The Sweetest Thing Mischa Merz, 2011-01-04 Journalist and amateur boxer Mischa Merz fulfills a long held ambition to travel across the United States and compete in a series of amateur boxing tournaments On this wild and fascinating journey she meets her idols including Lucia Rijker of Million Dollar Baby fame and some other truly extraordinary characters Merz discovers the horrors and delights of the world of women s boxing and gains insights into this eccentric subculture s place in American life She also meets some of the pioneers and trailblazers of the contemporary rise in women s boxing as well as some of the younger stars now hoping to make it onto the first women s boxing team in the 2012 Olympic Games Written in a compelling and highly entertaining narrative style Mischa Merz takes us right into the ring and reports with a rare insider s view on a sport that has for centuries defined our ideas about masculinity Female Olympian and Paralympian Events

Linda K. Fuller, 2018-10-04 Female Olympian and Paralympian Events is a groundbreaking book that examines women s sports in the Olympic and Paralympic Games which have long been underappreciated and under analyzed The book begins with a brief background on women s participation in the Olympic Games and their role relative to the International Olympic Committee then introduces the underlying Gendered Critical Discourse Analysis theory used throughout the book s analysis before delving into a literature review of female Olympians and Paralympians events It includes a listing of noteworthy firsts in the field followed by individual discussions of twenty eight Summer and seven Winter events analyzed according to their historical rhetorical and popular cultural representations Women s unique role s in the various events are discussed particular athletes and Paralympic events are highlighted and original tables are also included At the end of each section affiliated organizations and resources are included in this invaluable referential volume Boxing, Narrative and Culture

Sarah Crews, P. Solomon Lennox, 2023-10-16 Boxing Narrative and Culture Critical Perspectives is the first interdisciplinary response to the dominant boxing narratives that are produced performed and circulated in commercial boxing culture This collection includes global perspectives on boxing It highlights the diverse range of bodies and communities that engage with boxing practices but are oftentimes overlooked and overwritten by popular narrative tropes and misconceptions of the sport These interdisciplinary and global perspectives engage with boxing s shared narrative resources offering new readings and insights on how and what boxing performs and for whom The contributors to this collection are academics artists amateur boxers and or coaches who provide a culture critique of boxing The work shows how boxing practices are performed and channelled by individuals and communities who access and utilise boxing culture as a means of physical enquiry political statement and community building These contributions challenge the notion that boxing is a sport reserved for masculine bodies adorned as heroes warriors or victims of the sport Exploring key themes in socio cultural studies including gender race community media and performance this book is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in physical culture sport studies cultural studies gender studies cultural geography critical race theory labour studies performance studies or
