

Who are you to refer to us, As "Only" a CNA?

We're the ones who wash and dress .Our patients for the day.

We're the ones who take the time. To listen to them speak.

We listen about their lifetime. In a forty hour week.

We also give our hands to hold. When someone's feeling scared.

It's not easy being a patient. You're never quite prepared.

We take the time to listen. By lending both our ears.

We listen to their worries. Or how they've spent their years.

Our arms were made to reach. And even wrap around.

To give our patients hugs. When their feeling a little down.

We help our patients do the things. They used to do on their own.

Everybody needs some help. Even when we're grown.

So who are you to refer to us. As "only" a CNA?

We do our best to meet their needs. Within our working day.

We chose to do this job. The job did not choose us.

We sympathize and empathize. Compassion is a must.

We try to keep them comfortable. And free of any fear.

We sit along beside them. When that time is near.

We hold their hand. stroke their hair. Just making sure they know.

Their not alone. an aide is there. It's ok for them to go.

To all the CNA's keep your head held high.

We're not "only" CNA's.

Tribute To A Cna Poem:

How to Deal with a Divorce as a Christian Iris Mollen, 2022-11-09 The author started journaling when her husband asked for a divorce after thirty five years of marriage Four months after her husband asked for a divorce she lost her job after twenty five years God led her on a journey to write this book How to Deal with a Divorce as a Christian The purpose of this book is twofold Divorce is devastating It is worse than a death as one pastor said and the author agrees She wants to reach out to Christian women and men to tell them divorce will probably be one of the hardest things they will ever have to go through especially if they have been married for many years This book contains what the Bible tells us about divorce It also talks about job losses infertility adoption starting a new career alcoholism and family relationships The author's hope in writing this book is that she can reach out and help Christians deal with a divorce and other everyday events that have happened to her in her life With God's help and her belief she made it through Now she has fallen in love which she never dreamt would happen
