Communication and Conflict Transformation through Local, Regional, and Global Engagement Peter M. Kellett, Thomas G. Matyók, 2016-12-13 Central to a transformational approach to conflict is the idea that conflicts must be viewed as embedded within broader relational patterns and social and discursive structures and must be addressed as such This implies the need for systemic change at generative levels in order to create genuine transformation at the level of particular conflicts Central also to this book is the idea that the origins of transformation can be momentary or situational small scale or micro level as well as bigger and more systemic or macro level Micro level changes involve shifts and meaningful changes in communication and related patterns that are created in communication between people Such transformative changes can radiate out into more systemic levels and systemic transformative changes can radiate inwards to more micro levels This book engages this transformative framework Within this framework this book pulls together current work that epitomizes and highlights the contribution of communication scholarship and communication centered approaches to conflict transformation in local community regional environmental and global conflicts in various parts of the world The resulting volume presents an engaging mix of scholarly chapters think pieces and experiences from the field of practice The book embraces a wide variety of theoretical and methodological approaches as well as transformative techniques and processes including narrative dialogic critical cultural linguistic conversation analytic discourse analytic and rhetorical This book makes a valuable contribution to the ongoing dialogue across and between disciplines and people on how to transform conflicts creatively sustainably and ethically comprehended as a significant and often preventable form of world wide violence The author supplies a theoretical framework for assessing suicide as medical or instrumental posits interdisciplinary complementarity and offers future lines of inquiry that challenge established notions of prevention The book presents a PACS meta theory termed encounter theory and supplies a suicidal peacebuilding platform via relationship This book questions why more PACS scholars aren t turning their attention to suicide when more people die by suicide than ethnic religious or terroristic violence combined Radical Conflict Andrew R. Smith, 2016-05-05 Radical Conflict addresses conflict at interpersonal and communal legal and rhetorical ethno-political global and geopolitical levels The conflicts analyzed are radical because in each some intense and often prolonged violence takes place The chapters address different kinds of violence s physical and gratuitous structural and socio-economic legal and symbolic all with significant ill effects and injustices that spiral in all directions All share an interest in exploring imaginatively and speculatively what can be done to attenuate such cycles of violence The volume analyzes how recurrent narratives mythologies media ted constructions and other discourse s of liberal democratic and authoritarian states play a significant role in exacerbating or thwarting violence exposing escalating legitimizing rationalizing propagating but also possibly mitigating violence in all of its forms Each contributor provides a critical interpretation of the status of the conflict under inquiry including a teacher verbally abusing and ridiculing a student then exposing it in social media a community torn apart by environmental disaster the incommensurate but not incommensurable conflict between Israelis and Palestinians the Muslim Brotherhood and the militarized state s of Egypt and Libya urban discourses in cyberspace among Moroccan and Maghreb youth that have become counter signifying publics against oppression of the state the role of media and violence in Zimbabwe s political struggle the impact of the Circassian diaspora in global politics especially in the United States India s soft power approach to the Kashmir conflict as a way to capitalize on it through tourism the agonistic discourses that pervade the conflict over the Sahara and deprive Sahrawi people of rights and how the liberal state is implicated in the gratuitous violence of ISIL The volume also offers a section on the rhetoric of exclusionary laws associated with intractable conflicts of the abortion conflict the right to die controversy and a Burkean perspective on violence in Bangladesh Contributors suggest what can be done conceptually and politically to mitigate and end violations of those who are most vulnerable banished forgotten damaged and often silenced
