Transforming Faith Individual And Community In H Richard Niebuhr:

Transforming Faith Joshua Leonard Daniel, 2015-09-09 In the face of apparently rampant individualism there has been a steady call for a return to community and tradition particularly in religious communities and in recent Christian theology and ethics The form of contemporary life upheld by modern ideals like freedom and universalism the story goes turns out to divide people from each other and from the communal sources of our traditionally moral values But the call to community too often confuses individualism with individuality assuming that any appeal to individuality as a value or ideal is a rejection of communal goods rather than a mode of promoting those goods What is necessary now is a recovery of the individual that understands individuality to serve community even in resistance to it In Transforming Faith Joshua Daniel offers a fresh reading of H Richard Niebuhr's theological ethics that provides an account of individuality and individual creativity as both the fruits and reformers of community What is theologically at stake in Daniel's reconstructive interpretation is the human's existentially resonant relation with God and the christological revitalization of our symbolic and virtuous activity Under the Spell of Freedom Hans Joas, 2024 In Under the Spell of Freedom Hans Joas deconstructs the grand Hegelian narrative of human history as the self-realization of the idea of freedom setting as a counterpart the sketches of a theory of the emergence of moral universalism He takes the classical views of Hegel and his emphasis on the role of Protestant Christianity and the extremely negative views about Christianity in the work of the philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche to elaborate on this new understanding of religion and freedom which encompasses a range of intellectual traditions and avoids Eurocentrism Joas answers the empirical question of when where why and how such a moral universalism emerged and developed Differences in Identity in Philosophy and Religion Lydia Azadpour, Sarah Flavel, Russell Re

Manning, 2020-04-02 This book explores the constitutive role alterity plays in identity formation in Western and Eastern traditions It examines the significance of difference in conceptions of identity across major philosophical and religious traditions in a global and comparative context considering Ancient Greek and Egyptian Chinese Islamic European and Japanese philosophies In addition the book opens up discussion of less dominant trends in philosophical thinking particularly the spaces between self-same existence and otherness in the histories of philosophical and religious thought Chapters critique both essentialist and postmodern understandings of self-constitution by questioning the ordinary narrative of identity construction across Western and non-Western traditions The book also explores the construction of selfhood from a wide range of perspectives drawing upon individual philosophers including Plotinus Descartes Geulincx Hume de Beauvoir and Ueda as well as religious and philosophical movements including Confucian philosophy Zen Buddhism Protestantism and Post-Phenomenology Differences in Identity in Philosophy and Religion represents a landmark study drawing together a range of approaches perspectives and traditions to explore how identity is constructed across the world The Timeliness of

influential American philosophers of the twentieth century and his work remains vibrant and relevant to many areas of scholarly inquiry today The Timeliness of George Herbert Mead brings together a range of scholars who provide detailed analyses of Mead's importance to innovative fields of scholarship including cognitive science environmental studies democratic epistemology and social ethics non teleological historiography and the history of the natural and social sciences Edited by well respected Mead scholars Hans Joas and Daniel R Huebner the volume as a whole makes a coherent statement that places Mead in dialogue with current research pushing these domains of scholarship forward while also revitalizing the growing literature on an author who has an ongoing and major influence on sociology psychology and philosophy

Renegotiating Power, Theology, and Politics Rick Elgendy, 2015-10-21 This volume brings together established and rising scholars to revitalize political theology by examining conceptions of power that work beyond sovereign power The hope is to reexamine the character of authority by attending to the multiple various but often under appreciated ways that power is exercised in the contemporary world God and the Moral Life Myriam Renaud, Joshua Daniel, 2017-11-02 How do various concepts of God impact the moral life Is God ultimately required for goodness In this edited collection an international panel of contemporary philosophers and theologians offer new avenues of exploration from a theist perspective for these important questions The book features several approaches to address these questions Common themes include philosophical and theological conceptions of God with reference to human morality particular Trinitarian accounts of God and the resultant ethical implications and how communities are shaped promoted and transformed by accounts of God Bringing together philosophical and theological insights on the relationship between God and our moral lives this book will be of keen interest to scholars of the philosophy of religion particularly those looking at ethics social justice and morality Profile
