US-Japan Human Rights Diplomacy Post 1945 Roger Buckley, 2025-10-01 Comprising two volumes this is a pioneering study which examines how the United States has deployed public diplomacy with Japan to confront Japanese sexual and labour trafficking while also charting the successes and failures of the US's own record on anti trafficking practices at home and abroad The subject is an important aspect of human rights advocacy where much remains either unknown or imprecise with regard to a phenomenon that involves millions of people across all continents and within all nation states The approach is largely chronological and country based using documentary evidence from 1945 onwards to trace national and international responses to what is frequently termed modern slavery placed within the broader and still evolving context of respect for the full panoply of human rights Volume 1 comprises the analysis debates and outcomes together with ten primary documents relating to the years 1945 1999 as well as a bibliography and index Volume 2 comprises a further 34 documents relating to the years 2000 2020 including international covenants US Trafficking In Persons and Congressional reports and Japanese government papers

Transnational Crimes in the Americas Marshall B. Lloyd, 2018-10-30 Transnational Crimes in the Americas addresses contemporary issues with respect to public institutions that are stakeholders in the fight against globalization of crime Regional public organizations with a primary focus on the Americas constitute a framework for understanding the need for an institutional response within the Western Hemisphere While other authors have addressed the growth of organized crime no one has explained institutional developments in the struggle against transnational crimes Transnational Crimes in the Americas highlights existing organizations emphasizing a regional response to transnational crimes suggestions for a permanent criminal court in the Americas and an appraisal of the current state of institutional developments in the region

Feminism, Prostitution and the State Eilis Ward, Gillian Wylie, 2017-02-17 This edited volume focuses on charting the rise of neo abolitionism and offering a critique of the idea its logics and consequences A model of state policy which aims to abolish prostitution through legislation Neo abolitionism criminalises the buyer of sex but not the seller It is currently law in Sweden and other Nordic states and dominates the framing of policy debates in many other Western liberal contexts Pressure for adoption of this policy has come from radical feminists who understand prostitution and sex trafficking as a form of violence against women This volume argues that this convergence between radical feminism and state's interests arises from the emergence of on the one hand governance feminism which seeks to have its ideals implemented through top down sovereigntist means and on the other hand state's interests in legitimising stricter border controls and law enforcement responses in relation to transnational organised criminality illegal migration and security Based around a series of country case studies each chapter will explore the politics surrounding the emergence of neo abolitionism and its trajectory through those politics whether the paradigm has been adopted rejected or is still under debate The volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of Social and Public Policy Gender and Women s Studies Politics and International Relations and Critical Legal Studies Criminology Ideology and the Fight Against Human Trafficking Reyhan Atasü-Topcuoğlu,2014-10-10 Human trafficking has become one of the most spoken of problems of our day and fighting it has grown into a multi million dollar project sector This book is about how we all come to name various exploitative migratory experiences human trafficking and how we build a consensus on how to counter it This book investigates counter trafficking as a transnational field and tries to show how connected stances against a global social problem are produced internationally in general and nationally in particular within the example of three countries which are defined with different positions according to the phenomenon Ukraine as a source country Turkey as a transit and destination country Germany as a destination country The book examines how power relations limit the language to propose and solve social problems in the example of human trafficking It shows the limits of scientific studies on the issue and the chasm between counter trafficking and its primary target group the trafficked people Human Trafficking Is a Public Health Issue Makini Chisolm-Straker,Hanni Stoklosa,2017-01-26 This clear sighted reference examines the public health dimensions of labor and sex trafficking in the United States the scope of the crisis and possibilities for solutions Its ecological lifespan approach globally traces risk and protective factors associated with this exploitation laying a roadmap towards its prevention Diverse experts including survivors describe support and care interventions across domains and disciplines from the law enforcement and judicial sectors to community health systems and NGOs with a robust model for collaboration By focusing on the humanity of trafficked persons a public health paradigm broadens our understanding of and ability to address trafficking while adding critical direction and resources to the criminal justice and human rights structures currently in place Among the topics covered Children at Risk Foster Care and Human Trafficking LGBTQ Youth and Vulnerability to Sex Trafficking li Physical Health of Human Trafficking Survivors Unmet Essentials Research Informing Advocacy An Anti Human Trafficking Tool Caring for Survivors Using a Trauma Informed Care Framework The Media and Human Trafficking Discussion and Critique of the Dominant Narrative Human Trafficking Is a Public Health Issue is a sobering read a powerful call to action for public health professionals including social workers and health care practitioners providing direct services as well as the larger anti trafficking community of advocates prosecutors taskforce members law enforcement agents officers funders and administrators An extraordinary collection of knowledge by survivors academics clinicians and advocates who are experts on human trafficking Human Trafficking is a Public Health Issue is a comprehensive offering in educating readers on human trafficking through a multi pronged public health lens Margeaux Gray Survivor Advocate Artist Public Speaker Trafficked Children and Youth in the United States Elzbieta M. Gozdzia,2016-05-10

Trafficked children are portrayed by the media and even by child welfare specialists as hapless victims who are forced to migrate from a poor country to the United States where they serve as sex slaves But as Elzbieta M Gozdziaak reveals in Trafficked Children in the United States the picture is far more complex Basing her observations on research with 140 children most of them girls from countries all over the globe Gozdziaak debunks many myths and uncovers the realities of the captivity rescue and rehabilitation of trafficked children She shows for instance that none of the girls and boys portrayed in this book were kidnapped or physically forced to accompany their traffickers In many instances parents or smugglers paid by family members brought the girls to the U S Without exception the girls and boys in this study believed they were coming to the States to find employment and in some cases educational opportunities Following them from the time they were trafficked to their years as young adults Gozdziaak gives the children a voice so they can offer their own perspective on rebuilding their lives getting jobs learning English developing friendships and finding love Gozdziaak looks too at how the children s perspectives compare to the ideas of child welfare programs noting that the children focus on survival techniques while the institutions focus not helpfully on vulnerability and pathology Gozdziaak concludes that the services provided by institutions are in effect a one size fits all trauma based model one that ignores the diversity of experience among trafficked children Breaking new ground Trafficked Children in the United States offers a fresh take on what matters most to these young people as they rebuild their lives in America

Violence against Girls and Women Janet A. Sigal, Florence L. Denmark, 2013-08-27 Sexual assault sex trafficking and child abuse affect millions of women and girls globally each year This two volume set covers a broad scope of topics from violence against girls before birth in childhood and throughout women s adult lives Millions of women around the world some data suggests as many as three in every four women face violence against them throughout their lifetimes The incidences range from the earliest stages of life with infanticide to child trafficking sexual assault and domestic violence to the end of life by elder abuse This two volume set provides a comprehensively broad treatment of the global problem of violence against women addressing less commonly discussed subjects such as domestic violence in lesbian couples abuse within the context of war crimes and the incidence of violence and abuse against women internationally as compared to within the United States

Women's Issues Dorothy V. Stickle, 2008 Dorothy V Stickle presents materials on issues of particular interest to women including economic societal and personal

The Politics of Sex Trafficking E. O'Brien, S. Hayes, B. Carpenter, 2013-09-06 This book offers a unique insight into the moral politics behind human trafficking policy in Australia and the USA including rare interviews with key political actors and a critical account of Congressional and Parliamentary hearings

Gender, National Security, and Counter-Terrorism Margaret L. Satterthwaite, Jayne Huckerby, 2013-02-15 In the name of fighting terrorism countries have been invaded wars have been waged people have been detained rendered and tortured and campaigns for hearts and minds have been unleashed Human rights analyses of the counter terrorism measures implemented in the aftermath of 11

September 2001 have assumed that men suffer the most both numerically and in terms of the nature of rights violations endured. This assumption has obscured the ways that women, men, and sexual minorities experience counterterrorism. By integrating gender into a human rights analysis of counterterrorism and human rights into a gendered analysis of counterterrorism, this volume aims to reverse this trend. Through this variegated human rights lens, the authors in this volume identify the spectrum and nature of rights violations arising in the context of gendered counterterrorism and national security practices. Introduced with a foreword by Martin Scheinin, former UN Special Rapporteur on Human Rights and Counterterrorism, the volume examines a wide range of gendered impacts of counterterrorism measures that have not been theorized in the leading texts on terrorism, counterterrorism, national security, and human rights. Gender, National Security, and Counterterrorism will be of particular interest to scholars and students in the disciplines of Law, Security Studies, and Gender Studies.
