TRANSLATING LIVES

Living with Two Languages and Cultures

'... a book of revelations.' - Arnold Zable

Translating Lives Translating Lives

Clifford E. Landers

Translating Lives Translating Lives:

Translating Lives, 2007 Recounting the personal experiences of 12 bilingual Australians this immensely moving collection of stories shows how immersion in two overlapping cultures affects one's perspectives on the world and relationships with other people Including contributions from Kim Scott and Eva Sallis these stories childhood recollections migrant experiences journeys of self discovery and accounts of feeling culturally torn or undefined demonstrate the intrinsic links between language culture and identity Translating Lives Mary Besemeres, 19??

Translating Human Inner Life In and Between the Arts Malgorzata Gamrat, 2025-05-15 The book examines how so called human inner life feelings emotions sentiments and self reflection permeates different forms of art The methodological perspective is multidimensional covering translation studies and semiotics studies including semiotics of passion semiotics of culture existential semiotics and biosemiotics as well as different arts fields music literature film visual arts multimedia and video games The book combines these approaches and tools for each field in order to create a new approach that permits an examination of the process of translation in various arts connected to human inner life In this way the reader can see the complexity of human inner life from an interdisciplinary perspective

Translating Early Modern China Carla Nappi, 2021-04-08 The history of China as any history is a story of and in translation Translating Early Modern China tells the story of translation in China to and from non European languages and Latin between the fourteenth and the nineteenth centuries and primarily in the Ming and Qing dynasties Each chapter finds a particular translator resurrected from the past to tell the story of a text that helped shape the history of translation in China In Chinese Mongolian Manchu Latin and more these texts helped to make the Chinese language what it was at different points in its history This volume explores what the form of an academic history book might look like by playing with fictioning as part of the historian's craft The book's many stories of glossaries and official Ming translation bureaus of bilingual Ming Chinese Mongolian language primers of the first Latin grammar of Manchu of a Qing Manchu conversation manual of a collection of Manchu poems by a Qing translator serve as case studies that open out into questions of language and translation in China's past of the use of fiction as a historian's tool and of the ways that translation creates language

Translating Memories of Violent Pasts Claudia Jünke, Désirée Schyns, 2023-08-31 This collection brings together work from Memory Studies and Translation Studies to explore the role of interlingual and intercultural translation for unpacking transcultural memory dynamics focusing on memories of violent pasts across different literary genres The book explores the potential of a research agenda that links narrower definitions of translation with broader notions of transfer transmission and relocation across temporal and cultural borders investigating the nuanced theoretical and conceptual dimensions at the intersection of memory and translation The volume explores memories of violent pasts legacies of war genocide dictatorship and exile across different genres and media including testimony autobiography novels and graphic novels The collection engages in central questions at the interface of Memory Studies and Translation Studies including whether traumatic historical experiences that resist representation can be translated what happens when texts that negotiate such memories are translated into other languages and cultures and what role translation strategies translators and agents of translations play in memory across borders The volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in Translation Studies Memory Studies and Comparative Literature

Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2000
 First published in 2000 Dipesh Chakrabarty's influential Provincializing Europe addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of modernity in many histories of capitalist transition in non Western countries This imaginary Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty argues is built into the social sciences The very idea of historicizing carries with it some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space secular time and sovereignty Measured against such mythical standard capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self understandings of capitalist modernity Now featuring a new preface in which Chakrabarty responds to his critics this book globalizes European thought by exploring how many it may be renewed both for and from the margins from back cover

Literary Translation Clifford E. Landers, 2001-01-01 In this book both beginning and experienced translators will find pragmatic techniques for dealing with problems of literary translation whatever the original language Certain challenges and certain themes recur in translation whatever the language pair This guide proposes to help the translator navigate through them

Reframing Translators, Translators as Reframers Dominique Faria, Marta Pacheco Pinto, Joana Moura, 2022-07-29 This collection explores the notion of reframing as a framework for better understanding the multi agent and multi level nature of the translation process generating new conversations in current debates on translational agency authority and power The volume puts forward reframing as an alternative metaphor to traditional conceptualizations and descriptions of translation which often position the process in such terms as transformation reproduction transposition and transfer Chapters in the book reflect on the translator figure as a central agent in actively moving a translated text to a new context and the translation process as shaped by different forces and subjectivities when translational agency comes into play The book brings together cross disciplinary perspectives for viewing translation through the lens of agents drawing on a wide range of examples across geographic settings historical eras and language pairs The volume integrates analyses from the translated texts themselves as well as their paratexts to offer unique insights into the different layers of mediation in translation and the new frame s created for those texts This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies comparative studies reception studies and cultural studies

Translating across Sensory and Linguistic Borders Madeleine Campbell, Ricarda Vidal, 2018-12-08 This book analyses intersemiotic translation where the translator works across sign systems and cultural boundaries Challenging Roman Jakobson's seminal definitions it examines how a poem may be expressed as dance a short story as an olfactory experience or a film as a painting This emergent process opens up a myriad of synaesthetic possibilities for both translator and target audience to experience form and sense beyond the limitations of words The editors draw together theoretical and creative contributions from translators artists performers academics and curators who have explored intersemiotic translation in their practice The contributions offer a practitioner's perspective on this rapidly evolving interdisciplinary field which spans semiotics cognitive poetics psychoanalysis and transformative learning theory The book underlines the intermedial and multimodal nature of perception and expression where semiotic boundaries are considered fluid and heuristic rather than ontological It will be of particular interest to practitioners scholars and students of modern foreign languages linguistics literary and cultural studies interdisciplinary humanities visual arts theatre and the performing arts Translators through History Jean Delisle, Judith Woodsworth, 2012-07-05 Acclaimed when it first appeared as a seminal work a groundbreaking book that was both informative and highly readable Translators through History is being released in a new edition substantially revised and expanded by Judith Woodsworth Translators have played a key role in intellectual exchange through the ages and across borders This account of how they have contributed to the development of languages the emergence of literatures the dissemination of knowledge and the spread of values tells the story of world culture itself Content has been updated new elements introduced and recent directions in translation scholarship incorporated providing fresh insights and a more nuanced view of past events The bibliography contains over 100 new titles and illustrations have been refreshed and enhanced An invaluable tool for students scholars and professionals in the field of translation the latest version of Translators through History remains a vital resource for researchers in other disciplines and a fascinating read for the wider public
