Wonder Image And Cosmos In Medieval Islam:

Wonder, Image, and Cosmos in Medieval Islam Persis Berlekamp, 2011 This original book untangles fundamental confusions about historical relationships among Islam representational images and philosophy Closely examining some of the most meaningful and best preserved premodern illustrated manuscripts of Islamic cosmographies Persis Berlekamp refutes the assertion often made by other historians of medieval Islamic art that while representational images did exist they did not serve religious purposes The author focuses on widely disseminated Islamic images of the wonders of creation Show more This original book untangles fundamental confusions about historical relationships among Islam representational images and philosophy Closely examining some of the most meaningful and best preserved premodern illustrated manuscripts of Islamic cosmographies Persis Berlekamp refutes the assertion often made by other historians of medieval Islamic art that while representational images did exist they did not serve religious purposes The author focuses on widely disseminated Islamic images of the wonders of creation ranging from angels to human snatching birds and argues that these illustrated manuscripts aimed to induce wonder at God s creation as was their stated purpose She tracks the various ways that images advanced that purpose in the genre s formative milieu the century and a half following the Mongol conquest of the Islamic East in 1258 Delving into social history and into philosophical ideas relevant to manuscript and image production Berlekamp shows that philosophy occupied an established if controversial position within Islam She thereby radically reframes representational images within the history of Islam

Imagination and Fantasy in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2020-08-24 The notions of other peoples cultures and natural conditions have always been determined by the epistemology of imagination and fantasy providing much freedom and creativity and yet have also created much fear anxiety and horror In this regard the pre modern world demonstrates striking parallels with our own insofar as the projections of alterity might be different by degrees but they are fundamentally the same by content Dreams illusions projections concepts hopes utopias dystopias desires and emotional attachments are as specific and impactful as the physical environment This volume thus sheds important light on the various lenses used by people in the Middle Ages and the early modern age as to how they came to terms with their perceptions images and notions Previous scholarship focused heavily on the history of mentality and history of emotions whereas here the history of pre modern imagination and fantasy assumes center position Imaginary things are taken seriously because medieval and early modern writers and artists clearly reveal their great significance in their works and their daily lives This approach facilitates a new deep structure analysis of pre modern culture

Medieval Marvels and Fictions in the Latin West and Islamic World Michelle Karnes, 2022-07-12 A cross cultural study of magical phenomena in the Middle Ages Marvels like enchanted rings and sorcerers stones were topics of fascination in the Middle Ages not only in romance and travel literature but also in the period s philosophical writing Rather than constructions of belief accepted only by simple minded people Michelle Karnes shows that these spectacular wonders were near impossibilities that demanded scrutiny and investigation This is the first book to analyze a diverse set of writings on such wonders comparing texts from the Latin West including those written in English French Italian and Castilian Spanish with those written in Arabic as it works toward a unifying theory of marvels across different disciplines and cultures Karnes tells a story about the parallels between Arabic and Latin thought reminding us that experiences of the strange and the unfamiliar travel across a range of genres spanning geographical and conceptual space and offering an ideal vantage point from which to understand intercultural exchange Karnes traverses this diverse archive showing how imagination imbues marvels with their character and power making them at once enigmatic creative and resonant Skirting the distinction between the real and unreal these marvels challenge readers to discover the highest capabilities of both nature and the human intellect Karnes offers a rare comparative perspective and a new methodology to study a topic long recognized as central to medieval culture

Persian Cultures of Power and the Entanglement of the Afro-Eurasian World Matthew P. Canepa, 2024-01-02 A cutting edge analysis of 2 500 years of Persian visual architectural and material cultures of power and their role in connecting the world With the rise of the Achaemenid Empire 550 330 BCE Persian institutions of kingship became the model for legitimacy authority and prestige across three continents Despite enormous upheavals Iranian visual and political cultures connected an ever wider swath of Afro Eurasia over the next two millennia exerting influence at key historical junctures This book provides the first critical exploration of the role Persian cultures played in articulating the myriad ways power was expressed across Afro Eurasia between the sixth century BCE and the nineteenth century CE Exploring topics such as royal cosmologies fashion banqueting manuscript cultures sacred landscapes and inscriptions the volume s essays analyze the intellectual and political exchanges of art architecture ritual and luxury material within and beyond the Persian world They show how Perso Iranian cultures offered neighbors and competitors raw material with which to formulate their own imperial aspirations Unique among studies of Persia and Iran this volume explores issues of change renovation and interconnectivity in these cultures over the longue dur e

Muthanna/Mirror Writing in Islamic Calligraphy Esra Akin-Kivanç, 2020-09-15 Muthanna also known as mirror writing is a compelling style of Islamic calligraphy composed of a source text and its mirror image placed symmetrically on a horizontal or vertical axis This style elaborates on various scripts such as Kufic naskh and muhaqqaq through compositional arrangements including doubling superimposing and stacking Muthanna is found in diverse media ranging from architecture textiles and tiles to paper metalwork and woodwork Yet despite its centuries old history and popularity in countries from Iran to Spain scholarship on the form has remained limited and flawed Muthanna Mirror Writing in Islamic Calligraphy provides a comprehensive study of the text and its forms beginning with an explanation of the visual principles and techniques used in its creation Author Esra Akin Kivanç explores muthanna's relationship to similar forms of writing in Judaic and Christian contexts as well as the specifically Islamic contexts within which symmetrically mirrored compositions reached full fruition were assigned new meanings and transformed into more complex visual forms Throughout Akin Kivanç imaginatively plays on the implicit relationship between subject and object in muthanna by examining the point of view of the artist the viewer and the work of art In doing so this study elaborates on the vital links between outward form and inner meaning in Islamic calligraphy

Aisha's Cushion Jamal J. Elias, 2012-11-15 Westerners have a strong impression that Islam does not allow religious imagery Elias corrects this view Unearthing shades of meaning in Islamic thought throughout history he argues that Islamic perspectives on representation and perception should be sought in diverse areas such as optics alchemy dreaming vehicle decoration Sufi metaphysics

The Description of the World Marco Polo, 2016-02-11 Composed in a prison cell in 1298 by Venetian merchant Marco Polo and Arthurian romance writer Rustichello of Pisa The Description of the World relates Polo's experiences in Asia and at the court of Qubilai the Great Khan of the Mongol Empire In addition to a new translation based on the Franco Italian F manuscript of Polo's text this edition includes genealogies of the Mongol rulers and nine maps of Polo's journey as well as thorough annotation and an extensive bibliography

Picturing History at the Ottoman Court Emine Fetvaci, 2013-02-06 A comprehensive study of Ottoman illuminated histories and their readers makers intended meanings and political uses Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies The Ottoman court of the late sixteenth century produced an unprecedented number of sumptuously illustrated chronicles While usually dismissed as imperial eulogies Emine Fetvaci demonstrates that these books commented on contemporary events promoted the political agendas of courtiers as well as the sultan and presented their patrons and creators in ways that helped shape the perspectives of their elite audience Picturing History at the Ottoman Court traces the simultaneous crafting of political power the codification of a historical record and the unfolding of cultural change An absolutely original work full of good ideas and important points Fascinating Pamela Brummett University of Tennessee One of the most profound examples of new directions in scholarship dealing with the book and the text of the past few decades It shows an exceptional breadth of vision Walter G Andrews University of Washington Fetvaci's book an exhaustive and richly illustrated study based on secondary literature and primary sources among them some documents in the Topkapi Palace archive will no doubt remain the standard study on the topic for many years to come Bibliotheca Orientalis A welcome addition to the work of scholars who are studying these manuscripts in relation to the context of their production This is a handsome book International Journal of Islamic Architecture This is a book for the specialist as well as the intelligent undergraduate as its exceptional clarity of organization and exposition makes complex and overlapping dynamics readily meaningful The lavish illustration 102 colour plates and the author's interest in comparative imperial practices add to its depth Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies
