To Set Ones Heart Belief And Teaching In The Church:

To Set One's Heart Sara Little,1983 Teaching the Way of Jesus Jack L. Seymour,2014-03-18 Christian religious education provides the content processes and settings to empower the church's mission in the world a mission that includes health care peace with justice and disciple making ministries Today the field Christian Education is clear about its tasks of helping form and nurture faith that is then embodied in faithful practices Research studies on Christian faith practices show how participating in Christian community undergirds and complements thoughtful living through one's life With an emphasis on practices and mission this book offers readers concrete ways to empower vital faith formation in congregations as it describes current trends which include richer diversity entrepreneurial spirit and interfaith dialog This book will also help prepare students for leadership in the Church universal and in the field of Christian Education Faith of Our Foremothers Barbara Anne Keely,1997-01-01 Here are the stories of twelve women Sophia Fahs Hulda Niebuhr Nelle Morton Rachel Henderlite Iris Cully Norma Thompson Olivia Pearl Stokes Sara Little Dorothy Jean Furnish Freda Gardner Letty Russell and Maria Harris all religious educators all who transformed the field of religious education some long before the contemporary feminist movement Though the women represent different times interests and approaches to the discipline they all shared a commitment to creative and enthusiastic religious education Experiencing the Knowing of Faith Sharon Warner,2000 What is religious faith And how does modern society view truth Sharon Warner in Experiencing the Knowing of Faith discusses the understanding formed by deep truth or knowledge intrinsic to a person's self identity She critiques today's susceptibility to the paradigm of Cartesian dualities such as mind body and subject object and in doing so utilizes the philosophy of Alfred North Whitehead and Michael Polanyi Concluding with an exploration of the relevance of this theory for teaching faith the work will be of great use to religious scholars and to philosophers Teaching for Reconciliation Ron Habermas,2001-11-28 Teaching For Reconciliation is an introductory resource that connects foundational issues of theology and the social sciences with practical topics of how to teach It is organized according to a comprehensive theory created by the educational philosopher William K Frankena The overarching objective is first reconciliation with God then with ourselves others and creation itself Teaching for Faith Richard Robert Osmer,1992-01-01 This useful theologically informed guide prepares the soil for teachers in the church whose purpose is to awaken support and challenge faith Richard Osmer offers practical suggestions for preparing good lectures and leading lively discussions He explores four important dimensions of faithfaith as belief as commitment as relationship and as mysteryand describes different teaching approaches that can address each of these dimensions Osmer demonstrates that teaching is a crucial task in the church today How Shall We Witness? Milton J. Coalter,Virgil Cruz,1995-01-01 Witness has long been recognized as an essential task of Christ's disciples But the question of how to evangelize responsibly has often confused and divided the Christian community How Shall We Witness is an account of one Christian family seeking to heed Christ's commission to witness in and to the world

Foundational Issues in Christian Education Robert W. Pazmiño, 2008-09-01 For almost twenty years Foundational Issues in Christian Education has been a key text for many Christian education courses Its perceptive analysis coupled with clear writing make it a resource without peer In the book Christian education expert Robert Pazmiño guides readers through a comprehensive discussion of the interdisciplinary foundations of Christian education calling all Christian educators to reevaluate the fundamentals of their discipline A careful exploration of foundations writes Pazmiño is essential before specifying principles and guidelines for practice This updated edition includes interaction with professional developments over the past ten years and appendixes that assess the impact of postmodernism as an educational philosophy In addition each chapter includes points to ponder for personal reflection or classroom use

Educating Congregations Charles R. Foster, 2010-08-01 A leading Christian educator offers a practical guide for revisioning a church's educational program After identifying the weaknesses in current education programs Charles Foster offers an alternative vision that is more cooperative more attentive to the whole of the congregation's life and that helps people critically correlate the Bible and Christian tradition to their own experience

Faithcare Daniel O. Aleshire, 1988-01-01 This helpful book provides the link between theories about learning and human development and the tasks of pastors Daniel Aleshire shows that paying attention to people can be the source of knowledge about the congregation and the basis for ministry education and Christian nurture
