

The background of the slide is a Romantic-style painting. It depicts a large, dark castle with multiple towers and a prominent central spire, situated on a hill. The foreground features a calm body of water, likely a lake, which reflects the castle and the surrounding landscape. The trees along the shore are rendered in warm, autumnal tones of yellow, orange, and red. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds, suggesting a bright but slightly overcast day. The overall mood is atmospheric and evocative, characteristic of the Romantic era's emphasis on nature and the sublime.

The Supernatural in Romantic Fiction Edward Yardley, 2015-06-02 Excerpt from The Supernatural in Romantic Fiction I have for several reasons abstained from mentioning the productions of living poets and poetical writers but have otherwise attempted to make my work as complete as it was in my power to make it I have used the word romantic in opposition to classical and possibly have made the word unduly comprehensive by treating of all supernatural fiction except that of ancient Greece and Rome and even that I have occasionally noticed for the sake of comparison About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Supernatural in Romantic Fiction Edward YARDLEY (Poet and Novelist.),1880

Encyclopedia of Romance Fiction Kristin Ramsdell,2018-09-07 As the first encyclopedia solely devoted to the popular romance fiction genre this resource provides a wealth of information on all aspects of the subject Romance fiction accounts for a large share of book sales each year and contrary to popular belief not all of its readers are women roughly 16 percent are men This enormously popular genre continues to captivate people reading for pleasure and it also commands a growing amount of academic interest Included are alphabetically arranged reference entries on significant authors along with works themes and other topics The articles are written by scholars librarians and industry professionals with a deep knowledge of the genre and so provide a thorough understanding of the subject An index provides easy access to information within the entries and bibliographies at the end of each entry a general bibliography and a suggested romance reading list allow for further study of the genre

Romantic Postmodernism in American Fiction Eberhard Alsen,2023-12-21 Intended for teachers and students of American Literature this book is the first comprehensive analysis of romantic tendencies in postmodernist American fiction The book challenges the opinion expressed in the Columbia History of the American Novel 1991 and propagated by many influential scholars that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction is represented by the disjunctive and nihilistic work of such writers as Kathy Acker Donald Barthelme and Robert Coover Professor Alsen disagrees He contends that this kind of fiction is not read and taught much outside an isolated but powerful circle in the academic community It is the two part thesis of Professor Alsen s book that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction consists of the widely read work of the Nobel Prize laureates Saul Bellow and Toni Morrison and other similar writers and that this mainstream fiction is essentially romantic To support his argument Professor Alsen analyzes representative novels by Saul Bellow J D Salinger Norman Mailer Flannery O Connor John Updike Kurt Vonnegut Philip Roth Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison the later John Barth Alice Walker William Kennedy and Paul Auster Professor Alsen demonstrates that the traits which distinguish the fiction of the romantic postmodernists from the fiction of their disunctive and nihilist

Longmans and Co. ,1885 Women, Violence and Postmillennial Romance Fiction Emma Roche, 2023-04-21 This book interrogates the significance of the revival and reformulation of the romance genre in the postmillennial period Emma Roche examines how six popular novels published between 2005 and 2015 Twilight Fifty Shades of Grey Gone Girl Sharp Objects and The Girl on the Train reanimate and modify recognisable tropes from the romance genre to reflect a neoliberal and postfeminist cultural climate As such Roche argues these novels function as crucial spaces for interrogating and challenging those contemporary gender ideologies Throughout the book Roche addresses and critiques several key attributes of neoliberal postfeminism including a pervasive emphasis on individualism and personal responsibility an insistent requirement for self monitoring self surveillance and bodywork the celebration of consumerism and its associated pleasures the prescription of mandatory optimism and suppressing one s negative emotions and the endorsement of choice as a primary marker of women s empowerment While much critical attention has been devoted to those attributes and their pernicious effects Roche argues that one crucial repercussion has been largely overlooked in contemporary cultural criticism how these ideologies function together to effectively sanction gender based violence Thus Roche exploits textual analysis to demonstrate the subtle ways in which neoliberal postfeminism can augment women s vulnerability to male violence

The Cambridge History of European Romantic Literature Patrick Vincent, 2023-11-09 This wide ranging new history of European Romantic Literature presents a pan European phenomenon which transcended national borders and contributed to a new sense of European cultural identity across the continent Conceived in the same spirit as Madame de Sta l s cultural and political agenda at a time when her generous idea of Europe is being challenged on all sides the volume pays close attention to the period s circulation of people ideas and texts It proposes to rethink the period comparatively focusing on various forms of cultural mediation and transfer and on productive tensions synchronicities and interactions within and across borders Organized chronologically its twenty chapters address over five hundred works proposing a coherent historical narrative without completely erasing individual nations specificities By showcasing in particular the place of Britain within continental culture the volume hopes to reactivate critical examinations of Romanticism from a historicised European perspective

Character Sketches of Romance, Fiction and the Drama Ebenezer Cobham Brewer, 1902 Character Sketches of Romance, Fiction and the Drama Ebenezer Cobham Brewer, 2004-03 Originally published in 1892 the object of this Handbook is to supply readers and speakers with a lucid but very brief account of such names as are used in allusions and references whether by poets or prose writers to furnish those who consult it with the plot of popular dramas the story of epic poems and the outline of well known tales The number of dramatic plots sketched out is many hundreds Another striking and interesting feature of the book is the revelation of the source from which dramatists and romancers have derived their stories and the strange repetitions of historic incidents It has been borne in mind throughout that it is not enough to state a fact It must be stated attractively and the character described must be drawn characteristically if the reader is to appreciate it and feel an interest in what he reads This work an American reprint of The Reader s Handbook by E Cobham Brewer while retaining all of the original material that can interest and aid the English speaking student gives also characters and sketches found in American novels poetry and drama
