Bury My Heart in a Free Land Hettie V. Williams, 2017-12-01 Covering the history and contributions of black women intellectuals from the late 19th century to the present this book highlights individuals who are often overlooked in the study of the American intellectual tradition This edited volume of essays on black women intellectuals in modern U S history illuminates the relevance of these women in the development of U S society and culture The collection traces the development of black women's voices from the late 19th century to the present day Covering both well known and lesser known individuals Bury My Heart in a Free Land gives voice to the passion and clarity of thought of black women intellectuals on various arenas in American life from the social sciences history and literature to politics education religion and art The essays address a broad range of outstanding black women that include preachers abolitionists writers civil rights activists and artists A section entitled Black Women Intellectuals in the New Negro Era highlights black women intellectuals such as Jessie Redmon Fauset and Elizabeth Catlett and offers new insights on black women who have been significantly overlooked in American intellectual history

Venus of Khala-Kanti Angèle Kingué, 2014-11-04 Venus of Khala Kanti is a tale of life altering loss and mystical recovery Set in an imaginary West African village that becomes a charming cul de sac the unintended consequence of a national roadwork project gone awry the story follows characters drawn with humor irony and empathy The heart of the story beats with the laughter and tears of three women Having faced incredible hardship they come together to build their lives anew armed with the age old spirit of human resilience understanding and tenderness Tapping into the very soil of Khala Kanti Bella Assumta and Clarisse construct spaces both internal and external where they and others can rejuvenate their bodies minds and spirits They build the Good Hope Center which embraces both the physical and the mystical landscape of the story The Center fuels the restoration and growth of the village's inhabitants and offers sanctuary for those who visit and those who stay

Catastrophic Bliss Myronn Hardy, 2012-12-27 Catastrophic Bliss contemplates the longing to understand connections and disconnections within a world ever more fragmented yet interdependent With allusions to Dante Stevie Wonder Fernando Pessoa Persephone and Marianne Moore these poems move from the tumultuous to the sublime a pit bull killing an invading thief two people on a New York City subway playing chess Billy Eckstine recording in Rio de Janeiro to an imagined Barack Obama writing poems to his father Myronn Hardy's third collection comprises war place love and history all yearning to be reconciled Don't Whisper Too Much and Portrait of a Young Artiste from Bona Mbella Frieda Ekotto, 2019-04-03 Don't Whisper Too Much was the first work of fiction by an African writer to present love stories between African women in a positive light Bona Mbella is the second In presenting the emotional and romantic lives of gay African women Ekotto comments upon larger issues that affect these women including Africa as a post colonial space the circulation of knowledge and the question of who writes history In recounting the beauty and complexity of relationships between women who love women Ekotto inscribes these stories within African history both past and present Don't Whisper Too Much follows young village girl Ada's quest to write her story on her own terms outside of heteronormative history Bona Mbella focuses upon the life of a young woman from a poor neighborhood in an African megalopolis And Pan a love story brings the many themes from Don't Whisper Much and Bona Mbella together as it explores how emotional and sexual connections between women have the power to transform even in the face of great humiliation and suffering Each story in the collection addresses how female sexuality is often marked by violence and yet is also a place for emotional connection pleasure and agency Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press

Biomythography Bayou Mel Michelle Lewis, 2024-10-11 When your stories flow from the brackish waters of the Gulf South where the land and water merge your narratives cannot be contained or constrained by the Eurocentric conventions of autobiography When your story is rooted in the histories of your West African Creek and Creole ancestors as well as your Black feminist and queer communities you must create a biomythography that transcends linear time and extends beyond the pages of a book Biomythography Bayou is more than just a book of memoir it is a ritual for conjuring queer embodied knowledges and decolonial perspectives Blending a rich gumbo of genres from ingredients such as praise songs folk tales recipes incantations and invocations it also includes a multimedia component with bayou tableau images and audio recording links Inspired by such writers as Audre Lorde Zora Neale Hurston and Octavia Butler Mel Michelle Lewis draws from the well of her ancestors in order to chart a course toward healing Afrofutures Showcasing the nature folklore dialect foodways music and art of the Gulf's coastal communities Lewis finds poetic ways to celebrate their power and wisdom

In Media Res James Braxton Peterson, 2014-12-18 In Media Res is a manifold collection that reflects the intersectional qualities of university programming in the twenty first century Taking race gender and popular culture as its central thematic subjects the volume collects academic essays speeches poems and creative works that critically engage a wide range of issues including American imperialism racial and gender discrimination the globalization of culture and the limitations of our new multimedia world This diverse assortment of works by scholars activists and artists models the complex ways that we must engage university students faculty staff and administration in a moment where so many of us are confounded by the in medias res nature of our interface with the world in the current moment Featuring contributions from Imani Perry Michael Eric Dyson Suheir Hammad John Jennings and Adam Mansbach In Media Res is a primer for academic inquiry into popular culture American studies critical media literacy women gender and sexuality studies and Africana studies

Black California Gold Wendy M. Thompson, 2025-03-11 For numerous migrants who ventured westward in the twentieth century in search of greater opportunities the glitter of California often proved to be mere fool's gold promising easy riches but frequently resulting in dispossession and displacement Poet Wendy M Thompson is descended from two of these migrant waves post 1965 Chinese immigrants and Black southerners of the Second Great Migration whose presence has permanently transformed the region In this arresting debut poetry collection Thompson traces the past and present of California's Bay Area exploring themes of family migration girlhood and identity against a backdrop of urban redevelopment advanced gentrification and the erasure of Black communities Traveling down both familiar highways and obscure side streets her poems map a region where race class and language are just some of the fault lines that divide communities and produce periodic tremors of violence and resistance Confronting assimilationist myths of the American Dream Black California Gold depicts a setting that is less a melting pot than a smelting pot subjecting different ethnic groups to searing trials and extreme pressures that threaten to break them down entirely Yet it also celebrates the Black residents of the Bay Area who have struggled to sustain home and hope amid increasingly desperate conditions
