Routledge International Handbook of Critical Mental Health Bruce Cohen, 2017-09-22 The Routledge International Handbook of Critical Mental Health offers the most comprehensive collection of theoretical and applied writings to date with which students scholars researchers and practitioners within the social and health sciences can systematically problematise the practices priorities and knowledge base of the Western system of mental health With the continuing contested nature of psychiatric discourse and the work of psy professionals this book is a timely return to theorising the business of mental health as a social economic political and cultural project one which necessarily involves the consideration of wider societal and structural dynamics including labelling and deviance ideological and social control professional power consumption capital neoliberalism and self governance Featuring original essays from some of the most established international scholars in the area the Handbook discusses and provides updates on critical theories of mental health from labelling social constructionism antipsychiatry Foucauldian and Marxist approaches to critical feminist race and queer theory critical realism critical cultural theory and mad studies Over six substantive sections the collection additionally demonstrates the application of such theoretical ideas and scholarship to key topics including medicalisation and pharmaceuticalisation the DSM global psychiatry critical histories of mental health and talk therapy Bringing together the latest theoretical work and empirical case studies from the US the UK Australia New Zealand Europe and Canada the Routledge International Handbook of Critical Mental Health demonstrates the continuing need to think critically about mental health and illness and will be an essential resource for all who study or work in the field

Integrating Mindfulness into Psychotherapy for Trauma Noga Zerubavel, Terri Messman, 2025-05-01 Mindfulness is a powerful treatment tool but for people who have experienced trauma mindfulness practices can also cause significant stress or discomfort This cutting edge professional manual offers clinicians a transdiagnostic process based approach to safely treat trauma with mindfulness including interventions that are practical simple and easy to teach Clinicians will gain the tools needed to help their clients gain new personal insights and make lasting positive change

The Empathic God Frank Woggon, 2024-05-07 What if Jesus did not come to die for our sins What if instead Jesus's life and death was intended to provide a way out of our shame While traditional Christian teachings about the atonement emphasize sin as guilt and transgression against God's will and commandments Frank Woggon points out that clinical spiritual care reveals that the human condition is predominantly marked by shame rather than guilt In The Empathic God Woggon examines myopic readings of the Jesus event that in turn have embedded distortions into traditional paradigms of the atonement In contrast Woggon mines narratives of the human condition to engage in a critical examination of the Jesus story As a clinician and ordained Baptist minister Woggon presents the Jesus event as God's empathic initiative toward humanity and convincingly argues that salvation comes through empathy rather than forgiveness Woggon's work constructs a clinical theology of atonement from the perspective of clinical spiritual care The Empathic God calls for a practical response of caring participation in God's ongoing work of salvation through an empathic praxis of spiritual care Most importantly The Empathic God takes seriously that lived human experience is the starting point for theological exploration rather than doctrine This book will help practitioners and students of spiritual care in the Christian tradition to reflect more critically on the intersection of spiritual care practice and theology The book also will challenge pastors ministers of pastoral care chaplains pastoral counselors spiritually oriented therapists to interrogate and re interpret traumatic shame filled Christian teachings about the atonement so that they too can join in God's ongoing and liberating work of salvation

Reframing Trauma Through Social Justice Catrina Brown, 2024-07-31 This cross disciplinary volume examines and reframes trauma as a social and political issue in the context of wider society critiquing the widely accepted pathologizing of trauma and violence in current discourse Rooted in critical social theory this insightful text reinvokes the critiques and analysis of the women's movement and the personal is political framing of trauma to unpack the mainstreaming of trauma discourse which has emerged today Accomplished contributors address the social construction of femininity and masculinity in relation to trauma and violence and advocate for a broader framing of trauma away from the constrained focus on pathologizing and diagnosing trauma individual psychologizing and therapy Instead the book offers a fresh and compelling look at how discursive resistance alternative feminist and narrative approaches to emotional distress and the mental health effects of violence can be developed alongside community based preventive political and policy based actions to create effective shifts in discourse practice policy and programming This is fascinating reading for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students researchers and academics in a broad range of fields of study including psychology social work gender and women's studies and sociology as well as for professionals including policy makers clinical psychologists and social workers
