grounded in a trauma scaffold providing foundational information that therapists can build upon step by step to treat individuals affected by more complex trauma events This resource newly addresses the mental health implications of COVID 19 which has had an enormous impact on multitudes of people since the beginning of the pandemic its repercussions likely to continue for some time into the future The text also is updated to provide the most recent diagnostic information regarding trauma in the DSM 5 Two new chapters address the confluence of crises related to anthropogenic climate change and the effects of mass violence This unrivalled resource emphasizes stress management and crisis intervention skills as important building blocks for working with more complex issues of trauma and disaster It underscores the idea that trauma must be approached from multiple perspectives and in multiple dimensions encompassing individual community societal and systemic implications along with multicultural and diversity frames of reference The text integrates the latest findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology with an emphasis on Polyvagal Theory Additionally the text highlights the importance of clinical supervision in trauma care and examines ethical dimensions and the need for self care among trauma counselors Purchase includes digital access for use on most mobile devices or computers New to the Second Edition Reconceptualizes the text with the concept of a Trauma Scaffold as a foundation upon which to understand and develop treatment for increasingly complex trauma events Addresses the COVID 19 pandemic and its profound effect on the mental health of vast numbers of people Includes two new chapters on the confluence of crises related to anthropogenic climate change and the effects of mass violence Includes PowerPoint slides to accompany an updated Instructor s Manual Key Features Delivers both introductory and advanced clinical information addressing complex trauma Addresses trauma from a bioecological framework with emphasis on trauma informed practices multicultural pluralism diversity and social justice Considers neurobiological responses to trauma with new research and the contributions of Polyvagal Theory Examines individual familial community society and systemic understandings of stress crisis trauma and disaster Includes a wealth of resources for further study text boxes and case studies to reinforce learning

Trauma Counseling, Second Edition Lisa Lopez Levens, 2022-03-28 The only comprehensive text to focus on trauma stress crisis and disaster counseling from a clinical practice perspective This overarching text intended both for mental health practitioners in training and for practicing clinicians focuses on the impact of stress crisis trauma and disaster on diverse populations across the lifespan as well as on effective treatment strategies The second edition is newly grounded in a trauma scaffold providing foundational information that therapists can build upon step by step to treat individuals affected by more complex trauma events This resource newly addresses the mental health implications of COVID 19 which has had an enormous impact on multitudes of people since the beginning of the pandemic its repercussions likely to continue for some time into the future The text also is updated to provide the most recent diagnostic information regarding trauma in the DSM 5 Two new chapters address the confluence of crises related to anthropogenic climate change and the effects of mass violence This unrivalled resource emphasizes stress management and crisis intervention skills as important building blocks for working with more complex issues of trauma and disaster. It underscores the idea that trauma must be approached from multiple perspectives and in multiple dimensions encompassing individual, community, societal, and systemic implications along with multicultural and diversity frames of reference. The text integrates the latest findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology with an emphasis on Polyvagal Theory. Additionally, the text highlights the importance of clinical supervision in trauma care and examines ethical dimensions and the need for self care among trauma counselors. Purchase includes digital access for use on most mobile devices or computers. New to the Second Edition: Reconceptualizes the text with the concept of a Trauma Scaffold as a foundation upon which to understand and develop treatment for increasingly complex trauma events; Addresses the COVID 19 pandemic and its profound effect on the mental health of vast numbers of people; Includes two new chapters on the confluence of crises related to anthropogenic climate change and the effects of mass violence; Includes PowerPoint slides to accompany an updated Instructor's Manual; Key Features: Delivers both introductory and advanced clinical information addressing complex trauma; Addresses trauma from a bioecological framework with emphasis on trauma-informed practices, multicultural pluralism, diversity, and social justice; Considers neurobiological responses to trauma with new research and the contributions of Polyvagal Theory; Examines individual, familial, community, society, and systemic understandings of stress, crisis, trauma, and disaster; Includes a wealth of resources for further study, text boxes, and case studies to reinforce learning.

Trauma Counseling Lisa Lopez Levens, 2012. Trauma Counseling is a comprehensive multidisciplinary guide to the theory and treatment of survivors of a broad spectrum of traumatic events including interpersonal violence, hate crimes, school violence, community violence, natural disasters, and war and terrorism. It is written by a Fulbright scholar who is internationally recognized for her work with traumatized populations in Rwanda, several southern African countries, Russia, and the United States. It also includes the contributions of researchers from the United States, Australia, Africa, and Europe. The book discusses evidence-based trauma assessment and intervention techniques and integrates the latest findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology. It focuses on issues of loss and grief, survivorship, and disability, genocide, natural disasters, the impact of war on civilians and veterans, and the distinct effects of trauma in early childhood, childhood, and adolescence. Also addressed are ethical perspectives and methods of self care for counselors who work with this population. The text will be of value to graduate counseling students and professional counselors as well as social workers, psychologists, psychiatric nurses, and other human service providers who will be able to attend to trauma survivors with a depth of knowledge and confidence. The contents of Trauma Counseling not only fulfill but exceed the requirements of The Council of Accreditation and Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) standards. Publisher's website: Disaster Mental Health Counseling Mark A. Stebnicki, 2016-12-07. Focuses on understanding cultural and psychosocial contexts to promote optimal healing for disaster survivors. This is the first book for mental health professionals working with survivors of mass trauma to focus on the psychosocial and culture contexts in which these disasters occur. It underscores the importance of understanding these environments in order to provide maximally effective mental health interventions for trauma survivors and their communities. Global in scope, the text addresses the foundations of understanding and responding to the mental health needs of individuals and groups healing from traumas created by a wide range of natural and human-made critical events including acts of terrorism, armed conflict, genocide, and mass violence by individual perpetrators. Designed for professional training in disaster mental health and meeting CACREP standards, the text promotes the knowledge and skills needed to work with the psychosocial aspects of individual and group adaptation and adjustment to mass traumatic experience. Reflecting state-of-the-art knowledge, the book offers detailed guidelines in assessment and brief interventions related to survivors' posttraumatic stress symptoms and complex trauma associated with being at the epicenter of extraordinary stressful and traumatic events. In addition, this book also covers critical issues of self-care for the professional. Illustrated with first-person accounts of disaster survivors and case scenarios, this book emphasizes how counselors and other mental health professionals can foster resilience and wellness in individuals and communities affected by all types of disasters.

Key Features: Considers disaster and mass trauma response from a culturally and globally relevant perspective; the first book of its kind; Addresses CACREP's clinical standards and content areas related to disaster mental health response; Covers many types of disasters and categories of survivors; Includes updated information on PTSD, complex trauma, and self-care; Addresses cultivating resiliency in individual and group survivors along with social justice issues.

Introduction to Crisis and Trauma Counseling Thelma Duffey, Shane Haberstroh, 2020-04-09 This introductory text integrates evidence-based models and best practices with relational cultural theory, which is responsive to the many forms of traumatic stress and tragedies that clients experience. It is a unique contribution that emphasizes the power of the connections counselors form with clients and communities in crisis and the means by which counselors can intervene, inspire growth, and promote healing during times of tragedy and loss. Readers will gain vital skills as they learn real-life approaches to crisis work with diverse populations in a variety of settings, including individuals, families, communities, students, military personnel, violence survivors, and clients who are suicidal. The authors provide strength-based, trauma-informed applications of cognitive-behavioral therapy, behavioral therapy, neurofeedback, mindfulness, and creative practices. In addition, each chapter contains compelling case examples, multiple-choice and essay questions, and key topic discussion prompts to guide student learning and promote classroom discussion. Turmoil, Trauma and Tenacity in Early Jewish Literature Nicholas P. L. Allen, Jacob J. T. Doedens, 2022-08-01 This volume is written in the context of trauma hermeneutics of ancient Jewish communities and their tenacity in the face of adversity, i.e., as recorded in the MT LXX Pseudepigrapha, the Deuterocanonical books, and even Cognate literature In this regard its thirteen chapters are concerned with the most recent outputs of trauma studies They are written by a selection of leading scholars associated to some degree with the Hungaro South African Study Group Here trauma is employed as a useful hermeneutical lens not only for interpreting biblical texts and the contexts in which they were originally produced and functioned but also for providing a useful frame of reference As a consequence these various research outputs each in their own way confirm that an historical and theological appreciation of these early accounts and interpretations of collective trauma and its implications perceived or otherwise is critical for understanding the essential substance of Jewish cultural identity As such these essays are ideal for scholars in the fields of Biblical Studies particularly those interested in the Pseudepigrapha the Deuterocanonical books and Cognate literature
