Camouflage Cultures Ann Elias, Ross Harley, Nicholas Tsoutas, 2015-02-06 Approaching this subject from the disciplines of art history and theory art practice biology cultural theory literature and philosophy this volume greatly expands the reach of camouflage s cultural terrain The result is a collection that provides a new perspective on the developing discourse of camouflage and contributes to debates about the roles that physical artistic and social camouflage play in contemporary life

Defence Sites III C.A. Brebbia, V. Echarri, C. Clark, A. Gonzalez Aviles, 2016-06-02 Containing the proceedings of the third International Conference on Defence Sites Heritage and Future this book deals with the scale design and functions of defence sites It facilitates a better understanding of the issues raised by their decommissioning and the implications of various disposal processes for the land Defence sites due to be decommissioned offer a range of opportunities to planners architects and local communities to redevelop large areas bringing new life to previously neglected parts of towns However the re use of defence sites also raises questions regarding the recovery of brownfields and contaminated land since these can have far reaching legal responsibilities and environmental consequences Achieving the sustainable development of these sites involves issues related to maintenance and conservation as well as built and natural environmental controls while also responding to the needs and aspirations of the community Many of the opportunities and problems in the re use of defence sites are shared by a number of countries and the book stresses these common experiences Topics covered include Fortified cities Community involvement Economic analysis Risk assessment Simulation and modelling Funding and legal requirements Military engineering in the modern age Conservation and restoration Transition from military to civilian uses Fortified heritage culture tourism Military heritage history Castles and fortresses Case studies The Eye of War Antoine Bousquet, 2018-10-09 How perceptual technologies have shaped the history of war from the Renaissance to the present From ubiquitous surveillance to drone strikes that put warheads onto foreheads we live in a world of globalized individualized targeting The perils are great In The Eye of War Antoine Bousquet provides both a sweeping historical overview of military perception technologies and a disquieting lens on a world that is increasingly one in which anything or anyone that can be perceived can be destroyed in which to see is to destroy Arguing that modern day global targeting is dissolving the conventionally bounded spaces of armed conflict Bousquet shows that over several centuries a logistical order of militarized perception has come into ascendancy bringing perception and annihilation into ever closer alignment The efforts deployed to evade this deadly visibility have correspondingly intensified yielding practices of radical concealment that presage a wholesale disappearance of the customary space of the battlefield Beginning with the Renaissance s fateful discovery of linear perspective The Eye of War discloses the entanglement of the sciences and techniques of perception representation and localization in the modern era amid the perpetual quest for military superiority In a survey that ranges from the telescope aerial photograph and gridded map to radar digital imaging and the geographic information system Bousquet

shows how successive technological systems have profoundly shaped the history of warfare and the experience of soldiering
A work of grand historical sweep and remarkable analytical power The Eye of War explores the implications of militarized perception for the character of war in the twenty first century and the place of human subjects within its increasingly technical armature
