Translation and Language in Nineteenth-Century Ireland Anne O'Connor, 2017-03-16 This book provides an in depth study of translation and translators in nineteenth century Ireland using translation history to widen our understanding of cultural exchange in the period It paints a new picture of a transnational Ireland in contact with Europe offering fresh perspectives on the historical political and cultural debates of the era Employing contemporary translation theories and applying them to Ireland's socio historical past the author offers novel insights on a large range of disciplines relating to the country such as religion gender authorship and nationalism She maps out new ways of understanding the impact of translation in society and re examines assumptions about the place of language and Europe in nineteenth century Ireland By focusing on a period of significant linguistic and societal change she questions the creative conflictual and hegemonic energies unleashed by translations This book will therefore be of interest to those working in Translation Studies Irish Studies History Comparative Literature and Cultural Studies

Theory of Mind in Translation Annegret Sturm, 2020-06-12 Taking the perspective of others is central to translation But does translation train this uniquely human capacity This book introduces the concept of Theory of Mind ToM to model one of the central features of translation the meta representation of others and presents three innovative studies which investigate the question using brain scans eye tracking and key logging to shed new light on the role of non linguistic macro competences on the translation process Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe,2000 Specialised Translation M.

Rogers,2015-05-26 This book shifts the common perception of specialised or LSP translation as necessarily banal and straightforward towards a more realistic understanding of it as a complex and multilayered phenomenon which belies its standard negative binary definition as non literary The Translation and Translator of the Peshitta of Hosea Eric Tully,2015-02-04 In The Translation and the Translator of the Peshitta of Hosea Eric J Tully offers the first study of the Peshitta conducted via insights and methods from the discipline of Translation Studies Every translator leaves residue of his or her interference in the course of the translation process This investigation analyzes that interference seen in the form of translation shifts categorizes it and draws conclusions with implications for textual criticism Translation Studies historical reconstruction and the history of interpretation Eric Tully argues that the Peshitta was translated from a Hebrew text similar to the Masoretic Text but not identical to it and was also influenced by readings from the Greek Septuagint The study concludes with a socio historical profile of the translator Just as an ancient person makes one kind of ceramic jug or bronze incense stand and not another the translation is a literary artifact in which the translator has crafted a text that reflects his or her own values and technique The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Ethics Kaisa Koskinen,Nike K.

Pokorn,2020-12-16 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Ethics offers a comprehensive overview of issues surrounding ethics in translating and interpreting The chapters chart the philosophical and theoretical underpinnings of ethical thinking in Translation Studies and analyze the ethical dilemmas of various translatorial actors including translation trainers and researchers Authored by leading scholars and new voices in the field the 31 chapters present a wide coverage of emerging issues such as increasing technologization of translation posthumanism volunteering and activism accessibility and linguistic human rights Many chapters provide the first extensive overview of the topic or present new takes on established areas The book is divided into four parts with the first covering the most influential ethical theories Part II takes the perspective of agents in different contexts and the ethical dilemmas they face while Part III takes a critical look at central institutions structuring and controlling ethical behaviour Finally Part IV focuses on special issues and new challenges and signals new directions for further study This handbook is an indispensable resource for all students and researchers of translation and ethics within translation and interpreting studies multilingualism and comparative literature Mapping the Translator Liping Bai,2022-04-19 In Mapping the Translator A Study of Liang Shiqiu the writer studies Liang Shiqiu 1903 1987 who was not only a famous writer and important critic but also one of the most prominent translators in China in the 20th century most notably the first Chinese to finish a translation of The Complete Works of William Shakespeare Based on primary sources this research covers issues related to the historical cultural cognitive and sociological dimensions of translator studies It investigates Liang s translation poetics the influences of possible patrons and professionals on him the relationship between Liang s ideology the dominant ideology and his translation Liang s debates with Lu Xun about and beyond translation criteria and whether there is inconsistency or possible contradiction in Liang s translation poetics This book also analyses the similarities and differences between Liang Shiqiu and Wu Mi two followers of Irving Babbitt in terms of translation poetics and further explores the reasons leading to such differences This book is targeted at scholars and students both undergraduate and postgraduate in the fields of translation studies Asian studies Chinese studies and literary studies

Construction, Coherence and Connotations Pierre J. Jordaan, Nicholas P. L. Allen, 2016-08-22 These fourteen selected essays were originally read at the LXXSA international conference Construction Coherence and Connotation in Septuagint Apocryphal and Cognate Literature 28-30 August 2015 hosted by the North West University Potchefstroom South Africa Here the intention was to apply new critical theory and approaches to the fields of Old Testament Scripture as well as associated Apocryphal and Cognate literature with a specific focus on the interrelated recurring theme of the Wisdom of the deity and its decryption and reception at various times in history In this regard it was felt that this theme and associated source texts had been largely overlooked in recent scholarship Here the aim was to attract recent research by both leading national as well as international scholars which not only shed new light on Old Testament Apocrypha and so called Pseudepigraphical literature but which also critically reviewed certain biblical wisdom texts which are foundational for both the Christian as well as Jewish communities As a consequence many of the essays deal with the apocryphal Wisdom of Sirach However important contributions may also be found apropos Micah Daniel Baruch 2 Maccabees Tobit Susanna Judith and the works of Josephus Flavius
