these This volume of papers on global justice derives from a mini conference held in conjunction with the Pacific Division meeting of the American Philosophical Association in Pasadena California in 2004 The idea of holding a mini conference on global justice was inspired by the growth of interest in such questions and it was hoped that organizing the mini conference would stimulate further good writing in this area We believe that our mission has been accomplished We received a number of thoughtful papers on both theoretical and more applied issues showing excellent coverage of a range of topics in the domain of global justice A selection of some of the very best papers is published in this special issue of The Journal of Ethics In particular we tried to include papers that would reflect some of the range of topics that were covered at the conference to give readers a sense of both the scope of the field as it is currently emerging and the direction that the debates seem to be taking As a result of increased attention to theorizing about global justice cosmopolitanism has enjoyed a resurgence of interest as well Research Handbook on Global Justice and International Economic Law John Linarelli, 2013-09-30 The fairness of institutions of global economic governance ranks among the most pressing issues of our time
