Tribulations Dun Chinois Chine French:

Les Tribulations D'Un Chinois En Chine Jules Verne,1976-12 Tribulations of a Chinaman in China Jules Verne,2024-01-04 Jules Verne's Tribulations of a Chinaman in China is an adventure novel exploring the themes of true happiness and the real value of life. Kin Fo is a young and extremely rich man who suddenly loses his fortune. He decides that there is no point in living but since it's impossible for him to take his own life, he asks his mentor, the philosopher Wang, to do the deed for him. Things go wrong when Wang decides to give the task to a bandit. However, what Kin Fo does not know is that there is a plan going on behind his back and he is to be taught a lesson he'll remember for the rest of his life, however long that might be. Using humour, adventure, and important life lessons, Verne questions whether we need to lose something in order to appreciate it. Jules Verne (1828-1905) was a French novelist who became known as the Father of Science Fiction. He wrote more than 60 novels, including Journey to the Center of the Earth (1864), Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea (1870), and Around the World in Eighty Days (1873), the last of which has been released as a TV drama featuring former Dr. Who star David Tennant.

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège,2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France, dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works, the first public viewing of films anywhere. Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès, Alice Guy Blaché, and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers, and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond. In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors, Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895. From undisputed masters to obscure one-timers, nearly 3,000 directors are cited here, including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France. Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary, including dates and places of birth and death, information on the individual's education and professional training, and other pertinent details, such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym. The entries also provide complete filmographies, including credits for feature films, shorts, documentaries, and television work. Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia, from masters of the Golden Age, Jean Renoir and René Clair, to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard.

Ladies Or Gentlemen Jean-Louis Ginibre,2005 From Greek drama through vaudeville and modern cinema, nothing in the theatrical experience has ever guaranteed a laugh like a man in a dress. This spectacular pictorial history examines the grand tradition of male cross-dressing in the movies through more than 700 photos, more than half of which are previously unpublished. The screen's greatest stars, from comedians like Buster Keaton and Peter Sellers to serious actors like Marlon Brando and Max von Sydow, are pictured in everything from bustiers to ball gowns. Just as in real life, the cinematic motives for cross-dressing are complex, ranging from plot device (I Was a Male War Bride) and social commentary (Tootsie) to the simple sight gags of Laurel and Hardy. The book explores these and myriad other reasons actors are coaxed out of dress suits and into dresses. By turns provocative, serious, and silly, Ladies or Gentlemen is a delightful study
