Wanderlust A History Of Walking Solnit Rebecca Author Paperback 2001:

Wanderlust Rebecca Solnit, 2001-06-01 A passionate thought provoking exploration of walking as a political and cultural activity from the author of Orwell's Roses Drawing together many histories of anatomical evolution and city design of treadmills and labyrinths of walking clubs and sexual mores Rebecca Solnit creates a fascinating portrait of the range of possibilities presented by walking Arguing that the history of walking includes walking for pleasure as well as for political aesthetic and social meaning Solnit focuses on the walkers whose everyday and extreme acts have shaped our culture from philosophers to poets to mountaineers She profiles some of the most significant walkers in history and fiction from Wordsworth to Gary Snyder from Jane Austen's Elizabeth Bennet to Andre Breton's Nadja finding a profound relationship between walking and thinking and walking and culture Solnit argues for the necessity of preserving the time and space in which to walk in our ever more car dependent and accelerated world

Born to Walk Dan Rubinstein, 2015-04-01 The case for getting back on our feet The humble act of putting one foot in front of the other transcends age geography culture and class and is one of the most economical and environmentally responsible modes of transit Yet with our modern fixation on speed this healthy pedestrian activity has been largely left behind At a personal and professional crossroads writer editor and obsessive walker Dan Rubinstein travelled throughout the U S U K and Canada to walk with people who saw the act not only as a form of transportation and recreation but also as a path to a better world There are no magic bullet solutions to modern epidemics like obesity anxiety alienation and climate change But what if there is a simple way to take a step in the right direction Combining fascinating reportage eye opening research and Rubinstein's own discoveries Born to Walk explores how far this ancient habit can take us how much repair is within range and guarantees that you'll never again take walking for granted

Landscape and Subjectivity in the Work of Patrick Keiller, W.G. Sebald, and Iain Sinclair David Anderson, 2020 Studies the work of British film maker and writer Patrick Keiller German writer W G Sebald and Welsh writer and film maker Iain Sinclair to illustrate how they represent a highly significant moment in English literature and film's engagement with landscape and environment

A Jurisprudence of Movement Olivia Barr, 2016-02-22 Law moves whether we notice or not Set amongst a spatial turn in the humanities and jurisprudence more specifically this book calls for a greater attention to legal movement in both its technical and material forms Despite various ways the spatial turn has been taken up in legal thought questions of law movement and its materialities are too often overlooked This book addresses this oversight and it does so through an attention to the materialities of legal movement Paying attention to how law moves across different colonial and contemporary spaces this book reveals there is a problem with common law's place Primarily set in the postcolonial context of Australia although ranging beyond this nationalised topography both spatially and temporally this book argues movement is fundamental to the very terms of common law's existence How then might we move well Explored through examples of walking and burial this book responds to the challenge of how to live with a contemporary form of colonial legal inheritance by arguing we must take seriously the challenge of living with law and think more carefully about its spatial productions and place making activities Unsettling place this book returns the question of movement to jurisprudence Encountering The Book of Margery Kempe Laura Kalas, Laura Varnam, 2021-11-30 This innovative critical volume brings the study of Margery Kempe into the twenty first century Structured around four categories of encounter textual internal external and performative the volume offers a capacious exploration of The Book of Margery Kempe characterised by multiple complementary and dissonant approaches It employs a multiplicity of scholarly and critical lenses including the intertextual history of medieval women s literary culture medical humanities history of science digital humanities literary criticism oral history the global Middle Ages archival research and creative re imagining Revealing several new discoveries about Margery Kempe and her Book in its global contexts and offering multiple ways of reading the Book in the modern world it will be an essential companion for years to come Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald s books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald s most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph s appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald s artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Seaching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies Planting Letters and Weaving Lines Jonathan Homrighausen, 2022-11-17 The illuminations of The Saint John s Bible have delighted many with their imaginative takes on Scripture But many struggle to appreciate the calligraphy more deeply than merely noting its beauty Does calligraphy mean something How is it beautiful This book written by a biblical scholar who has spent years working with this Bible shows how calligraphic art powerfully interplays visual form textual content and creative process Homrighausen

proposes five lenses for this art form gardens weaving pilgrimage touching and enfleshing words Each of these lenses springs from the poetry of the Song of Songs its illuminations in The Saint John s Bible and medieval ways of understanding the scribe s craft While these metaphors for calligraphic art draw from this particular illuminated Bible this book is aimed at all lovers of calligraphy art and sacred text Life, Re-Scaled Liliane Campos, Pierre-Louis Patoine, 2022-10-11 This edited volume explores new engagements with the life sciences in contemporary fiction poetry comics and performance The gathered case studies investigate how recent creative work reframes the human within microscopic or macroscopic scales from cellular biology to systems ecology and engages with the ethical philosophical and political issues raised by the twenty first century s shifting views of life The collection thus examines literature and performance as spaces that shape our contemporary biological imagination Comprised of thirteen chapters by an international group of academics Life Re Scaled The Biological Imagination in Twenty First Century Literature and Performance engages with four main areas of biological study Invisible scales cells microbes and mycelium Neuro medical imaging and diagnosis Pandemic imaginaries and Ecological scales The authors examine these concepts in emerging forms such as plant theatre climate change art ecofiction and pandemic fiction including the work of Jeff Vandermeer Jon McGregor Jeff Lemire and Extinction Rebellion s Red Rebel Brigade performances This valuable resource moves beyond the biological paradigms that were central to the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to outline the specificity of a contemporary imagination Life Re Scaled is crucial reading for academics scholars and authors alike as it proposes an unprecedented overview of the relationship between literature performance and the life sciences in the twenty first century Public Library Core Collection John Greenfieldt, Patrice Bartell, 2008 Wilson s Public Library Core Collection Nonfiction 13th Edition 2008 recommends reference and nonfiction books for the general adult audience It is a guide to over 9 000 books over 6 500 titles are new to this edition plus review sources and other professional aids for librarians and media specialists Acquisitions librarians reference librarians and cataloguers can all use this reliable guide to building and maintaining a well rounded collection of the most highly recommended reference and nonfiction books for adults All titles are selected by librarians editors advisors and nominators all of them experts in public library services The collection is a valuable tool for collection development and maintenance reader s advisory weeding your collection and curriculum support Richly enhanced records provide a wealth of useful information All entries include complete bibliographic data as well as price subject headings annotations grade level Dewey classification cover art and quotations from reviews Many entries also list awards best book lists and starred reviews Save Time Efficiently organised and includes Starred titles Save Money Allocate your resources to the best materials available Stay Relevant Discover the best in important contemporary categories Complete Coverage Includes recommendations on periodicals and electronic resources too Four Year Subscription This Core Collection was originally sold as a four year subscription The core edition published in 2008 delivers a library bound volume with an extensive selective list of recommended books From 2009 to 2011
