Transnationalism Activism Art Hardback Common:

Transnationalism, Activism, Art Kit Dobson, Áine McGlynn, 2013-01-01 Banksy is known worldwide for his politically subversive works of art but he is far from the only artist whose creations are infused with internationally relevant activist themes How else can the arts help activate citizen participation in social justice movements Moreover what is the role of culture in a globalizing world Transnationalism Activism Art goes beyond Banksy by investigating how the three complementary political social and cultural phenomena listed in the title interact in the twenty first century Renowned and emerging critics use current theory on cultural production and politics to illuminate case studies of various media including film literature visual art and performance in their multiple manifestations from electronic dance music to Wikileaks to bestselling poetry collections By addressing how these artistic media are used to enact citizen participation in social justice movements the volume makes important connections between such participation and scholarly study of globalization and transnationalism MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures, 2007

Archives of Transnational Modernism Anne Donlon, 2015 Transnational Belonging and Female Agency in the Arts Basia Sliwinska, Catherine Dormor, 2022-10-20 Transnational Belonging and Female Agency in the Arts interrogates the politics of space expressed via womxn s artistic practices which prioritise solidarity and collaboration across borders imagining attentive geographies of difference It considers belonging as a manifestation of processes of becoming that traverse borders and generate new spaces and forms of difference In doing so the book aims to catalyse mutual social relations founded upon responsibility and response ability to each other The transnational framework activates concerns around belonging at a time of intensified divisions partitioning global narratives unequal trajectories and increasing violence against bodies of the most vulnerable largely founded on Eurocentric paradigms of political economic and cultural superiority The contributors engage in a conversation signalling transversal thinking and artmaking in order to articulate and activate in between spaces This is to welcome co affective models of belonging that question versatile embodiments of subjectivity as both agentic and as interrelational Organised around the triangulation of modes of belonging spatial affective and collective overarched by a transnational lens that acknowledges non hierarchical local and socially relevant genealogies against universalising politics of globalisation these essays consider afresh ways in which female agency disrupts borders and activates concerns around different forms of belonging citizenship and transnationalisms Cover Image credit Keren Anavy Garden of Living Images 2018 general installation view detail Courtesy of the artist and Wave Hill Photographer Stefan Hagen The New Transnational Activism Sidney G. Tarrow, 2005 This 2005 book argues that individuals move into transnational activism which links domestic to international politics Beyond East and West David O'Brien, David Prochaska, 2004 Beyond East and West David O'Brien, David Prochaska, 2004 The artists in this exhibition come from the region stretching from Egypt to Pakistan but they have lived most of their lives in Europe or the United States We have chosen to exhibit them together because they all draw on their experience of displacement and knowledge of multiple cultures to offer alternative visions of the contemporary world Transnational Activism Tomás Mac Sheoin, 2007

Transnational Perspectives on Artists' Lives Marleen Rensen, Christopher Wiley, 2021-10-21 This book demonstrates the significance of transnationality for studying and writing the lives of artists While painters musicians and writers have long been cast as symbols of their associated nations recent research is increasingly drawing attention to those aspects of their lives and works that resist or challenge the national framework The volume showcases different ways of treating transnationality in life writing by and about artists investigating how the transnational can offer intriguing new insights on artists who straddle different nations and cultures It further explores ways of adopting transnational perspectives in artists biographies in order to deal with experiences of cultural otherness or international influences and analyses cross cultural representations of artists in biography and biofiction Gathering together insights from biographers and scholars with expertise in literature music and the visual arts Transnational Perspectives on Artists Lives opens up rich avenues for researching transnationality in the cultural domain at large The Migrant's Time Saloni Mathur, Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute, 2011 A related conference Art History and Diaspora Genealogies Theories Practices was held Apr 25 26 2008 at the Clark Art Institute Williamstown Mass
