Tomorrow There Will Be Apricots:

Tomorrow There Will be Apricots Jessica Soffer, 2013 From a debut author already praised by Colum McCann as a profound and necessary new voice comes a novel about two women adrift in New York an Iraqi Jewish widow and the latchkey daughter of a chef who find each other and a new kind of family through their shared love of cooking The Lost Trooper Talbot Mundy, 2021-11-09 In The Lost Trooper by Talbot Mundy readers are taken on a gripping adventure through the desolate yet captivating landscapes of colonial India The novel is crafted in a vivid and descriptive manner immersing readers in the chaotic political and social climate of the time Mundy's literary style seamlessly blends historical accuracy with elements of mystery and suspense making it a compelling and engaging read for those interested in early 20th century literature The novel also touches upon themes of imperialism identity and loyalty adding depth to the narrative The Lost Trooper is a timeless tale that continues to resonate with readers today offering a unique window into a bygone era Talbot Mundy a British born writer and journalist drew inspiration for The Lost Trooper from his own experiences in colonial India His firsthand knowledge of the region and its history enriches the novel lending it authenticity and credibility Mundy's keen eye for detail and ability to capture the complexities of the time period set him apart as a notable figure in early 20th century literature I highly recommend The Lost Trooper to readers who enjoy historical fiction with a touch of mystery and intrigue Talbot Mundy's masterful storytelling and nuanced characters make this novel a captivating and thought provoking read that will leave a lasting impression Palestine Unwrapped Kirsty Le Grice, 2025-05-02 Palestine Unwrapped is an unprecedented collection of real life stories celebrating the beauty and diversity of the Holy Land through its history religions politics and everyday life Written by an outsider who lived for three years in East Jerusalem and travelled extensively across the region these stories and lives lay bare the context and circumstances that have led to the war in Gaza and the continued oppression of the Palestinian people In 2019 when Kirsty Le Grice arrived in Sheikh Jarrah with two young children she was catapulted into a complex world that was both wonderful and tragic Living as part of the international community she travelled throughout Israel and the Palestinian West Bank to reach places that others can't or don't see The stories she heard from the people who lived there and the places she visited helped her to try and make sense of the true character of Jerusalem and Palestine Through Le Grice's narrative explore the Old City of Jerusalem including famous sites like the Dome of the Rock Church of the Holy Sepulchre and the Western Wall Wander through West Bank towns and cities including Bethlehem where artist Banksy owns a hotel with the world's worst views the Separation Wall Hebron and Jenin Experience daily life in off the beaten track villages Pick olives from ancient trees to appreciate Palestinians deep rooted connection to the land which is under threat from Israeli settler violence Savour the beauty of hiking in Palestine including Wadi Qelt and around Jericho Visit locations across Israel that formed historic Palestine including Jaffa Haifa Akko Nazareth and Lifta Palestine Unwrapped is about people as well as place Peeling back the secrets of the Holy Land layer by layer Le

Grice gives a human face to Palestine while exposing harsh realities of the Israeli occupation on day to day existence Meet Hassan who camped out to defend his land Let Mustafa an entrepreneurial refugee guide you around Bethlehem Go tobacco picking with Mohamad in Zabubah Eat maqloubah in Ali s kitchen in Abu Dis And take a tour around the world s most Ultra Orthodox Jewish neighbourhood with someone who left it Compelling authentic and wide ranging Palestine Unwrapped is a portrait of a unique region and the struggle to maintain tradition and day to day normality on the cusp of intense conflict

Eat Joy Natalie Eve Garrett,2019-10-29 Named a Best Cookbook of the Year by Martha Stewart Living Magnificent illustrations add spirit to recipes and heartfelt narratives Plan to buy two copies one for you and one for your best foodie friend Taste of Home This collection of intimate illustrated essays by some of America s most well regarded literary writers explores how comfort food can help us cope with dark times be it the loss of a parent the loneliness of a move or the pain of heartache Lev Grossman explains how he survived on sweet sour spicy salty unabashedly gluey General Tso s tofu after his divorce Carmen Maria Machado describes her growing pains as she learned to feed and care for herself during her twenties Claire Messud tries to understand how her mother gave up dreams of being a lawyer to make a dressed salad of tiny shrimp and avocado followed by prune stuffed pork tenderloin What makes each tale so moving is not only the deeply personal revelations from celebrated writers but also the compassion and healing behind the story the taste of hope If you ve ever felt a deep emotional connection to a recipe or been comforted by food during a dark time you ll fall in love with these stories Martha Stewart Living Eat Joy is the most lovely food essay book This is the perfect gift Joy Wilson Joy the Baker The Prison Dance Denise O Brian,2011-10-28 This memoir was inspired by the authors encounter with Palestinian women political prisoners of NeveTirza Beit Soar It begins with the journey she took through North Africa in 1970 and ends in an Israeli jail It describes a tumultuous era the experiences of women travelling unescorted amidst men and the daily life of an Israeli prison The tales of The Prison Dance are poignant sometimes tragic but frequently humorous owing to the often bizarre quality of events that transpired As the author was a dancer the reader experiences these events through the eyes of Dance Powerful and affecting Great subject still current in spite of the intervening years a valuable document of those times Hank Schachte author of Killing time St Paul in Roman Asia Minor E. Lennox Manton,2016-01-15 This book illuminates the journeys of Saint Paul in Roman Asia Minor in a way that has not previously been attempted and the discussion presented here is in no way an effort to discuss various aspects of Saint Paul s theology Saint Paul was reticent with the details of his journeys and this has given rise to much subsequent learned speculation as to their actual course and possible deviations In the nineteen sixties I drove over the course of Saint Paul s journeys visiting those cities known to him Many of the roads especially that between Laodicea and Antalya had very poor surfaces and I speculated then that these roads must have been much worse in Saint Paul s time I was drawn to the conclusion that St Paul s journeys may have deviated from historical and theological accepted wisdom and in this book I have proposed what I believe to be some likely variations in the routes of parts of his journeys Matrilineal Dissent Annie Atura Bushnell, Lori Harrison-Kahan, Ashley Walters, 2024-05-07 Collectively contributors reframe Jewish American literary history through feminist approaches that have revolutionized the field from intersectionality and the MeToo movement to queer theory and disability studies Examining both canonical and lesser known texts this collection asks what happens to conventional understandings of Jewish American literature when we center women's writing and acknowledge women as dominant players in Jewish cultural production

White Mountain Robert Twigger, 2017-10-03 Home to mythical kingdoms wars and expeditions and strange and magical beasts the Himalayas have always loomed tall in our imagination These mountains home to Buddhists Bonpos Jains Muslims Hindus shamans and animists to name only a few are a place of pilgrimage and dreams revelation and war massacre and invasion but also peace and unutterable calm They are a central hub of the world's religion as well as a climber's challenge and a traveler's dream In an exploration of the region's seismic history Robert Twigger author of Red Nile and Angry White Pyjamas unravels some of these seemingly disparate journeys and the unexpected links between them Following a winding path across the Himalayas to its physical end in Nagaland on the Indian Burmese border Twigger encounters incredible stories from a unique cast of mountaineers and mystics pundits and prophets The result is a sweeping enthralling and surprising journey through the history of the world's greatest mountain range The Caliph's House Tahir

Shah, 2006-01-31 In the tradition of A Year in Provence and Under the Tuscan Sun acclaimed English travel writer Tahir Shah shares a highly entertaining account of making an exotic dream come true By turns hilarious and harrowing here is the story of his family's move from the gray skies of London to the sun drenched city of Casablanca where Islamic tradition and African folklore converge and nothing is as easy as it seems Inspired by the Moroccan vacations of his childhood Tahir Shah dreamed of making a home in that astonishing country At age thirty six he got his chance Investing what money he and his wife Rachana had Tahir packed up his growing family and bought Dar Khalifa a crumbling ruin of a mansion by the sea in Casablanca that once belonged to the city's caliph or spiritual leader With its lush grounds cool secluded courtyards and relaxed pace life at Dar Khalifa seems sure to fulfill Tahir's fantasy until he discovers that in many ways he is farther from home than he imagined For in Morocco an empty house is thought to attract jinns invisible spirits unique to the Islamic world The ardent belief in their presence greatly hampers sleep and renovation plans but that is just the beginning From elaborate exorcism rituals involving sacrificial goats to dealing with gangster neighbors intent on stealing their property the Shahs must cope with a new culture and all that comes with it Endlessly enthralling The Caliph's House charts a year in the life of one family who takes a tremendous gamble As we follow Tahir on his travels throughout the kingdom from Tangier to Marrakech to the Sahara we discover a world of fierce contrasts that any true adventurer would be thrilled to call home
