The English Apocalypse Ethan Campbell, 2024-11-04 Before the Wycliffite Bible in the 1380s one of the only complete books of the Bible to be translated into Middle English was the Book of Revelation The English Apocalypse translated from the French in the early 14th century must have been well known to the later translators as it appears in 18 extant manuscripts sometimes alongside Wycliffite material This edition reproduces for the first time a copy of the English Apocalypse which actually replaced the Book of Revelation at the end of a Wycliffite New Testament

Chivalry and Exploration, 1298-1630 Jennifer Robin Goodman, 1998 The literature of medieval knighthood is shown to have influenced exploration narratives from Marco Polo to Captain John Smith Explorers from Marco Polo to Captain John Smith viewed their travels and discoveries in the light of attitudes they absorbed from the literature of medieval knighthood Their own accounts and contemporary narratives reinforced by the interest of early printers reveal this interplay but historians of exploration on the one hand and of chivalry on the other have largely ignored this cultural connection Jennifer Goodman convincingly develops the idea of the chivalric romance as an imaginative literature of travel she traces the publication of medieval chivalric texts alongside exploration narratives throughout the later middle ages and renaissance and reveals parallel themes and preoccupations She illustrates this with the histories of a sequence of explorers and their links with chivalry from Marco Polo to Captain John Smith and including Gadifer de la Salle and his expedition to the Canary Islands Prince Henry the Navigator Cortes Hakluyt and Sir Walter Raleigh JENNIFER GOODMAN teaches at Texas A M University complex and difficult question than it may seem Kenneth Kreitner has assembled twenty articles published between 1946 and 2009 by scholars exploring the performance of music from the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries The collection includes works by David Fallows Howard Mayer Brown Christopher Page Margaret Bent and others covering the voices and instruments debate of the 1980s the performance of sixteenth century sacred and secular music the role of instrumental ensembles and problems of pitch standards and musica ficta Together the papers form not just a comprehensive introduction to the issues of renaissance performance practice but a compendium of clear thinking and elegant writing about a perpetually intriguing period of music history Fables Respecting the Popes in the Middle Ages Johann Joseph Ignaz von Döllinger, 1871
