To Kill Another To Kill Another:

Shooting to Kill Seumas Miller, 2016 Terrorism the use of military force in Afghanistan Iraq and Syria and the fatal police shootings of unarmed persons have all contributed to renewed interest in the ethics of police and military use of lethal force and its moral justification In this book philosopher Seumas Miller analyzes the various moral justifications and moral responsibilities involved in the use of lethal force by police and military combatants relying on a distinctive normative teleological account of institutional roles His conception constitutes a novel alternative to prevailing reductive individualist and collectivist accounts As Miller argues police and military uses of lethal force are morally justified in part by recourse to fundamental natural moral rights and obligations especially the right to personal self defense and the moral obligation to defend the lives of innocent others Yet the moral justification for police and military use of lethal force is to some extent role specific Both police officers and military combatants evidently have an institutionally based moral duty to put themselves in harm s way to protect others Under some circumstances however police have an institutionally based moral duty to use lethal force to uphold the law and military combatants have an institutionally based moral duty to use lethal force to win wars Two key notions in play are joint action and the natural right to self defense Miller uses a relational individualist theory of joint actions to construct the notion of multi layered structures of joint action in order to explicate organizational action He also provides a novel theory of justifiable killing in self defense Over the course of his book Miller covers a variety of urgent topics such as police shootings of armed offenders police shooting of suicide bombers targeted killing autonomous weapons humanitarian armed intervention and civilian immunity The Cabinet Lawyer [J.W.], 1863 Lawyers' Reports Annotated, 1906 A Complete Collection of State Trials and Proceedings for High Treason and Other Crimes and Misdemeanors from the Earliest Period to the Year 1783 Thomas Bayly Howell, 1816 Back to Angola Paul Morris, 2014-03-05 In 1987 Paul Morris went to Angola as a reluctant conscript soldier where he experienced the fear and filth of war Twenty five years later in 2012 Paul returned to Angola and embarked on a 1500 kilometre cycle trip solo and unsupported across the country His purpose was to see Angola in peacetime to replace the war map in his mind with a more contemporary peace map to exorcise the ghosts of war once and for all Shifting skilfully between present and past Back to Angola chronicles Paul s epic journey from Cuito Cuanavale to the remnants of his unit s base in northern Namibia and vividly recreates his experiences as a young soldier caught up in a war in a foreign land Along the way the book provides thought provoking reflections on childhood masculinity violence trauma and friendship Back to Angola is an honest intelligent and deeply moving account of war and its effects on an individual mind a generation of people and the psyche and landscape of a country The Southern Reporter, 1904 Includes the decisions of the Supreme Courts of Alabama Florida Louisiana and Mississippi the Appellate Courts of Alabama and Sept 1928 Jan 1929 Jan Mar 1941 the Courts of Appeal of Louisiana Criminal Abortion Laws Before the Fourteenth Amendment Daniel Gump, 2021-09-24 This resource guide follows a 1300 year timeline on the evolution of criminality for inducing or procuring abortions beginning with predecessors to English common law and following to modern interpretations of constitutional law The primary focus lies between 1787 and 1868 spanning ratification of the US Constitution to ratification of its Fourteenth Amendment during which rapid advancements in embryology and medicine led to a paradigm shift on sentiment concerning the unborn among numerous nations of the world Because of this shift legislatures in many states and territories saw it necessary to replace deficiencies in outdated common law with new statutes that would clearly define parameters of the crimes and appropriate sentencing The book's historical timeline heavily relies upon primary sources citing state by state surveys of every criminal abortion statute plus numerous medical journals embryology textbooks court cases legislative journals committee reports memoirs and lectures by high profile individuals All quotations are hyperlinked to Internet archives and repositories to view the full context The majority of pages also include high resolution image scans of original documents inline with the text describing them

Albert Schweitzer's Ethical Vision A Sourcebook Predrag Cicovacki, 2009-02-02 Albert Schweitzer's leading philosophical idea was reverence for life good consists in maintaining and perfecting life evil in destroying and obstructing life For Schweitzer all life is sacred and ethics deals with human attitudes and behavior toward all living beings Unlike most other moral philosophers Schweitzer argues that knowledge of human nature does not lead to any unique moral theory For that reason he bases his ethics on much broader foundations articulated in his philosophy of civilization and philosophy of religion His central idea is that the material element of our civilization has become far more important than its spiritual counterpart Even organized religion has put itself in the service of politics and economics thereby losing its vitality and moral authority Schweitzer's ethics of reverence for life argues Predrag Cicovacki offers a viable alternative at a time when traditional ethical theories are found inadequate Collecting fifteen of Schweitzer's most effective essays this volume serves as a compelling introduction to this remarkable thinker
