American Crisis: The Collapse of Christian Culture William D.

Howard,2024-02-19 All Americans know we are in a state of cultural crisis but how did we get to this point It has been said if we seek an actual legal date for the fall of Judeo Christian culture in America it would be June 26 2015 the day the Supreme Court ruled that homosexual marriage was a constitutionally protected right But according to William D Howard the destruction of our country started well before that when states began changing laws and incorporating changes that had lasting repercussions on the culture as a whole In American Crisis The Collapse of Christian Culture Howard takes an in depth look at civilizations in the past provides insights on our current culture and warns of a future that can mean only the destruction of everything we hold dear But this book is not without hope Howard uses God's Word to show Christians how we can counter the social and political norms and fight for our country's moral political and social outlook As our moral high ground is being chipped away one corner at a time we need to take up the call to action and fight against the powers that seek our demise

Sjursen, 2002-12-10 This book examines the response of the Western Alliance to the Polish Crisis 1980-83 The author analyses the different views of Europe and the United States regarding enforcement in East West relations and the opposition in Western Europe to the American approach This case exemplifies the lasting differences in attitude within the Western Alliance

Oil and Asian Rivals: Sino-Soviet Conflict; Japan and the Oil Crisis United States. Congress. House. Foreign Affairs, 1974

The Crisis of Détente in Europe Leopoldo Nuti, 2008-11-11 This edited volume is the first detailed exploration of the last phase of the Cold War taking a critical look at the crisis of détente in Europe in the late 1970s and early 1980s The transition from détente to a new phase of harsh confrontation and severe crises is an interesting indeed crucial phase of the evolution of the international system This book makes use of previously unreleased archival materials moving beyond existing interpretations of this period by challenging the traditional bipolar paradigm that focuses mostly on the role of the superpowers in the transformation of the international system The essays here emphasize the combination and the interplay of a large number of variables political ideological economic and military and explore the topic from a truly international perspective Issues covered include human rights the Euromissiles the CSCE Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe the Revolution in Military Affairs economic growth and its consequences

The Cuban Missile Crisis E. J. Carter, 2003 Each title provides in depth background information and descriptions of an important event in history while considering the causes and effects the issues at stake the people involved the aftermath and the consequences

What Happened to the Soviet Union? Christopher I. Xenakis, 2002-09-30 Xenakis examines the responses of Soviet experts in American academia primarily political scientists but also economists and defense scholars who specialized in the USSR to the unfolding evidence of Soviet reform during the 1970s and 1980s and to its ultimate collapse He concludes that American Sovietologists and other political scientists were more responsive to the Cold War consensus to the needs of the State Department Defense and CIA policy makers and to the official Washington line of the moment than to the changing face of the Soviet Union As Xenakis makes clear many of the Cold War ideas and attitudes shared by Sovietologists the notion that the USSR was an evil empire the idea that Soviet society was irredeemably xenophobic and indolent that the Soviet political and economic system could not be fixed or reformed and the view that the best way for Washington to deal with Moscow's influence was to contain the USSR through arms races global and proxy wars were reminiscent of the policies and arguments of the Truman and Eisenhower administrations not to the facts on the ground in the 1970s and 1980s An important work for scholars students and researchers involved with Soviet and Russian studies international political and military affairs intellectual history and the relationship between academia and the government Self-management and the Crisis of Socialism Michael Wayne Howard, 2000 While some conclude from the revolutions of 1989 that socialism is dead interest in socialism continues because of persisting problems of contemporary capitalism In this exciting text Michael W Howard offers critiques of liberal communitarian postmodern and some Marxist perspectives in order to develop a left liberal defense of a model of self managed market socialism that includes a basic income for all Specific applications of his view include analyses of its implications for the global marketplace the changing nature of workplaces and media restructuring and ownership This work is sure to be of interest to social scientists public policy makers and economists as well as to feminists ecologists and others concerned with how market socialism is relevant to their social issues The Cuban Missile Crisis Alice L. George, 2013 The chill of the nuclear age Kennedy and Khrushchev The ticking clock A world on edge Into the dark Moving ahead looking back World Society in the Global Economic Crisis Christian Suter, Mark Herkenrath, 2012 This volume examines the considerable economic social and political consequences of the present global crisis for world society It focuses on central issues including crisis impacts on world society structures crisis perceptions and public discourses and experience of global crisis at local and regional levels
