Topkapi Sarayında Yasam:

Topkapi sarayında yaşam Jean-Baptiste Tavernier,1984 Private and Royal Life in the Ottoman Palace Ilber Ortaylı,2014-08-07 Topkapi Palace was the official and primary residence of the Ottoman sultans for almost four centuries of their 624 year reign This illustrated guide to Topkapi Palace the heart of a vast transcontinental empire until the mid nineteenth century explores Ottoman history as it relates to specific sections of the palace Ortaylı a famed Turkish historian and scholar introduces the audience to the outer and inner sections of the palace as well as the family quarters providing them with profound background information about their functions architecture and decorations His references to the palace customs people and particular events present the reader with a living history Life after the Harem Betül İpşirli Argit,2020-10-29 The first study to explore the lives of female slaves of the Ottoman imperial court including the period following their manumission and transfer from the imperial palace Through an analysis of a wide range of hitherto unexplored primary sources Bet l p irli Arg t demonstrates that the manumission of female palace slaves and their departure from the palace did not mean the severing of their ties with the imperial court rather it signaled the beginning of a new kind of relationship that would continue until their death Demonstrating the diversity of experiences in non dynastic female agency in the early modern Ottoman world Life After the Harem shows how these evolving relationships had widespread implications for multiple parties from the manumitted female palace slaves to the imperial court and broader urban society In so doing p irli Arg t offers not just a new way of understanding the internal politics and dynamics of the Ottoman imperial court but also a new way of understanding the lives of the actors within it Ottoman Empire and European Theatre Vol. IV Michael Hüttler,Hans Ernst Weidinger,2016-05-23 The book series Ottomania researches cultural transfers between the Ottoman Empire and Europe with the performing arts as its focus In Ottoman Empire and European Theatre vol IV Seraglios in Theatre Music and Literature the series continues to explore one of the most popular subjects of eighteenth century art the seraglio and its harem This volume provides a deeper understanding of the seraglio s various manifestations in the artworks music and theatre of the Austrian Habsburg and central European regions including interconnections with Italy and France from the sixteenth to the nineteenth centuries The studies examine descriptions of the seraglio by European diplomats the seraglio s visual traces in European artworks and depictions of the seraglio in eighteenth century Austrian Singspiele They also consider seraglios from the Ottoman point of view and investigate the music of the seraglio in eighteenth century opera On the Way to the "(Un)Known"? Doris Gruber,Arno Strohmeier,2022-09-06 This volume brings together twenty two authors from various countries who analyze travelogues on the Ottoman Empire between the fifteenth and nineteenth centuries The travelogues reflect the colorful diversity of the genre presenting the experiences of individuals and groups from China to Great Britain The spotlight falls on interdependencies of travel writing and historiography geographic spaces and specific practices such as pilgrimages the hajj and the harem Other points of emphasis include the importance of nationalism the place and time of printing representations of fashion and concepts of masculinity and femininity By displaying close comparative and distant readings the volume offers new insights into perceptions of otherness the circulation of knowledge intermedial relations gender roles and digital analysis Transottoman Matters Arkadiusz Blaszczyk, Robert Born, Florian Riedler, 2021-12-06 This volume analyzes historical processes of mobility by focusing on material objects Mobility as a shorthand for various related processes such as migration transfer entanglement and translation involves human actors immaterial elements such as ideas and knowledge but also objects in various forms and functions For example as material infrastructures they are the basis for transport and travel as goods they are the object and purpose of trade or gift exchange By focusing on the way objects determined certain processes of mobility and how their social meaning and materiality was transformed in these processes the contributors hope to gain deeper insight into the historical relations between the Ottoman Empire Eastern Europe and Persia Bountiful Empire Priscilla Mary Isin, 2025-02-12 This meticulously researched beautiful volume offers fresh and lively insight into an empire and cuisine that until recent decades has been too narrowly viewed through orientalist spectacles The Ottoman Empire was one of the largest and longest lasting empires in history and one of the most culinarily inclined In this powerful and complex concoction of politics culture and cuisine the production and consumption of food reflected the lives of the empire's citizens from sultans to soldiers Food bound people of different classes and backgrounds together defining identity and serving symbolic functions in the social religious political and military spheres In Bountiful Empire Priscilla Mary Isin examines the changing meanings of the Ottoman Empire's foodways as they evolved over more than five centuries It begins with the essential ingredients of this fascinating history examining the earlier culinary traditions in which Ottoman cuisine was rooted such as those of the Central Asian Turks Abbasids Seljuks and Byzantines She goes on to explore the diverse aspects of this rich culinary culture including etiquette cooks restaurants military food food laws and food trade The book draws on everything from archival documents to poetry and features more than one hundred delectable illustrations The Waning of the Mediterranean, 1550-1870 Faruk Tabak, 2008-02-11 2008 Outstanding Academic Title Choice Magazine Conventional scholarship on the Mediterranean portrays the Inner Sea as a timeless entity with unchanging ecological and agrarian features But Faruk Tabak argues some of the traditional and olden characteristics that we attribute to it today are actually products of relatively recent developments Locating the shifting fortunes of Mediterranean city states and empires in patterns of long term economic and ecological change this study shows how the quintessential properties of the basin the trinity of cereals tree crops and small livestock were reestablished as the Mediterranean's importance in global commerce agriculture and politics waned Tabak narrates this history not from the vantage point of colossal empires but from that of the mercantile republics that played a pivotal role as empire building city states His unique juxtaposition of analyses of world economic developments that flowed from the decline of these city states and the ecological change associated with the Little Ice Age depicts large scale long term social change Integrating the story of the western and eastern Mediterranean from Genoa and the Habsburg empire to Venice and the Ottoman and Byzantine empires Tabak unveils the complex process of devolution and regeneration that brought about the eclipse of the Mediterranean

Culture and Diplomacy Reinhard Eisendle, Suna Suner, Hans Ernst Weidinger, 2023-12-22 Diplomats had multiple tasks not only negotiating with the representatives of other states but also mediating culture and knowledge and not least elaborating reports on their observations of politics society and culture Culture according to the studies featured in this book is defined as a complex sphere including aspects like systems of communication literature music arts education and the creation of knowledge This edition containing contributions from six conferences held in Vienna and Istanbul by the Don Juan Archiv Wien focuses on the complex diplomatic and cultural relations between the Ottoman Empire and Europe from the time of the early embassies to Istanbul up to Tanzimat

The Women Who Built the Ottoman World Muzaffer Özgüles, 2017-06-30 At the beginning of the eighteenth century the Ottoman Empire remained the grandest and most powerful of Middle Eastern empires One hitherto overlooked aspect of the Empire's remarkable cultural legacy was the role of powerful women often the head of the harem or wives or mothers of sultans These educated and discerning patrons left a great array of buildings across the Ottoman lands opulent lavish and powerful palaces and mausoleums but also essential works for ordinary citizens such as bridges and waterworks Muzaffer ÖEzgule here uses new primary scholarship and archaeological evidence to reveal the stories of these Imperial builders Gulnu Sultan for example the favourite of the imperial harem under Mehmed IV and mother to his sons was exceptionally pictured on horseback travelled widely across the Middle East and Balkans and commissioned architectural projects around the Empire Her buildings were personal projects designed to showcase Ottoman power and they were built from Constantinople to Mecca from modern day Ukraine to Algeria ÖEzgule seeks to re-establish the importance of some of these buildings since lost and traces the history of those that remain The Women Who Built the Ottoman World is a valuable contribution to the architectural history of the Ottoman Empire and to the growing history of the women within it
