Azeiteiro, Paula Bacelar-Nicolau, Walter Leal Filho, Anabela Marisa Azul, 2016-05-26 This book gathers interdisciplinary reflections from researchers educators and other experts on the subject of biodiversity closer to education and learning The book also highlights its role as an added value to strategic principles for healthy ecosystems and sustainable human development It promotes critical thinking and foster practices and attitudes for Education for Sustainable Development reconciling education with principles of human behaviour and nature Readers especially find this book a timely resource in light of the Strategic Plan for Biodiversity 2011 2020 the Aichi Targets and the new EU biodiversity strategy Our life insurance our natural capital an EU biodiversity strategy to 2020 Along with the challenge of ecosystems and public health biodiversity conservation is essential for humanity s continued security and sustainability as it touches on all aspects of people s lives

ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 Sustainable Development Goals for Society Vol. 1 Godwell Nhamo, Muchaiteyi Togo, Kaitano Dube, 2021-06-16 Written by 43 authors from Africa Europe and Latin America this book presents 19 topics addressing poverty in the context of Sustainable Development Goals SDGs leadership in implementing SDGs and SDGs in service delivery and local government As the world has gone past five years of implementing the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the intertwined 17 SDGs new opportunities in research continue to open up Hence documenting some of the initiatives put in place around the world regarding the implementation of the SDGs is one of the aims of this publication With 10 years remaining the book further enhances the desire to scale up SDGs implementation The selection of case studies from the selected regions also provides a balance in terms of how the SDGs are being rolled out for economic growth environmental stewardship and social protection The ambition remains even with the challenge brought by the COVID 19 pandemic that preoccupied the whole of 2020 spilling over to 2021 There is no doubt that resources have been diverted but the world must stay on the course to 2030 and beyond Therefore the book is relevant for several stakeholders including the academics development partners government officials and other individuals that are involved in making sure no one is left behind in the lead to 2030 Transforming Teaching and Learning Experiences for Helping Professions in Higher Education

,2023-02-27 Higher education has transformed and continues to transform in this century because of decolonizing the curriculum and the COVID 19 pandemic which have added an indelible mark to the methodology of teaching and learning Learning spaces have become open to more people through privatization massification e learning platforms and internationally mobile academics allowing individuals from diverse backgrounds to enter the academic and helping professions space Educators need to reskill repurpose redesign and reimagine for a world that is rapidly evolving New ways of teaching need to consider nuances of decolonization of the curriculum deep understanding of subjects transformative ways of imparting knowledge and technology enhanced learning needs to be embraced Thus the teaching and learning spaces in developed and developing environments move beyond the classroom to prepare 21st century citizens to embrace life long learning Furthermore the content as well as processes involved in teaching and learning must be explored thoughtfully that includes the perspectives of a more inclusive wave of educators and students Thus this book has implications for a global scholarship specifically during disruptive times in Higher Education It is hoped that the book stimulates reflections so that the reader draws inspiration to find contextual relevance that extends into the real world Research Anthology on

Women and Photography in Africa Darren Newbury, Lorena Rizzo, Kylie Thomas, 2020-10-26 This collection explores women's multifaceted historical and contemporary involvement in photography in Africa. The book offers new ways of thinking about the history of photography exploring through case studies the complex and historically specific articulations of gender and photography on the continent and attending to the challenge and potential of contemporary feminist and postcolonial engagements with the medium. The volume is organised in thematic sections that present the lives and work of historically significant yet overlooked women photographers as well as the work of acclaimed contemporary African women photographers such as H la Ammar Fatoumata Diabat Lebohang Kganye and Zanele Muholi. The book offers critical reflections on the politics of gendered knowledge production and the production of racialised and gendered identities and alternative and subaltern subjectivities. Several chapters illuminate how contemporary African women photographers collectors and curators are engaging with colonial photographic archives to contest stereotypical forms of representation and produce powerful counter histories. Raising critical questions about race gender and the history of photography the collection provides a model for interdisciplinary feminist approaches for scholars and students of art history visual studies and African history.

Sustainable Development in Africa Walter Leal Filho, Rudi Pretorius, Luiza Olim de Sousa, 2021-07-09 This book serves the purpose of documenting and promoting African experiences on sustainable development which encompasses both formal and non formal education. Sustainable development is very important to Africa but there is a paucity of publication which documents and promotes experiences from African countries. Due to their complexity the interrelations between social economic and political factors related to sustainable development especially at universities need to be better understood. There is also a real need to showcase successful examples of how African institutions are handling their sustainability challenges. It is against this background that this book has been produced. It is a truly interdisciplinary publication useful to scholars social movements practitioners and members of governmental agencies and private companies undertaking research and or executing projects focusing on sustainability from across Africa. As African nations strive to pursue the UN Sustainable Development Goals it is imperative to cater for the information needs seen across the continent and foster the dissemination of experiences and case studies which may support both on going and future efforts. The scope of the book is deliberately kept wide and we are looking for contributions across the spectrum of sustainable development from business and economics to arts and fashion administration environment languages and media studies.

The Globalization of Hate Jennifer Schweppe, Mark Austin Walters, 2016-05-25 The Globalization of Hate: Internationalizing Hate Crime is the first book to examine the impact of globalization on our understanding of hate speech and hate crime. Bringing together internationally acclaimed scholars with researchers policy makers and practitioners from across the world it critically scrutinises the concept of hate crime as a global phenomenon seeking to examine whether hate crime can or should be conceptualised within an international framework and if so how this might be achieved Beginning with the global dynamics of hate the contributions analyse whether hate crime can be defined globally whether universal principles can be applied to the phenomenon how hatred is spread and how it impacts upon our global society The middle portion of the book moves beyond the broader questions of globalisation to jurisdictional examples of how globalization impacts upon our understanding of and also our responses to hate crime The chapters explore in greater detail what is happening around the world and how the international concepts of hate crime are being operationalised locally drawing out the themes of globalization and internationalization that are relevant to hate crime as evidenced by a number of jurisdictions from Europe the US Asia and Africa The final part of the book concludes with an examination of the different ways in which hate speech and hate crime is being combatted globally International law internet regulation and the use of restorative practices are evaluated as methods of addressing hate based conflict with the discussions drawn from existing frameworks as well as exploring normative standards for future international efforts Taken together these innovative and insightful contributions offer a timely investigation into the effects of hate crime offering an interdisciplinary approach to tackling what is now a global issue It will be of interest to scholars and students of criminology sociology and criminal justice as well as criminal justice practitioners police officers and policy makers
