Trading Blocs Alternative Approaches To Analyzing Preferential Trade Agreements:

Trading Blocs Jagdish N. Bhagwati, Pravin Krishna, Arvind Panagariya, 1999 The recent proliferation of free trade areas and customs unions in the world trading system has led to a revival of interest in the economic analysis of Preferential Trade Agreements PTAs The principal theoretical question of the 1950s and 1960s Viner was whether PTAs encourage or discourage the worldwide nondiscriminatory freeing of trade The essays in this volume present the central contributions to the analytical approaches developed to examine these questions Provided by publisher Trading Blocs Jagdish N. International Handbook on the Economics of Integration: General issues and regional groups Miroslav N. Jovanović, 2011-01-01 International Handbook of Economic Integration edited by Miroslav Jovanovi provides timely and rich academic contributions to considerations of the widest array of integration related issues European integration has been providing an inspiration to a number of academics and researchers The Handbook is a recognition of the dynamic and strong solidarity of the European integration At the same time the European Union often provided an example for integration schemes throughout the world which spread enormously since the mid 1990s Leading experts from all continents contributed to this Handbook which will be a valuable input into academic and policy making discussions and actions Jos Manuel Barroso President of the European Commission Miroslav Jovanovi s publication represents a rich contribution to the complex issue of regional integration its benefits its shortcomings and its relationship with multilateral trade opening It sheds light over an issue which is the subject of intense discussions in trade circles Pascal Lamy Director General of the WTO Much has been written on trade agreements as a mechanism to integrate the markets of two or more countries often inspired by the European example In recent years attention has increasingly focused on the importance of economic geography as a determinant of industrial location This book combines the two strands of analysis bringing together leading experts in the fields of economic geography and international trade The result is an outstanding compilation of papers that illuminate how policies and economic forces affect the location of economic activity in an integrated Europe Bernard Hoekman Director The World Bank US The open multilateral trading system is a tremendous success of the past half century and has contributed greatly to the world s unprecedented rate of economic growth Over the past two decades however preferential trading arrangements have proliferated raising questions as to how compatible they are with the open multilateral system and what policies might be adopted to improve outcomes The essays in this volume detail the emergence of PTAs and provide comprehensive and up to date analyses of the state of play of preferential arrangements in all regions of the world The volume will provide a useful reference for all those wanting to understand existing preferential arrangements and their role in the international economy today Anne O Krueger Johns Hopkins University and Stanford University US Economic integration is a complex and multifaceted giant with a myriad aspects ranging from regional and global concentration and dispersal of economic activity to social and political consequences for individuals and communities in developed and developing countries alike This landmark three volume collection of chapters by leading authors drawn from many fields is a worthy and timely contribution to the analysis of a phenomenon with profound implications for the future world economy and its governance James Zhan Director Investment Enterprise Division UNCTAD With this Handbook Miroslav Jovanovi has provided readers with both an excellent stand alone original reference book as well as the first volume in a comprehensive three volume set This introduction into a rich and expanding academic and practical world of international economic integration also provides a theoretical and analytical framework to the reader presenting select analytical studies and encouraging further research International Handbook on the Economics of Integration Volume I covers two broad themes general integration issues and regional integration groups The first part discusses topics that range from an overview of the regional integration deals registered with the World Trade Organization to multilateralism and regionalism hub and spoke integration networks limits to integration rules of origin and globalization The second part of the Han

Intellectual Property and Free Trade Agreements in the Asia-Pacific Region Christoph Antons, Reto M. Hilty, 2014-12-05 This book is highly topical The shift from the multilateral WTO negotiations to bilateral and regional Free Trade Agreements has been going on for some time but it is bound to accelerate after the WTO Doha round of negotiations is now widely regarded as a failure However there is a particular regional angle to this topic as well After concluding that further progress in the Doha round was unlikely Pacific Rim nations recently have progressed with the negotiations of a greatly expanded Trans Pacific Partnership Agreement that includes industrialised economies and developed countries such as the United States Japan Australia and New Zealand recently emerged economies such as Singapore but also several developing countries in Asia and Latin America such as Malaysia and Vietnam US and EU led efforts to conclude FTAs with Asia Pacific nations are also bound to accelerate again after a temporary slowdown in the negotiations following the change of government in the United States and the expiry of the US President's fast track negotiation authority The book will provide an assessment of these dynamics in the world's fastest growing region It will look at the IP chapters from a legal perspective but also put the developments into a socio economic and political context Many agreements in fact are concluded because of this context rather than for purely economic reasons or to achieve progress in fields like IP law The structure of the book follows an outline that groups countries into interest alliances according to their respective IP priorities This ranges from the driving forces of the EU US and Japan via Asia Pacific resource rich but IP poor economies such as Australia and New Zealand recently emerged economies with strong IP systems such as Singapore and Korea to leading developing countries such as China and India and second tier industrializing economies such as Thailand Malaysia and Indonesia
