Conversational Preaching The Rev. Dr. Mike Sowards, D.Min., 2017-09-18 In Conversational Preaching we are given an in depth investigation into how humans communicate and how understanding interpersonal communications skills can be of considerable value for those called to preach God's word Dr Sowards has made rather elegant use of the model of interpersonal communication as a device to explore preaching and communicating with congregants Dr Dalton Kehoe Senior Scholar Communication Studies York University Toronto Canada Sowards book advances the idea of conversational preaching beyond the merely metaphorical by applying practical insights from Interpersonal Communications Theory to the act of sermon crafting The Rev Dr Micah Jackson Ph D Bishop John Elbridge Hines Associate Professor of Preaching and Director of Comprehensive Wellness Seminary of the Southwest in Austin Texas This book is for preachers and students of preaching who want to become better preachers and communicators I have explored the theories of interpersonal communication and shown how preachers can benefit from such knowledge I described the concept of noise as an impediment to communications and explored the topic with regard to politics beliefs about the poor past religious experiences and having an underdeveloped faith I examined the concept of feedback and how effective feedback can be fodder for future sermons I developed a model for conversational preaching using interpersonal communications theory and state that the ultimate goal of any sermon would be to facilitate a conversation with the hearers of a sermon and God

The Desert Fathers Helen Waddell, 1998-03-24 By the fourth century A D devout Christians men and women alike had begun to retreat from cities and villages to the deserts of North Africa and Asia Minor where they sought liberation from their corrupt society and the confining shell of the social self The Desert Fathers is the perfect introduction to the stories and sayings of these heroic pioneers of the contemplative tradition Selected and translated by Helen Waddell The Desert Fathers opens a window onto early Christianity while presenting us with touchingly human models of faith humility and compassion With a new Preface by the Cistercian monk writer and revered teacher of contemplative prayer M Basil Pennington author of O Holy Mountain and Challenges in Prayer God is our home but many of us have strayed from our native land The venerable authors of these Spiritual Classics are expert guides may we follow their directions home Archbishop Desmond Tutu

God's Opportunity Athanasios Scott Tonk, 2016-02-05 We human beings have messed up so badly We have atomized the Body of Christ so that only a miracle can heal the wounds of the Body again But God is already acting to heal the Body of His Son as you will see in part 1 of the book This book does not deal in generalities when it comes to Christians It views the Body of Christ as one big family complete with a mother our heavenly Father His Son who is the head of the Body and children kissin cousins aunts uncles and so forth Oh yes we have had our fights but they have all been family fights Now this book issues a challenge to all of the members of the family Appreciate one another's heritage and bring it to the table of the Lord This book is also a call to greater evangelism and mission but it by and large recognizes that the churches are going all out to bring the world to Christ Its Gods Time Its Kingdom Time Its the Fullness of Time Its Gods Opportunity
