Damascus, Saint Thomas Aquinas, Brother Lawrence, Arthur Pink, 2023-11-15 50 Christian Books Scripture History Theology Spirituality and Fiction is a sweeping anthology that encapsulates the broad and vibrant tapestry of Christian literature across centuries. This unique collection combines various literary styles from theological discourse to stirring fiction and contemplative spirituality, embodying the rich diversity that defines Christian thought and writing. Each piece stands on its own, contributing significantly to nuanced discussions and reflections on the profound themes of faith, morality, and the human experience. The anthology's standout works, inviting contemplation and dialogue, are reflective of the enduring influence of the included texts on Christian literature and global thought. This anthology showcases an impressive lineup of contributors whose backgrounds span a wide range of historical, cultural, and philosophical contexts. Featuring thinkers like Thomas Kempis and St. Teresa of Avila alongside literary giants such as Dostoevsky and Tolstoy, the collection echoes the interplay between philosophy, scripture, and narrative. Each author's unique perspective invites readers to explore how historical movements like the Reformation or the Enlightenment are intricately woven into the fabric of Christian discourse, offering a multifaceted view of faith's evolution and enduring relevance. For scholars, theologians, and enthusiasts, this anthology is an invaluable resource providing a comprehensive exploration of Christianity's literary and philosophical landscapes. It offers an unparalleled opportunity to engage with a breadth of voices, each contributing a distinct facet to the ongoing dialogue about belief, existence, and spirituality. Through this collection, readers are invited to deepen their understanding and appreciation of the numerous styles and themes that have collectively shaped Christianity's rich literary tradition.

Religion and the Good Life Marcel Sarot, W. Stoker, 2022-01-04 Studies in Theology and Religion 10 In this volume, fourteen philosophers of religion reflect on religious views of the good life. Some authors focus on positive religion and its specific religious representations of the good life, while others abstract from these and focus on philosophical religion and its conceptual articulations of the good life. The tension between positive religion and philosophical religion between representation and concept is itself also analyzed. This volume is a result of the co-operation of the philosophers of religion who are senior members of the Netherlands School for Advanced Studies in Theology and Religion. Gordon Merrick and the Great Gay American Novel Joseph M. Ortiz, 2022-05-23
 Gordon Merrick and the Great Gay American Novel is the first biography of Gordon Merrick the most commercially successful writer of gay novels in the twentieth century This book shows how Merrick's novels were largely based on his own life and time as a Princeton theater star a Broadway actor a New York reporter an OSS spy and the friend of countless artists and celebrities as an expatriate in France Greece and Sri Lanka He lived much of his life as an openly gay man with his longtime partner Charles Hulse His 1970 novel The Lord Won't Mind broke new ground by showing that an affirming explicitly gay novel could be a bestseller His subsequent gay novels were both a cultural phenomenon and a lightning rod for literary critics This book also examines the complex often conflicting responses to Merrick's novels by gay readers and critics and it thus recovers the early post Stonewall debates over the definition of gay literature By reconstructing Merrick's life and critical fortunes this book expands our understanding of what it means to be a gay man in the twentieth century

Theory and Practice in the Eighteenth Century Alexander Dick, 2015-10-06 Brings together scholars who use literary interpretation and discourse analysis to read 18th century British philosophy in its historical context This work analyses how the philosophers of the Enlightenment viewed their writing and how their institutional positions as teachers and writers influenced their understanding of human consciousness

Reinventing the Good Life Jeannette Pols, 2023-12-04 Ever since Adam Smith's musings on the invisible hand became more famous than his work on moral sentiments social theorists have paid less attention to everyday ethics and aesthetics Smith's metaphor of the invisible hand posits that social outcomes emerge by dint of the behaviours of individuals rather than their intentions or virtues Modernist and scientific approaches to determining the common good or good forms of governance have increasingly relied on techniques of generalisation and rationalisation This shift has meant that we no longer comprehend why and how people display a deep concern for everyday life values in their social practices People continue to enact these values and live by them while academics lack the vocabulary and methods to grasp them By reconstructing the history of ideas about everyday life values and by analysing the role of such values in contemporary care practices for patients with chronic disease in the Netherlands Reinventing the Good Life explores new ways to study the values of everyday life particularly in situations where the achievement of a clear cut or uniform good is unlikely The book presents a practice based epistemology and methodology for studying everyday care practices and supporting their goodness This analytical approach ultimately aims to generate ideas that will allow us to
