The Speechwriter A Brief Education In Politics:

The Speechwriter Barton Swaim, 2015-07-14 Barton Swaim was struggling to find an academic job he d recently received a PhD in English when he sent his resume to Mark Sanford the conservative and controversial governor of South Carolina He thought he could improve the governor s writing and speeches On the surface this is the story of Sanford s rise and fall But it s really an account of what happens when a band of believers attach themselves to an ambitious narcissist Everyone knows this kind of politician a charismatic maverick who goes up against the system and its ways but thinks he doesn t have to live by the rules Swaim describes what makes people invest in their leaders how those leaders do provide moments of inspiration and then how they let them down The Speechwriter is a funny and candid introduction to the world of politics where press statements are purposefully nonsensical grammatical errors are intentional and better copy means more words Through his three years in the governor s office Swaim paints a portrait of a man so principled he d rather sweat than use state money to pay for air conditioning so oblivious he d wear the same stained shirt for two weeks so egotistical he d belittle his staffers to make himself feel better and so self absorbed he never once apologized for making his administration the laughing stock of the country In the end it s also an account of the very human staffers who risk a life in politics out of conviction and learn to survive a broken heart

The Political Speechwriter's Companion Robert A. The Speechwriter Barton Swaim, 2016-07-05 From 2007 to 2010 Swaim worked for Mark Sanford South Carolina s governor as a communications officer and speechwriter Everyone knows this kind of politician a charismatic maverick who goes up against the system and its ways but thinks he doesn t have to live by the rules Swaim tells the story of a band of believers who attach themselves to this sort of ambitious narcissist and what happens when it all comes crashing down

Doubletalk Chuck McCutcheon, David Mark, 2016-02-02 The only time most Americans care anything about politics is during the presidential election cycle This quadrennial flood of posturing and blame once confined to the July conventions and the November election has spread like a greasy lake across the landscape and calendar of our politics From the first exploratory rumblings of the hopefuls sometime after the midterm elections to the tsunami of Super

Tuesday the political language of the presidential election has become a reflecting pool of our polity Doubletalk casts a warm ray of sunlight on the campaign trail as an add on to last year's Dog Whistles Walk backs and Washington Handshakes with over 100 new terms phrases and epithets combining wit humor truth and dubious taste and propriety Tales from the Crib DeeDee Filiatreault, 2016-11-01 Tales from the Crib will make all parental units feel better about themselves no vegetables required Let's be honest Nobody wants to sit next to that chipper mom at playgroup who knows everything Please You want to plop down by the mom who's just as clueless and cranky as you are and have a good hearty conspiratorial laugh together Because that mom gets it That mom makes you feel better That mom isn't afraid to admit that chicken nuggets are one of her household's major food groups though she is fraught with guilt over it That mom is just like you That mom is DeeDee Filiatreault a regular housewife with fairly normal kids if there is such a thing But unlike you she writes all her ridiculous family stuff down for her newspaper column and blog with wit snark heart faith and far fewer swear words than she's probably thinking Her writings have yet to appear in the New Yorker or HuffPo she doesn't go on morning shows to dole out parenting advice mainly because she doesn't really have any and she doesn't have a weird new hook for a memoir like how she survived a year of family dumpster diving or co-parenting her children with wolves She doesn't have eighteen kids either just two And oh yeah only one husband as required by state law This collection of DeeDee's favorite columns and writings spans her first near decade in the mom business Reading it is like plunking down next to that funny mom at playgroup You'll laugh You'll cry You'll feel less lonely in this thing And you may even feel a little superior That alone might be worth the price tag Just come and sit down next to her The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Canadian Edition

Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2017-08-08 The third Canadian edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty-first century expository writing There is also a focus on issues of great importance in twenty-first century Canada such as climate change the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the Jian Ghomeshi trial Facebook police discrimination trans rights and postsecondary education in the humanities Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op-ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated prose writers of the modern era from Susan Sontag Eula Biss and Michel Foucault to Anne Carson and Ta-Nehisi Coates The anthology also offers increased diversity of representation including for example a larger proportion of First Nations writers and women writers than previous Canadian editions Unobtrusive explanatory notes appear at the bottom of the page and each selection is preceded by a headnote that provides students with information regarding the context in which the piece was written Each reading is also followed by questions for discussion A unique feature is the inclusion of a set of additional notes on the anthology's companion website notes designed to be of particular help to EAL students and or students who have little familiarity with Canadian culture The anthology is accompanied by two companion websites The student website features additional readings and interactive writing exercises as well as the additional notes The instructor website provides additional discussion questions and for a number of the anthology selections background information that may be of interest

Rooted Leadership John Johnson, 2022-06-14 Behind many of the challenges facing us today is a failure of leadership This is not a new problem Yearning for wise guidance and effective authority is a perennial human longing We need leaders who are credible competent and committed But many leaders seem to be caught up even consumed with their own power and agendas Some see the leadership crisis as an intellectual problem believing we lack a clear theory of leadership Others view the breakdown of leadership as a result of increasing deficiency in moral character Most leadership books today revolve around the concepts of motivation inspiration empowerment and teamwork Helpful as these themes might be they miss something more fundamental Leadership needs a theological foundation that will be useful for shaping the undergirding principles and evaluating current leadership theories and practices We need to view leadership from the vantage point of God In Rooted Leadership John E Johnson explores how Christian theology provides an overarching leadership framework and applies that theory to leadership practices Spiritual reflection guided by scripture points us to the very center of leadership God and the purpose of leadership that we might display his glory All the best forms of leading take their cues from who God is his purposes and his ways of working with people that he has progressively revealed Building on three decades of research study and experience as a global leader Johnson surveys the landscape of contemporary leadership theory unpacks the assumptions and beliefs that underly current trends and responds by offering a robust approach to leadership founded on the character work and words of God

Do I Make Myself Clear? Harold Evans, 2017-05-16 A wise and entertaining guide to writing English the proper way by one of the greatest newspaper editors of our time Harry Evans has edited everything from the urgent files of battlefield reporters to the complex thought processes of Henry Kissinger He has even been knighted for his services to journalism In Do I Make Myself Clear he brings his indispensable insight to us all in his definite guide to writing well The right words are oxygen to our ideas but the digital era with all of its TTYL LMK and WTF has been cutting off that oxygen flow The compulsion to be precise has vanished from our culture and in writing of every kind we see a trend towards more more speed and more information but far less clarity Evans provides practical examples of how editing and rewriting can make for better communication even in the digital age Do I Make Myself Clear is an essential text and one that will provide every writer an editor at his shoulder

American Trinity Larry Len Peterson,2017-08-01 In the spirit of Guns Germs and Steel author and cultural historian Larry Len Peterson details the collision of European and Native American civilizations and the bloody aftermath that doomed a once thriving people Wide ranging and brimming with fresh insights American Trinity focuses on how the West was shaped by three implacable forces Christian imperialism Thomas Jefferson s Doctrine of Discovery and George Armstrong Custer s hubris As Peterson says History is important When there is no knowledge of the past there cannot be a vision of the future Includes chapter endnotes bibliography and index

Guns on the Internet Connie Hassett-Walker,2018-07-24 Gun rights and control are well trodden subjects with prior work supporting the right of citizens to own firearms discussing the failure of gun control efforts or warning about or exhorting citizen gun ownership among other things Although social media in their many forms have only come to dominate modern U S life during the past decade there has been little academic exploration of gun owner communities on the Internet and social media How do gun owners use social media How do they meet other gun owners online What do they talk about as relates to guns With a massive and well organized collection of support material Guns on the Internet faces these questions with an unbiased approach that seeks a foundation for mutual understanding Also available as an audiobook

Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth Bill Fox,2022-03-23 Media has long been considered a primary site for political discourse in Western liberal democracies but now with the advent of social media giant multinational digital platforms such as Google and online journalism the way we do politics talk politics and cover politics has completely transformed Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth considers the ways that technology has led to an irreversible transition in power distribution political journalism and public discourse Discussing how the military industrial complex of the 1950s gave way to today s celebrity distribution complex Bill Fox examines the amount of power accorded to people well known for being well known from Donald Trump to Justin Trudeau Taking on a Canadian perspective Fox addresses the disturbing cries of fake news in the post truth age and demonstrates how journalism no longer the domain of a select few political reporters and editors has become decentralized and disaggregated In a world that now plays out on mobile devices Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth seeks a path through the

 If journalism is the first draft of history it is equally important to see how the work stands the test of time If the writing isn't prescient and perspicacious it doesn't meet that test This collection of columns and articles by L. Ian MacDonald a sequel to Politics People Potpourri meets that test Much has happened in the politics of Canada and Quebec as well as to the leaders who have defined and shaped the first two decades of the twenty-first century since the first collection was published in 2009 The successful election campaigns of Harper and Trudeau form the political bookends of the present decade in Canada and the opening chapters of the book Between these governments there are the events personalities and issues that have shaped the political narrative and policy debate from fiscal frameworks to clean energy and pipelines from the Senate expense scandal and democratic reform to national security at home and the mission against ISIS abroad In his columns and longer pieces from Policy Options and Policy magazines MacDonald provides clear-minded commentary on political issues salient to all Canadians including the election of Donald Trump in the United States He also profiles a diverse group of political figures and writes moving tributes to departed nationally respected figures such as Jean B. Lévesque Jim Flaherty Jack Layton and Tom Van Dusen This intelligent and entertaining collection presents MacDonald at his best and offers a captivating view of Canadian politics and life The Quarterly Journal of Speech Education, 1921 Encyclopedia of Careers and Vocational Guidance: Career articles, PHY-Z, 2011 Provides detailed facts and current statistics for over 750 occupations in more than 90 key career fields Contains more than 500 photographs Education and Democracy Adam R. Nelson, 2009-01-09 This definitive biography of the charismatic Alexander Meiklejohn tracks his turbulent career as an educational innovator at Brown University Amherst College and Wisconsin's Experimental College in the early twentieth century and his later work as a civil libertarian in the Joe McCarthy era The central question Meiklejohn asked throughout his life's work remains essential today How can education teach citizens to be free Career Opportunities in Writing T. Allan Taylor, James Robert Parish, 2009 Provides information on salaries skill requirements and employment opportunities for ninety writing and writing-related professions Covering American Politics in the 21st Century Lee Banville, 2016-12-12 This encyclopedia provides a real-world guide to American political journalism and news coverage in the 21st century from the most influential media organizations and pundits to the controversies and practices shaping modern-day political journalism Over the last 20 years political campaigns and the media that cover them have been fundamentally altered by a mix of technology and money This timely work surveys the legal financial and technological changes that have swept through the political process putting those changes in context to help readers appreciate how they affect what the public learns and doesn't learn about the candidates and lawmakers at the local state and federal levels The encyclopedia offers a critical examination of a broad range of topics organized in a narrative A to Z format Written by journalists and political experts the two volumes cover the major issues organizations and trends affecting both politics and the coverage of political campaigns Some 200 entries treat everything from news organizations think tanks and significant individuals to questions concerning money advertising and campaign tactics Objective unbiased and comprehensive the encyclopedia is an unequaled resource for anyone seeking to understand American political journalism and news coverage in the 21st century

The Under-Representation of Black and Minority Ethnic Educators in Education Chris Guy Vieler-Porter,2020-11-01 The Under Representation of Black and Minority Ethnic Educators in Education evidences that discrimination at an individual institutional and structural level is still experienced in the leadership of children s learning The analysis evaluates the extent to which under representation is a result of chance coincidence or design Based on original research using a mixed methods approach and drawing on Critical Race Theory this book examines the under representation of Black and minority ethnic BAME educators in education It identifies over 40 separate codes emerging from interviews with BAME leaders in children s learning These codes include surveillance isolation awareness of their position the need to be better professional development the complexity of racism and the difficulties of talking about racism The book contributes to educational leadership in questioning the extent to which equitable outcomes can be delivered when the education service is itself a site and source of inequality and discrimination It brings to front the suppressed narratives of under representation of people of colour and offers insights based on comprehensive data collection This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of education management and leadership Critical Race Theory and the Sociology of Education
