The Secret Lives of Buildings in which Hollis turns his focus from the great architectural constructions of the past to the now vanished chambers they once contained The rooms we live in are always more than just four walls As we decorate these spaces and fill them with objects and friends they shape our lives and become the backdrop to our sense of self one day the structures will be gone but even then traces of the stories and the memories they contained will persist In this dazzling work of imaginative reconstruction edward Hollis takes us to the sites of great abodes now lost to history and piecing together the fragments that remain re creates their vanished chambers From Rome s palatine to the old palace of Westminster and the petit Trianon at Versailles from the sets of MGM studios in Hollywood to the pavilions of the Crystal palace and the author s own grandmother s sitting room The Memory Palace is a glittering treasure trove of luminous forgotten places and the alluring people who lived in them Pop Islam Rosemary Pennington,2024-04-02 In the West Islam and Muslim life have been imagined as existing in an opposing state to popular culture a frozen faith unable to engage with the dynamic way popular culture shifts over time its followers reduced to tropes of terrorism and enemies of the state Pop Islam Seeing American Muslims in Popular Media traces narratives found in contemporary American comic books scripted and reality television fashion magazines comedy routines and movies to understand how they reveal nuanced Muslim identities to American audiences even as their accessibility obscures their diversity Rosemary Pennington argues that even as American Muslims have become more visible in popular media and created space for themselves in everything from magazines to prime time television to social media this move toward being seen can reinforce fixed ideas of what it means to be Muslim Pennington reveals how portrayals of Muslims in American popular media fall into a trap of visibility where moving beyond negative tropes can cause creators and audiences to unintentionally amplify those same stereotypes To truly understand where American narratives of who Muslims are come from we must engage with popular media while also considering who is allowed to be seen there and why Fabricating the Absolute Fake - Revised Edition Jaap Kooijman, 2025-10-01 When rock star Bono told Oprah Winfrey that America is an ideal that is supposed to be contagious the talk show host was moved to tears Such an imagined America rather than the nation state USA is the topic of Fabricating the Absolute Fake Pop and politics become intertwined as Hollywood television and celebrities spread the American Dream around the world Using concepts such as the absolute fake and karaoke Americanism the book examines this global mediation as well as the way America is appropriated in pop culture produced outside of the USA as demonstrated by such diverse cultural icons as the Elvis inspired crooner Lee Towers and the Moroccan Dutch rapper Ali B This revised and extended edition includes a new chapter on Barack Obama and Michael Jackson as global celebrities and a new afterword on teaching American pop culture

Programming Reality Zoë Druick, Aspa Kotsopoulos, 2008-08-01 Programming Reality Perspectives on English Canadian Television the first anthology dedicated to analyses of Canadian television content is a collection of original interdisciplinary articles combining textual analysis and political economy of communications It explores the television that has thrived in the Canadian regulatory and cultural context namely programs that straddle the border between reality and fiction or even blur it The conceptual basis of this collection is the hybrid nature of television fare the widely theorized notion that all mediations of reality involve fiction in the form of narrative or symbolic shaping Each of the contributions here is a reminder too of the significant relationship of television to nation building in Canada to the imaginative work involved in thinking through the relations that constitute nations citizens and communities The collection focuses on English language Canadian television because the imperatives guiding its texts are markedly different from those pertaining to their French language counterparts The collection therefore develops a nuance of perspective on the cultural and political economic specificities that inform the imaginative work of television production for English Canada
