The Crucible of Religion Wojciech Maria Zalewski,2012-02-13 Religion is commonly viewed through the lens of the world's religious traditions stressing the differences and often the conflicts among them The author of this book instead presents religion as a common and universal human phenomenon based deeply in a human nature shared by all In this view the underlining and unifying principle of religion is a particular affirmative attitude toward life which he presents as the Ultimate Value and as such the key cultural constituent and defining factor of all religion This Ultimate Value finds its expressions in various civilizations and results in a variety of forms these are what we know as the world's religious traditions By analyzing the roles of both culture and civilization in their attitudes toward life the author places religion beyond religious traditions and shows how the latter regardless of whether they are theistic or atheistic draw their principles from the former mainly by promoting the Golden Rule in its applications

Critical Essays on Edward Schillebeeckx's Theology Corneliu C. Simut,2010-02-18 This book presents the main teachings of Edward Schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century Schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world Because today's world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science technology economics urbanism etc modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential questions that can be explained rationally In his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today's world Schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of Christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional Christian doctrines Primarily the supernatural essence of Christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world In Schillebeeckx's thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology God is man's terrestrial future Christ the symbol of universal human values and the Church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values Schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations emptied of metaphysical content can help today's people understand their existence in a new relevant and meaningful way

A Convergent Model of Renewal C. Wess Daniels, 2015-02-20 A Convergent Model of Renewal addresses a perceived crisis for faith traditions How do we continue to value tradition while allowing for innovative and contextual expressions of faith to emerge How do we foster deeper participation and decentralization of power rather than entrenched institutionalism Drawing on insights from contemporary philosophy contextual theology and participatory culture C Wess Daniels calls for a revitalization of faith traditions In A Convergent Model of Renewal he proposes a model that holds together both tradition and innovation in ways that foster participatory change This convergent model of renewal is then applied to two case studies based in the Quaker tradition one from the early part of the tradition and the second from an innovative community today The model however is capable of being implemented and adapted by communities with various faith backgrounds
