Words We Carry Essays Of Obsession And Self Esteem:

Words We Carry D G Kaye,2014-10-23 I have been a great critic of myself for most of my life and I was darned good at it deflating my own ego without the help of anyone else What do our shopping habits high heeled shoes and big hair have to do with how we perceive ourselves Do the slights we endured when we were young affect how we choose our relationships now D G takes us on a journey unlocking the hurts of the past by identifying situations that hindered her own self esteem Her anecdotes and confessions demonstrate how the hurtful events in our lives linger and set the tone for how we value our own self worth Words We Carry is a raw personal accounting of how the author overcame the demons of low self esteem with the determination to learn to love herself
