The Crowning of a Poet's Quest Paola Loreto, 2009 This first extended study of Derek Walcott's Tiepolo's Hound 2000 defines the book as the culmination of the poetry and poetics of the Caribbean writer and Nobel Prize winner In this long poem Walcott achieves three goals pursued throughout his career to develop an original Caribbean aesthetic to meld the modes of poetry and prose and to formulate the Bildung of the island artist in terms of an autobiographical narrative The analysis provides an aesthetic and cultural evaluation of the poem in terms both of the Western poetic tradition to which it refers through its rich intertextuality and of its significance as a postcolonial milestone The commentary locates Walcott in an aesthetic tradition running from Emerson through the American Pragmatists to modernist poets describes his experimental use of certain central narrative strategies in his semi autobiographical long poems which is compared to those of another openly admired bilingual writer Vladimir Nabokov explores Walcott's revision of the epic mode and of the genre of autobiography delineates his unfolding of a post Romantic internalization of the poet's Arthurian quest and discusses his complex treatment of the multi layered metaphor of light as major evidence of the maturity of his style and poetics with their conscious cross fertilization between the literary cultures of Europe and the Caribbean An appendix to this study contains the transcriptions of various Walcott events that took place in Italy in the summers of 2000 and 2001 including a creative writing seminar a press conference and readings This extensive material opens a window onto Walcott's gifts as a teacher to his stringent yet passionate commitment to the art of poetry and to the ways in which he and his students grapple with the challenges of literary translation

Paradise Lost Michael Cavanagh, 2020-02-21 A record of a teacher's lifelong love affair with the beauty wit and profundity of Paradise Lost celebrating John Milton's un-doctrinal complex and therefore deeply satisfying perception of the human condition After surveying Milton's recurrent struggle as a reconciler of conflicting ideals this Primer undertakes a book by book reading of Paradise Lost reviewing key features of Milton's various style and why we treasure that style Cavanagh constantly revisits Milton the singer and maker and the artistic problems he faced in writing this almost impossible poem This book is emphatically for first time readers of Milton with little or no prior exposure but with ambition to encounter challenging poetry These are readers who tell you they have always been meaning to read Paradise Lost who seek to enjoy the epic without being overwhelmed by its daunting learning and expansive frame of reference Avoiding the narrowly specialized focus of most Milton scholarship Cavanagh deals forthrightly with issues that recur across generations of readers gathering selected voices from scholars and poets alike from 1674 through the present Lively and jargon free this Primer makes Paradise Lost accessible and fresh offering a credible beginning to what is a great intellectual and aesthetic adventure
