Pick-Up Charles Willeford, 2017-11-07 This underground classic of hard-boiled noir fiction follows two addiction-addled drifters as they struggle to make ends meet in the streets of 1950s California First published as an unheralded paperback original Pick-Up is an authentic underground classic an explosive bulletin from the urban underbelly of mid-1950s America It was Charles Willeford's second novel after a rough and wandering earlier life that had taken him from Depression-era hobo camps and soup kitchens to wartime battlefields The unblinking story of two lost and self-destructive drifters a failed painter working as a counterman in a cheap diner and a woman in flight from domestic violence trying to find a place for themselves in the back streets of San Francisco Pick-Up is hardboiled writing at its nihilistic best Willeford's preferred title for the book was Until I Am Dead Its bleak vision of life beyond the edge is haunted by rape racism alcoholism suicide and inescapable poverty yet shot through with a tenderness and compassion sustained against all odds in a society offering few breaks to its outcasts and misfits Pick-Up's many twists and violent turns culminate in an ending that continues to surprise confirming it as what critic Woody Haut has called a razor-sharp narrative that rips open the genre

Key Constellations Táhirih Motazedian, 2023-10-17 Key is one of the simplest building blocks of music and is among the foundational properties of a work's musical identity so why isn't it a standard parameter in discussing film music Key Constellations: Interpreting Tonality in Film is the first book to investigate film soundtracks including original scoring preexisting music and sound effects through the lens of large-scale tonality Exploring compelling analytical examples from numerous popular films Táhirih Motazedian shows how key and pitch analysis of film music can reveal hidden layers of narrative meaning giving readers exciting new ways to engage with their favorite films and soundtracks

A Game for the Living Patricia Highsmith, 2014-11-11 Ramón a devout Catholic fixes furniture in Mexico City not far from where he was born into poverty Theodore a rich German expatriate and painter believes in nothing at all You'd think the two had nothing in common Except of course that both had slept with Lelia Two form an unlikely friendship until Lelia is found brutally murdered Both are suspects and each suspects the other Twisting in a limbo of tension and doubt Ramón and Theodore seize on a third man a thief seen at Lelia's apartment and their hunt takes them from Mexico City to the sun-drenched Acapulco
