Traveling The Two Lane A Memoir And Travelogue:

Traveling the Two-Lane Marilyn Berman, 2015-03-14 Inching through rush hour traffic at the age of sixty three it dawned on Marilyn that she was also inching through life At that moment she decided to make the journey of her dreams a long vacation a year or more alone in a van She spent months preparing to escape her settled home and habits and in June of 2004 she got on the road Destination Alaska A lifetime of memories accompanied her As she drove explored and hiked she pondered her past Marilyn grew up gay at a time when homosexuality was not only illegal but also considered a mental illness For decades she led a dual existence trying to be normal while fantasizing about girls and women Driving the two lane back roads of North America Marilyn grappled with her ever present past and an uncertain future Traveling the Two Lane is the story of these two journeys a solo sojourn across North America and a lifetime navigating as a closeted and conflicted lesbian in a world with changing opinions about same sex love Witnessing the riches of nature and genius of humankind while recognizing the evils of both Marilyn confronts her past to better live her present At the Crossroads Rebecca Jones, 2019 Shortlisted for the SAUK Fage Oliver Prize 2020 Honorable Mention for the ALA First Book Award Scholarship 2021 A path breaking contribution to the critical literature on African travel writing The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing Debbie Lisle, 2006-11-02 To what extent do best selling travel books such as those by Paul Theroux Bill Bryson Bruce Chatwin and Michael Palin tell us as much about world politics as newspaper articles policy documents and press releases Debbie Lisle argues that the formulations of genre identity geopolitics and history at work in contemporary travel writing are increasingly at odds with a cosmopolitan and multicultural world in which everybody travels Despite the forces of globalization common stereotypes about foreignness continue to shape the experience of modern travel The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing is concerned with the way contemporary travelogues engage with and try to resolve familiar struggles about global politics such as the protection of human rights the promotion of democracy the management of equality within multiculturalism and the reduction of inequality This is a thoroughly interdisciplinary book that draws from international relations literary theory political theory geography anthropology and history New Orleans and the Creation of Transatlantic Opera, 1819-1859 Charlotte Bentley, 2022-12-06 A history of nineteenth century New Orleans and the people who made it a vital if unexpected part of an emerging operatic world New Orleans and the Creation of Transatlantic Opera 1819 1859 explores the thriving operatic life of New Orleans in the first half of the nineteenth century drawing out the transatlantic connections that animated it By focusing on a variety of individuals their extended webs of human contacts and the materials that they moved along with them this book pieces together what it took to bring opera to New Orleans and the ways in which the city s operatic life shaped contemporary perceptions of global interconnection The early chapters explore the process of bringing opera to the stage taking a detailed look at the management of New Orleans s Francophone theater the Theatre d'Orleans as well as the performers who came to the city and the reception they received But opera s significance was not confined to the theater and later chapters of the book examine how opera permeated everyday life in New Orleans through popular sheet music novels magazines and visual culture and dancing in its many ballrooms Just as New Orleans helped to create transatlantic opera opera in turn helped to create the city of New Orleans Reversing the Colonial Gaze Hamid Dabashi,2020-01-16 A transformative account of the adventures of Persian travelers in the nineteenth century moving beyond Eurocentric approaches to travel narratives Metamorphoses of Travel Writing Grzegorz Moroz,2010-02-19 This book reflects comments on and adds to a fast growing field of travel writing studies The twenty five papers in this volume rely on a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches and explore a diverse body of travel writing texts created over the last three hundred years in English Polish Hungarian and French The book is divided into three parts The first one includes papers which apply the findings of post structuralism generic and cultural criticism as well as narratology to explore theories canons and genres in travel writing drawing material not only from non fictional and fictional prose narratives but also from poetry and tragedy The second and third parts contain papers on a wide selection of travel writing texts both fictional and non fictional written in Anglophone as well as other literary traditions They are arranged chronologically the second part is devoted to texts written in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries while the third part focuses on those written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Travel, Tourism, and Identity Gabriel R. Ricci,2017-09-29 Travel Tourism and Identity addresses the psychological and social adjustments that occur when people make contact with others outside their social cultural or linguistic groups Whether such contact is the result of tourism seeking exile or relocating abroad the volume s contributors demonstrate how one s identity cultural assumptions and worldview can be brought into question In some cases the traveller finds that bridging the social and cultural gap between himself and the new society is fairly easy In other cases the traveller discovers that reorienting himself requires absorbing a new cultural history and traditions The contributors argue that making these adjustments will surely enhance the traveller s or tourist s experience otherwise the traveller or tourist will be at risk of becoming a marginalized figure one disconnected from the society that surrounds him This latest volume in the Culture Civilization series features a collection of essays on travel and tourism The essays cover a range of topics from historical travels to modern social identities They discuss ancient travels contemporary travels in Europe Africa and sustainable eco tourism and the politics of tourism Essays also address experiences of Grenada s Spice Island identity and the effects of globalization and migrations on personal identity Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer Speake,2014-05-12 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing There are entries on places and routes Afghanistan Black Sea Egypt Gobi Desert Hawaii Himalayas Italy Northwest Passage Samarkand Silk Route Timbuktu writers Isabella Bird Ibn Battuta Bruce Chatwin Gustave Flaubert Mary Kingsley Walter Raleigh Wilfrid Thesiger methods of transport and types of journey balloon camel grand tour hunting and big game expeditions pilgrimage space travel and exploration genres buccaneer narratives guidebooks New World chronicles
