Afro-Cuban Religious Arts Kristine Juncker, 2014-07-15 This book profiles four generations of women from one Afro Cuban religious family From a plantation in Havana Province in the 1890s to a religious center in Spanish Harlem in the 1960s these women were connected by their prominent roles as leaders in the religions they practiced and the dramatic ritual artwork they created Each woman was a medium in Espiritismo communicating with dead ancestors for guidance or insight and also a santera or priest of Santería who could intervene with the oricha pantheon Kristine Juncker argues that by creating art for more than one religion these women shatter the popular assumption that Afro Caribbean religions are exclusive organizations Most remarkably the portraiture sculptures and photographs in Afro Cuban Religious Arts offer rare glimpses into the rituals and iconography of these religions Santería altars are closely guarded limited to initiates and typically destroyed upon the death of the santera while Espiritismo artifacts are rarely considered valuable enough to pass on The unique and protean cultural legacy detailed here reveals insights into how ritual art became popular imagery sparked a wider dialogue about culture inheritance attracted new practitioners and enabled the movement to explode internationally

Conservation of Contemporary Art Renée van de Vall, Vivian van Saaze, 2023-12-30 This open access book investigates whether and how theoretical findings and insights in contemporary art conservation can be translated into the daily work practices of conservators or vice versa whether and how the problems and dilemmas encountered in conservation practice can inform broader research questions and projects For several decades now the conservation of contemporary art has been a dynamic field of research and reflection Because of contemporary art s variable constitution its care and management calls for a fundamental rethinking of the overall research landscape of museums heritage institutions private sector organizations and universities At first this research was primarily pursued by conservation professionals working in or with museums and other heritage organizations but increasingly academic researchers and universities became involved for instance through collaborative projects This book is the result of such collaboration It sets out to bridge the gap between theory and practice by investigating conservation practices as a form of reflection and reflection as a form of practice Afro-Cuban Religions and the Arts Alan West-Durán,2024-12-20 Afro Cuban Religions and the Arts A Dog Has Four Legs But Takes Only One Path argues for an understanding of Afro Cuban religions and Vodou through the arts be it through music the visual arts film or literature This book examines the philosophical and spiritual facets of religions like Regla de Ocha Palo Abaku and Vodou and how deeply embedded they are in Cuban popular culture Cuban popular music from son to salsa timba to rap offer reflections on Ocha Palo and Abaku influences Film and visual arts borrow allegory from Regla de Ocha and Palo beliefs Myth and the Haitian Revolution is embedded throughout the work of Alejo Carpentier Aim C saire and Derek Walcott This volume seeks to dialogue with the works of contemporary artists and Caribbean ancestors such as C L R James Wilson Harris and Fern ndez Retamar in order to show the impacts that spiritualism religious belief and mythology have had on Afro Cuban art Island in the Light/Isla en la luz Jorge M.
