Poor Things Lennard J. Davis,2024-10-11 For generations most of the canonical works that detail the lives of poor people have been created by rich or middle class writers like Charles Dickens John Steinbeck or James Agee This has resulted in overwhelming depictions of poor people as living abject violent lives in filthy and degrading conditions In Poor Things Lennard J Davis labels this genre poornography distorted narratives of poverty written by and for the middle and upper classes Davis shows how poornography creates harmful and dangerous stereotypes that build barriers to social justice and change To remedy this Davis argues poor people should write realistic depictions of themselves but because of representational inequality they cannot Given the obstacles to the poor accessing the means of publication Davis suggests that the work should at least for now be done by transclass writers who were once poor and who can accurately represent poverty without relying on stereotypes and clichés Only then can the lived experience of poverty be more fully realized
