To Vanquish The Dragon:

To Vanquish the Dragon Pearl Benisch, 1991 The stirring memoir of the courage and strength of Beth Jacob students and the acts of kindness and heroism they performed even while caught between the jaws of the Nazi monster In the ghettos and in the concentration camps the fire of Torah and faith burned strong and clear in the hearts of these young martyrs and survivors

Sophie Saves the World Kat Simons, 2024-11-12 Tending bar couldn't prepare her for an adventure through the universe Who knew When someone walks through Sophie's bathroom wall the hardworking bartender is understandably confused First because someone walked through the seemingly solid wall of her bathroom And second because that someone is small and green smells weirdly like peppermint and says his name is Gerald He also claims she needs to save his world Sophie does not consider herself the world saving type In fact she would argue she is the least qualified world saving person to ever be offered the opportunity to save a world But fate has a twisted sense of humor Bravery rises at the strangest times in the strangest places though So maybe a plucky bartender from Las Vegas really can save the world Or at least not die trying Author's Note This story is also published in the collection HAUNTS AND HOWLS AND JESTERS BELLS keywords Urban fantasy paranormal urban fantasy contemporary fantasy magic fantasy adventure fantasy short story collections sword and sorcery witches and wizards dragons and mythological creatures urban fantasy magic magic and mayhem monsters and demons myths and legends paranormal fantasy humorous fantasy portal fantasy

The Four Modes of Seeing

Elizabeth Carson Pastan, 2017-07-05 Borrowing its title from Madeline Harrison Caviness's influential work on the modes of seeing articulated by the twelfth century cleric Richard of Saint Victor this interdisciplinary collection brings together the work of thirty scholars from England France Germany Italy Switzerland and the United States Each author has contributed an original article that engages with ideas formulated in Caviness's wide ranging scholarship The historiographic introduction discusses themes in Caviness's publications and their importance for art historical and medieval studies today The book's thematic matrix groups together essays concerned with The Material Object Documentary Reconstruction Post Disciplinary Approaches Multiple Readings Gender and Reception Performativity Text and Image Collecting and Consumption and Politics and Ideology The contributors include curators art historians historians and literary scholars Their subjects range from medieval stained glass to the nineteenth century Gothic Revival the Sachsenspiegel and Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ Many foreground issues of gender reception and textuality which have permeated Caviness's scholarship Some also present approaches to sites that have been the subject of important studies by Caviness including Canterbury Chartres Reims Saint Denis Sens and Troyes The volume offers a broad range of methodological approaches to key topics in the study of medieval imagery and thus highlights the vitality of the field today

Poets, Heroes, and their Dragons (2 vols) James R. Russell, 2021-02-08 The present volume is a collection of articles published by Professor James R. Russell of Harvard University in various journals over the past decades James Russell has been one of the pioneers in the field of Armenian and Iranian Studies where he has demonstrated the importance of Iranian civilization for pre Christian Armenia The connection between the two civilizations has been part of the tireless work of Professor Russell and I hope this publication shows the immense importance of his work for both Armenian and Iranian Studies I would like to thank Professor Houri Berberian Director of the UC Irvine Armenian Studies Program as well as Mr Mamigonian and the National Association for Armenian Studies and Research NAASR for supporting the publication of this book This volume was previously published by the Jordan Center for Persian Studies University of California Irvine Haunts and Howls and Jesters Bells Kat
