Cartographies of New York and Other Postwar American Cities Art Literature and Urban Spaces explores phenomena of urban mapping in the discourses and strategies of a variety of postwar artists and practitioners of space Allan Kaprow Claes Oldenburg Vito Acconci Gordon Matta Clark Robert Smithson Rebecca Solnit Matthew Buckingham contemporary Situationist projects The distinctive approach of the book highlights the interplay between texts and site oriented practices which have often been treated separately in critical discussions Monica Manolescu considers spatial investigations that engage with the historical and social conditions of the urban environment and reflect on its mediated nature Cartographic procedures that involve walking and surveying are interpreted as unsettling and subversive possibilities of representing and navigating the postwar American city The book posits mapping as a critical nexus that opens up new ways of studying some of the most important postwar artistic engagements with New York and other American cities Corruption Plots Malini Ranganathan, David L. Pike, Sapana Doshi, 2023-04-15 Winner of the Anthony Leeds Prize in Urban Anthropology by the American Anthropological Association Corruption Plots illuminates how corruption is fundamental to global storytelling about how states and elites abuse entrusted power in late capitalism The millennial city of the global South is a charged setting for allegations of corruption with skyscrapers land grabs and slum evictions invoking outrage at deepening economic polarization Drawing on ethnography in Bengaluru and Mumbai and a cross section of literary and cinematic stories from cities around the world Malini Ranganathan David L. Pike and Sapana Doshi pay close attention to the racial caste class and gender locations of the narrators spaces and publics imagined to be harmed by corruption Corruption Plots demonstrates how corruption talk is leveraged to make sense of unequal spatial change and used opportunistically by those who are themselves implicated in wrongdoing Offering a wide ranging analysis of urban worlds the authors reveal the ethical spatial and political stakes of storytelling and how vital it is to examine the corruption plot in all its contradictions Nonstop Metropolis Rebecca Solnit, Joshua Jelly-Schapiro, 2016-10-19 Nonstop Metropolis the culminating volume in a trilogy of atlases conveys innumerable unbound experiences of New York City through twenty six imaginative maps and informative essays Bringing together the insights of dozens of experts from linguists to music historians ethnographers urbanists and environmental journalists amplified by cartographers artists and photographers it explores all five boroughs of New York City and parts of nearby New Jersey We are invited to travel through Manhattan s playgrounds from polyglot Queens to many faceted Brooklyn and from the resilient Bronx to the mystical kung fu hip hop mecca of Staten Island The contributors to this exquisitely designed and gorgeously illustrated volume celebrate New York City s unique vitality its incubation of the avant garde and its literary history but they also critique its racial and economic inequality environmental impact and erasure of its past Nonstop Metropolis allows us to excavate New York s buried layers to scrutinize its political heft and to discover the unexpected in one of the most iconic cities in the world It is both a challenge and homage to how New Yorkers think of their city and how the world sees this capital of capitalism culture immigration and more Contributors Sheerly Avni Gaiutra Bahadur Marshall Berman Joe Boyd Will Butler Garnette Cadogan Thomas J Campanella Daniel Aldana Cohen Teju Cole Joel

This book considers the ways in which contemporary American fiction seeks to imagine a mode of planetary memory able to address the scalar and systemic complexities of the Anthropocene the epoch in which the combined activity of the human species has become a geological force in its own right Authors examine the recent emergence of a literary and cultural imaginary of planetary memory an imaginary which attempts to give form to the complex interrelations between human and non human worlds between local national and global concerns and perhaps most importantly between historical and geological pasts presents and futures Chapters highlight distinct regions and landscapes of the US from the Appalachians to the South West the Rust Belt New York City Alaska New Orleans and the Rocky Mountains in order to examine how the ecological economic and historical specificity of these environments is underpinned by their implication on networks of planetary significance and scope Overall the collection aims to study develop and recognise new models of cultural memory and anxious anticipation as they emerge and evolve thus opening new conversations about practices of remembering and remembrance on an increasingly fragile planet This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice
