 Bhatti, 2024-08-16 This book focuses on recent developments in financial technology specifically how FinTech affects the Islamic finance industry It examines the challenges of Shariah compliance and explores opportunities for riba free finance The book describes contemporary FinTech solutions investigating their relation to Islamic financial institutions It outlines the current status of Islamic FinTech arguing that it can provide Shariah compliant innovative financial services to bridge the gap and compete with or complement conventional finance Islamic FinTech can play a transformational role in making Islamic finance more accessible to a wide range of audiences and can also support the SME sector which has been significantly impacted by the fallout of the COVID 19 pandemic First the book addresses thematic issues in Islamic finance including its role in poverty eradication elevating SMEs and the Islamic digital economy Second it examines Shariah compliant instruments in Islamic finance The final part encompasses the risk profile of Islamic finance products and explores mitigation strategies The book simultaneously presents theories practice and key issues introducing new ideas and perspectives to the Islamic banking and financial community The primary audience for the book will be researchers and scholars of Islamic economics and finance and it will also appeal to practitioners and regulatory bodies Muslim Families, Politics and the Law Ralph Grillo, 2016-03-09 Contemporary European societies are multi ethnic and multi cultural certainly in terms of the diversity which has stemmed from the immigration of workers and refugees and their settlement Currently however there is widespread often acrimonious debate about other cultural and religious beliefs and practices and limits to their accommodation This book focuses principally on Muslim families and on the way in which gender relations and associated questions of women s agency consent and autonomy have become the focus of political and social commentary with followers of the religion under constant public scrutiny and criticism Practices concerning marriage and divorce are especially controversial and the book includes a detailed overview of the public debate about the application of Islamic legal and ethical norms shari'a in family law matters and the associated role of Shari'a councils in a British context In short Islam generally and the Muslim family in particular have become highly politicized sites of contestation and the book considers how and why and with what implications for British multiculturalism past present and future The study will be of great interest to international scholars and academics researching the governance of diversity and the accommodation of other faiths including Islam

Identity Crisis Sarah Yoon, 2015-03-17 This book provides a general overview of the identity crises BMB believer from Muslim background women in Jordan go through and reasons for it Traditionally persecution from family community or the secret police is thought to leave these women with newfound faith However even before persecution exposes their new faith many initial believers give up seeking the new truth and return to their previous phase due to a serious identity crisis This phenomenon is found to occur particularly often among female BMBs because of their unique circumstances in the religious and sociocultural contexts of Jordan Through an examination of BMB women's narratives this book explores how Muslim women form their identities and what they experience in the process of conversion For God's Sake Antony Loewenstein, Jane Caro, Rachel Woodlock, Simon Smart, 2013-07-01 Four Australian thinkers come together to ask and answer the big questions such as What is the nature of the universe Doesn't religion cause most of the conflict in the world and Where do we find hope We are introduced to the detail of different belief systems Judaism Christianity Islam and to the argument that atheism like organised religion has its own compelling logic And we gain insight into the life events that led each author to their current position Jane Caro flirted briefly with spiritual belief inspired by 19th century literary heroines such as Elizabeth Gaskell and the Brontë sisters Antony Lowenstein is proudly culturally yet unconventionally Jewish Simon Smart is firmly and resolutely a Christian but one who has had some of his most profound spiritual moments while surfing Rachel Woodlock grew up in the alternative embrace of Baha'i belief but became entranced by its older parent religion Islam Provocative informative and passionately argued For God's Sake encourages us to accept religious differences but to also challenge more vigorously the beliefs that create discord

Exploring Islam beyond Orientalism and Occidentalism Christel Gärtner, Heidmarie Winkel, 2021-06-29 Islamic religion has become an object of political discourse in ways that also affects academic reflection against this background this volume aims to provide a theoretically and empirically founded assessment of where social sciences currently stand with regard to Islam For this purpose the volume continues to develop the sociological knowledge of Islam that began in the 1980s Given the Orientalism inherent in sociology the volume focuses on Muslim knowledge systems and institutions as well as the practice of Muslim religiosity in various social contexts stretching from Algeria and Morocco to Turkey The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn, 2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind's eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media

ICIIS 2020 Asep Saepudin Jahar, Hamka Hasan, Didin Saepudin, Arif Zamhari, Yusuf Durachman, 2021-04-16 We are delighted to introduce the proceedings of the 3rd International Colloquium on Interdisciplinary Islamic Studies It is annual event hosted and organised by the Graduate School of State Islamic University of Syarif Hidayatullah Jakarta It was fully 2 days event 20-21 October 2020 by Virtual online mode with 3 keynotes speakers Prof Abdel Aziz Moenadil from the University of Ibn Thufail Maroko Prof Wael Aly Sayyed from the University of Ain Syams Cairo Mesir and Assoc Prof Aria Nakissa Ph D from Harvard University The proceeding consisted of 41 accepted papers from the total of 81 submission papers The proceeding consisted of 6 main areas of Interdisciplinary Islamic Studies They are Islam and medicine Islam and Science and Technology Islam and Psychology Islam and Education Quran and Hadits and Islamic Studies with other various aspects All papers have been scrutinized by a panel of reviewers who provide critical comments and corrections and thereafter contributed to the improvement of the quality of the papers Research in Islamic studies and Muslim societies today also increasingly uses interdisciplinary methods and approaches In order to produce more objective findings the researchers looked at the need to combine several methods or approaches to an object of study so that they had additional considerations needed These additional considerations add a more comprehensive perspective In this way in turn they can come up with better findings Interdisciplinary Islamic studies dispute that Islam is monolithic militaristic and primarily Middle Eastern We strongly believe that ICIIS conference has become a good forum for Ethnography on the Underground Migratory Routes from Sudan to the North Livio Amigoni, 2025-06-02 This book uses an ethnography of the migratory route from Sudan to the EU to understand how undocumented migration experiences take place and breed underground forms of mobilities and survival strategies It pays particular attention to the production circulation and resilience of migratory knowledge in transnational networks and how those produce and sustain specific mobility practices The related research questions focus on how and which narratives and popular imaginations circulate and foster high risk journeys towards Europe referred to as sombok understanding how these kind of journeys are interpreted and framed according to gender religion and family traditions discerning how border regimes produce specific migration careers decision making processes and forms of resistance and cooperation with other actors how the figure of the smuggler is framed by people on the move and how one group of smugglers interpret their activities at the Ventimiglia border and how the practices of homing on the move and solidarity housing experiences take place and prop underground routes This book will be of interest to scholars of migration

Joyful Witness in the Muslim World (Mission in Global Community) Evelyne A. Reisacher, 2016-09-20 This up to date textbook features global perspectives on current Christian engagement with Islam equipping readers for mission among Muslims Evelyne Reisacher who has worked extensively with Muslims in Europe helps readers move from fear to joy as they share the gospel with Muslims Reisacher surveys areas where Muslims and Christians encounter one another in the twenty first century highlighting innovative models of Christian witness in everyday life Drawing on insights from global Christianity this survey takes account of diverse conceptions of Muslim Christian relations The book may surprise those who believe mission among Muslims is nearly impossible This is the first book in the Mission in Global Community series which reframes missiological themes and studies for students around the common theme of mission as partnership with others Series authors draw upon their own global experience and that of their global colleagues to illumine present realities and chart a course into the future Series editors are Scott W Sunquist and Amos Yong

The 2nd Dubai International Conference in Higher Education Lulett Escarpe-Ibarra, Reconciling Justice Salim J. Munayer, 2024-07-05 Christians too often disregard the depth and thoughtfulness of Jewish Muslim and Middle Eastern Christian concepts of justice To fill this lack this book explores the rich development of justice within each Abrahamic faith as it relates specifically to the Palestinian Israeli context From a uniquely Palestinian Christian perspective this book offers a theological framework through the concept of reconciling justice to facilitate better understanding for multiethnic political and religious encounters as a prophetic imagination for peace and reconciliation in the region

demonstrates the spatialized and multi scalar nature of Islamophobia It provides ground breaking insights in recognising the importance of space in the formation of anti Muslim racism Through the exploration of complementary data both from existing quantitative databases and directly from victims of Islamophobia applied in two important European capitals Paris and London this book brings new materials to research on Islamophobia and argues that Islamophobia is also a spatialized process that occurs at various interrelated spatial scales globe nation urban neighbourhood and body and mind In so doing this book establishes and advances the new concept of Spatialized Islamophobia by exploring global national urban infra urban embodied and emotional Islamophobias as well as their complex interrelationships It also offer a critical discussion of the geographies of Islamophobia by pointing out the lack of geographical approaches to Islamophobia Studies By using self reflexivity the author raises important questions that may have hampered the study of Spatialized Islamophobia focusing in particular on the favoured methodologies which too often remain qualitative as well as on the whiteness of the discipline of Geography which can disrupt the legitimacy of a certain knowledge The book will be an important reference for those in the fields of Human Geography Sociology Politics Racial Studies Religious Studies and Muslim studies The Idea of European Islam Mohammed Hashas,2018-07-24 Suspensions about the integration of Islam into European cultures have been steadily on the rise and dramatically so since 9 11 One reason lies in the visibility of anti Western Islamic discourses of salafi origin which have monopolized the debate on the true Islam not only among Muslims but also in the eyes of the general population across Europe these discourses combined with Islamophobic discourses reinforce the so called incompatibility between the West and Islam This book breaks away from this clash between Islam and the West by arguing that European Islam is possible It analyzes the contribution that European Islam has made to the formation of an innovative Islamic theology that is deeply ethicist and modern and it clarifies how this constructed European Islamic theology is able to contribute to the various debates that are related to secular liberal democracies of Western Europe Part I introduces four major projects that defend the idea of European Islam from different disciplines and perspectives politics political theology jurisprudence and philosophy Part II uses the frameworks from three major philosophers and scholars to approach the idea of European Islam in the context of secular liberal societies British scholar George Hourani Moroccan philosopher Taha Abderrahmane and the American philosopher John Rawls The book shows that the ongoing efforts of European Muslim thinkers to revisit the concept of citizenship and political community can be seen as a new kind of political theology in opposition to radical forms of Islamic thinking in some Muslim majority countries Opening a new path for examining Islamic thought in and of Europe this book will appeal to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Islam in the West and Political Theology Muslim Identity Formation in Religiously Diverse Societies Derya Iner,Salih Yucel,2015-10-28 This book centres on the key concept of diversity and relates it to the identity formation of Muslims Muslim identity differs specifically within certain theological social political and regional circumstances and discourses Considering the diversity of societies and the numerous factors contributing to the shaping of Muslim identity this book brings together examples from different parts of the world including Western societies and each chapter focuses on separate determinants of individual communal political institutional civic and national Muslim identities offering a blueprint for identity studies A particular strength of the book is its detailed investigation of the complexity of identity formation and the heterogeneity of the Muslim experience In addition to including a variety of themes and cases from different parts of the world diverse methodologies including quantitative and qualitative research methods further enrich the book The contributors academic backgrounds and organic relationships with their communities enable them to develop their arguments with insight Furthermore by giving voice to academics from different nationalities this book reflects neither a predominantly Western nor a distinctly Eastern approach but instead gives a balanced view from critical academia globally

Social Movements and Civil War Donatella della Porta, Teije Hidde Donker, Bogumila Hall, Emin Poljarevic, Daniel P. Ritter, 2017-07-20 This book investigates the origins of civil wars which emerge from failed attempts at democratization The main aim of this volume is to develop a theoretical explanation of the conditions under which and the mechanisms through which social movements struggles for democracy end up in civil war While the empirical evidence suggests that this is not a rare phenomenon the literatures on social movements democratization and civil wars have grown apart from each other At the theoretical level Social Movements and Civil War bridges insights in the three fields looking in particular at explanations of the radicalization of social movements the failure of democratization processes and the onset of civil war In doing this it builds upon the relational approach developed in contentious politics with the aim of singling out robust causal mechanisms At the empirical level the research provides in depth descriptions of four cases of trajectory from social movements for democratization into civil wars in Syria Libya Yemen and the former Yugoslavia Conditions such as the double weakness of civil society and the state the presence of entrepreneurs of violence as well as normative and material resources for violence ethnic and tribal divisions domestic and international military interventions are considered as influencing the chains of actors choices rather than as structural determinants This book will be of great interest to students of civil wars political violence social movements democratization and IR in general

Islamic Finance in Europe Valentino Cattelan, 2013-01-01 Highlighting the impact of current globalization on financial markets this topical book challenges the universality of Western property rights and interprets Islamic finance in Europe as part of a plural financial system where different conceptions of economic justice co exist and influence each other The contributing authors analyse key economic development and social integration issues from an Islamic perspective and outline the European approach to accommodating Islamic finance with particular regard to the peculiarities of individual nation states Set in this context the book presents financial pluralism as a device to enhance a level playing field in the global marketplace as well as to foster a plural open society Providing a comprehensive and methodological guide to Islamic finance in Europe this book will prove an illuminating and informative read for academics students and policymakers with an interest in the impact on financial regulation of an increasingly globalized world
