaited biography.

The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24. This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000. The short story genre, whilst often marginalised in national literary canons, has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa. In recent years, the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction, erotic fiction, flash fiction, and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity. This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimagined in the present. Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles, interviews, and personal reflective pieces, the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form. Finally, the book considers the place of the short story in twenty-first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post-apartheid or post-transitional. The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa, this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature.

Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

Literary Transactions in South Africa Michael Chapman, 2025-04-03 A representative overview of some of the most pressing concerns in contemporary literary criticism in South Africa demonstrating literary form s shaping power in the interpretation of politically contentious content Rather than pressing literature into the service of a political cause or programme this study s purpose its politics of interpretation is to open literature to the potential of human experience in both the personal and the public life The society of focus South Africa is a society of political contestation Instead of prioritizing the what of contestation however Michael Chapman explores contestation through the how of the literary work In sharp transactions between an intransitivity of form and a compulsion to communicate the book elucidates an ethics of aesthetics in J M Coetzee and Nadine Gordimer and the best of modernism and the worst of modernism in Roy Campbell s poetry It also asks Can Themba s style of the shebeens in the 1950s be re visited in a contemporary context of gender based abuse Why or how are Ellen Kuzwayo and Mtutuzeli Matshoba writing in the struggle years of the 1970s simultaneously less than artists and more than artists Has the interpretative frame of the postcolonial best served fiction after apartheid What language of interpretation best releases the voices of contemporary women's poetry a poetry which in its play on identities and identifications looks both inwards to its locality and outwards to the globe Alert to both South Africa's colonial past and its assertions of today Literary Transactions in South Africa pursues the challenge of interpreting a literature of disjuncture between Africa and the West or the South and the North Conceptual Dictionary Anita P.
